

Household Hints

Custards mixed in a wide-mouthed pitcher can easily be poured into custard cups without spilling.

Cool jars of hot canned fruits out of a draft to prevent their cracking.

The egg slicer is good for much besides slicing eggs. Thin, even slices of cooked potatoes or beets may be made with it, and some fruits slice nicely that way.

To make dainty sandwiches, use bread that is at least 24 hours old and slice thin with a sharp knife.

When clothing is spotted with rain, place a clean, damp cloth on the material and press it with a moderately warm iron.

Baste a line down center front of the dress you are making and another down center back. Use these lines as guides in fitting.

Star Dust

By MARY DICKSON
General Eisenhower is authority for the statement that "The Story of GI Joe," the much-acclaimed Ernie Pyle film, is the most impressive war film ever made.

Former movie stars now in the service may have been left behind. Hollywood never did produce enough features to star all of them. New stars have been developed. Some of the older ones have been almost forgotten. There is no doubt that many of these movie people, heroes of this war will have to take a back seat when they return. Some will produce, some will retire and some will enter business.
The new stars include Van Johnson, Eddie Bracken, Cornel Wilde, Robert Walker and dozens more.

Tough-guy Edward G. Robinson will play the part of a warm-hearted farmer in M.G.M.'s "Our Vines Have Tender Grapes." Robinson plays the part of the typical farmer as if he was born to the part, even better than some of the tough-guy movie roles he has had.

Xavier Cugat will appear with his orchestra in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "Holiday in Mexico."

"Back to Bataan," R.K.O. drama of warfare in the Philippines, has met with the approval of heroes of Bataan. The cast includes John Wayne, Anthony Quinn, Beulah Bondi, Fely Franquell and Leonard Stroug. Edward Dmytryk outdid himself as director.

After a six-year absence, Leonore Ulrich is returning to the screen to portray a character role in the Lucille Ball-John Hodiak picture, "Time for Two."

Carole Landis has been named by Twentieth Century-Fox to be starred in the musical, "Girl in the Moon." The film, in Technicolor, will be produced by George Jessel, with a Hollywood background and deal with search for new movie talent.

One picture-a-year program has been adopted by Olivia De Havilland, at least for the next three years. She has just signed a contract with Paramount calling for one feature role a year for three years.

Paramount will produce Elmer Rice's new play, "Dream Girl," in New York City, with Betty Field in the starring role. Stephen Laird, magazine correspondent, will try his luck as a Columbia producer.

If London has its way, it will become the Hollywood of Europe, or, if the truth were known, they plan to become the Hollywood of the world. Tempting offers have been made from the English capital to have Ronald Colman go there to play opposite Anna Neagle in "Piccadilly, 1945."

Dick Powell is running true to type. That means that he has variety in the type of films in which he appears. In his latest he will be a bank clerk by day and a killer by night.

Bob Cummings' first will be Chaplain John Grant's "Answer Us From Heaven," the story of an army chaplain who returns from the front minus both legs.

Major Allen "Dry" Martini, whose plane was credited with 38 enemy planes, has turned down acting offers and returned to R.K.O. as assistant in production management department.

John Carroll was picked for the singing lead in "The Kissing Bandit." Carroll's voice has developed and shown considerable improvement and he is slated for big things in singing roles.

Records are being smashed by Van Johnson and Esther Williams on the screen. Their pictures are always in demand and held over in most cities.

MISCELLANY—Will Bing Crosby return to the air? That is the $64 question. He is still up in the air about the answer. "Song to Remember," in Technicolor, still packing them in. Chopin's music the feature, shared with Paul Muni. Billy Rose believes he can repeat success of his "Diamond Horseshoe" in London, with entertainers of yesterday, after which he will eye the screen for a similar feature. Angeline Orr, radio actress, has been signed by Columbia Pictures. Elizabeth Brown won her divorce.

Tomboy Coats and 'Dorm' Jackets Are Practical for College Girls

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

TODAY's college girl certainly knows her fashions. What's more she is not carried away with fippant ideas, but exercises keen judgment in making her selections. It's part of the college spirit to be intrigued with the idea of plenty pretty-pretty dresses with glamour accessories galore, but when it comes to laying the foundation of her wardrobe, the modern college-faring girl wants snappy utilitarian clothes that tune to campus sports and coal-shortage temperature.

One item that college girls have come to regard as a wardrobe "must" is a sturdy coat that will defy wind, rain and weather, yet look sophisticated to the nth degree. Well, wrapped up in a smart Tomboy coat as shown to the left in the illustration, the smart college girl knows she will be kept warm on a blustery wintry day as well as present a fashion-wise appearance wherever she goes. A deep brown cotton-backed pile lines this red water-repellant poplin coat, also forming the notched revers. It is the popular three-quarter length, double-breasted with a detachable self belt.

When it comes to indoor comfort, the darling of the "dorm" settles down to study in a jacket of wide wale cotton plush which has a very swank look at the same time that it is ever so "comfy" when thermometers get temperamental on a chill wintry night. Easy, boxy lines and a tiny Chinese collar spell chic for this indoor jacket. A double dose of comfort is achieved with the gray cotton corduroy pedal pushers beneath. These have a red felt trim and are warm and cheery.
A classic cotton corduroy dress that goes everywhere on the campus and is good style for classroom wear too is shown to the right, worn by a bicycle enthusiast who apparently is pedaling her way to health and happiness. The outstanding feature of this dress is a button side-closing from underarm to hem permitting active girls to bowl, skate or bicycle in comfort. The button sleeves and deep front pleat are extra ease features. Clam digger pants made of neon pink corduroy, a featured color this fall, worn with a black jersey shirt provides another type bicycle suit. Designers are making much use of corduroy in pastel colors in the sportswear realm.

Sweaters, as college girls wear them, have a story of many chapters to tell. There is a big demand for cashmeres to be tucked neatly inside the skirt and finished off with a belt. The boxy cardigan is still the top seller. The sleeveless sweater is also finding ready acceptance, either in the pullover type or back-buttoned.

Raincoats, which look like dressy coats, are going over in a big way with the campus group. They have inset belts or drawing waist ties with the drawstring and bow treatment repeated about the sleeves at the wrist. These come in adorable colors.
Campus dresses reflect an easy-to-wear comfortable look together with an unerring smartness about them. Done in fine wools, either neutral in tone or vividly colorful, they flaunt all the new style points of soft shoulder lines, wide armholes. The new thing this year is to add a glamorous wide belt. The three-piece suit with contrasting clan plaid coat is almost an entire wardrobe within itself. It's one of the season's most popular buys. And don't forget scarfs! You'll be wanting a long wool plaid scarf to wear, one end thrown over one shoulder. Of definite campus appeal also, is the red cotton square which resembles a farmer's handkerchief. It can be worn as a novel belt simply placed under the loops of the favorite jeans as well as around the neck or as a bandanna around the head.

Below, a simple jumper is transformed with a braid trimming that accents the front opening. This stunning jumper tunes to afternoon occasions.

Elegance Is Keynote Of New Fall Millinery

The very fact that hats have gone to such an extreme height gives an air of new dignity to the millinery scene. Then too, it's been many a season since velvet held such an important place as it bids fair to do this fall and winter in the millinery realm. Before the fall season is far spent you will be seeing richly feathered and be-ribboned velvet hats coming into their own in a blaze of new glory. When it comes to new elegance, the ultimate is being reached in the stunning fur hats that are scheduled to play a stellar role in the months to come. Some of them are quite ponderous looking, especially the Russian-inspired turbans. They are wonderfully becoming but you do have to develop an acquired taste for some of the more extreme types. Then there's the new satin hat fashions that are so smart looking, made up as they are in all the new high-hat types. They are perfect companions for the new black satin frocks for dress-up wear and restaurant and cocktail dates.

Striped Surah and Satin

New on Fall Fabric List While striped surah and striped satin are new on the current fabric list they are really staging a revival, for in the distant yesteryears gay surah and satin stripes flourished in the mode. These silken stripes are being used for choicest of afternoon gowns this season and they are smart made up in suits to wear under the winter coat.

26,000 Heirs Turn Up

The largest number of "heirs" to an American fortune turned up in Philadelphia in 1935 at the proceedings to determine the rightful owners of $25,000,000 which had been left unwill by a Mrs. Henrietta Garrett, says Collier's. Although this wealthy widow had lived alone without communicating with a friend or relative for 35 years before her death in 1930, more than 26,000 alleged relatives from 48 states and 27 foreign countries claimed a share of her estate. But so far, no one has received a cent.

SOFT scallops outline the neckline of this graceful afternoon frock. The simple gores skirt is very flattering and easy to wear. Use a pretty all-over scroll or floral print and add your favorite jewelry or a bright flower for ornament.

Pattern No. 8903 is designed for sizes 14, 16, 18, 20; 40, 42 and 44. Size 16, short sleeves, requires 3 1/4 yards of 39-inch fabric.

Higher Than Niagara

Residents of North America are pretty proud of their huge Niagara Falls, but folks in British Guiana have a nice waterfall too—many times as high as our local wonder. Few white men have seen Kaitere Falls, but the water there falls 741 feet.
