Substantial Quality Food a Necessity on Winter Social Menu

Fiesta punch is delicious served either hot or cold. No sugar is required when one of the suggested substitutes is used, and the beverage can be quickly made a short time before guests arrive.

With so many families returning to the old home town, and couples who married during the war finally getting settled together, welcome parties are becoming quite the style. Social engagement books which looked blank are now filled again.

Yes, entertaining is due for a revival. This is the time, because the holiday season is approaching in full glory. Food is not the problem it was last year although there still are restrictions, and it's fairly easy to serve something nice and make the table look its prettiest.

If the group is mixed and there are a number of men (big eaters, now that they have learned to have lots of chow or to mess regularly), plan to have a substantial casserole dish with some hearty trimmings like big salads and rich-looking cakes or pastry.

Or, if the affair is to be just a snack, serve bread with a choice of fillings and the usual accompaniments like potato chips, pickles, olives, relishes, and punch or some favorite beverage.

Suggestion I.
Assorted Bread: Oatmeal, Raisin, White and Rye.
Sandwich Fillings: Nippy Cheese and Peanut Butter.
Relishes: Olives, Radishes, Carrot Sticks and Celery Hearts.
Beverage: Orange Juice or Fiesta Punch.

Nippy Cheese Filling.
Combine equal parts of cream cheese and butter. Add salt and paprika to taste and 1 teaspoon each of finely minced parsley, pickles, olives and green pepper. Flavor with sardine paste.

Peanut Butter Filling.
Peanut butter may be served alone or it may be combined with any of the following for a delicious filling: jam, chopped bacon or grated raw carrots.

Fiesta Punch. (Makes 1/2 gallon)
1 cup strong tea
3/4 cup sugar, honey or corn syrup
1/2 cup lemon juice
1 1/2 cups orange juice
1 cup grape juice
1 quart water

Make the strong tea by pouring 1 cup boiling water over 4 teaspoons of tea. Dissolve sugar or substitutes in the hot, strained tea. (The tea should steep first for 5 minutes.) For a hot punch, combine the tea with the fruit juices and add the water which should be boiling hot. Serve at once.
For cold punch, chill the tea and combine with well-chilled fruit juices and iced water. Garnish the punch with slices of orange and lemon.

Care for Your Silverware: Clean, hot, soapy water is recommended for both flat serving pieces and tableware. Rinse in boiling water after washing and wipe dry as soon as possible.
To remove tarnish, use a good silver polish or wet a little sifted whiting with ammonia and apply with a soft cloth. Let stand until dry, rub off with soft cloth, rinse and polish with a second cloth or chamois.
Silver tarnished with egg should be heated immediately.
A small soft brush is best for cleaning ornamental pieces.
Silverware should never be heated directly or placed on the range. Serving dishes may be heated over hot water or kept warm on the radiator if an asbestos pad is placed under them.

Suggestion II.
Farm Sausage Casserole
Combination Salad Crusted Rolls
Favorite Cake
Beverage

The main dish for this hearty snack can be made ready before company comes, and then heated about half an hour before serving time rolls around.

Farm Sausage Casserole. (Serves 6)
1 1/2 cups broiled macaroni
1/2 cup diced American cheese
1 tablespoon minced onion
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 1/2 cups thin white sauce
1 cup green peas, cooked
1/2 cup sauteed mushrooms
1/2 cup chopped pimiento
1 pound pork sausages, broiled
Buttered bread crumbs

Cook macaroni in boiling, salted water until tender. Drain and rinse. Combine with all remaining ingredients, except sausages and bread crumbs. Place in casserole which has been greased. Top with sausages and sprinkle a few bread crumbs over the top. Heat in a slow (325-degree) oven for 25 minutes.

Combination Salad. (Serves 6 to 8)
1 head lettuce
1 cucumber
2 to 3 tomatoes
1 bunch radishes
1 bunch small onions
1 green pepper
Celery curls
Carrot curls
French dressing

Wash all vegetables carefully and allow to chill. Break lettuce into chunks and line salad bowl. Toss in all other ingredients which have been sliced or cut into pieces and sprinkle french dressing over them.

Favorite Cake.
1 cup whipping cream
1 cup sugar
2 eggs
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 1/2 cups sifted cake flour
2 teaspoons baking powder

Whip the cream until slightly thickened but not stiff enough to hold a peak. Fold in the sugar gently, the beaten eggs and vanilla. Add the flour which has been sifted with the baking powder and a speck of salt. Mix only until smooth. Place in two shallow cake pans and bake in a moderate (350-degree) oven for 25 minutes. Cool. Frost with seven-minute icing and sprinkle with coconut. Or, frost with whipped cream and sprinkle with coconut.

Seven-Minute Icing.
1 egg white, unbeaten
3 tablespoons cold water
3/4 cup granulated sugar
1/4 teaspoon cream of tartar
1/2 teaspoon vanilla

Place all ingredients in top of double boiler. Beat with rotary beater until mixed, then place over hot water, and continue beating until frosting stands up in peaks (about 7 minutes).

Ahead of the other foods the returned G.I. will look forward to are the good, homemade desserts. Whatever was his favorite when he left is sure to be his favorite when he returns. He has spent many hours thinking and dreaming of that dessert.

Chocolate has been a favorite of the serviceman. His favorite may have been chocolate ice cream, chocolate pie or chocolate cookies. The sizes of portions should be man-size, he has learned how to eat in a big way and will not be at home when dainty portions are passed out. Milk seems to be the favorite beverage of returned servicemen. This might be served with the addition of chocolate or in form of a malted or egg malted drink, all of which will be welcomed. Give him a try with bread, raisin, nut, potato, or best of all a real home baked loaf. He may be tired of dark tack and stale white bread, and anxious to try something new and different.

The Once Over by H.I. Phillips

WHEN THE DOCTOR COMES MARCHING HOME

It will be nice to phone a doctor's office again and find he is not in Europe, Asia or Africa.

So many physicians were taken into the war that the chances have been at least four to one that when you went to one's office you would see a sign "Out to Global War, Return Ultimately!" on the door.

The few doctors left at home were harder to see than a world series.

The lines were almost as long, and some patients arrived the night before and sat on soap boxes all night in order to get in first in the morning.

Patients had to wait so long for their turn, even when they got inside the house, that they often outgrew the original ailment and developed new symptoms during the wait.

If a patient didn't have high blood pressure when he entered a doctor's office he had it by the time he left.

These were tough years for hypochondriacs. When they imagined they were sick they also had to imagine they could get a physician.

It was tough on the doctors too. They were as overworked as subway guards in a rush hour. Their one regret was that they were unable to feel four pulses at a time.

Many a medic was in worse shape than the patients. One of the laughs of wartime was a doctor telling a patient "You're working too hard. You've got to take it easy."

When you finally got out of the waiting room and into a doctor's office you were brushed off faster than a man on a revolving floor. You left too dizzy to remember what he said. He was too dizzy to remember what was wrong with you.

It was nothing unusual to have a doctor greet you with "What is your ailment? I'll give you ten seconds."

Personally we were in a tough spot; five of our six doctors were in Asia. We always try to keep a second string team, but they were away, also. The only one left looked so run down we couldn't bear to see him. But one day we dropped in. "What's the matter with you?" he asked.

"I'm a nervous wreck," we replied. "From what?" he asked. "From watching you try to handle your business," we replied.

Then we gave him some pills he had once prescribed for us, told him he looked terrible and warned him to take it easy or he might need medical attention.

EASILY SATISFIED (With Apologies)

Man wants but little here below—
A shorter day and longer dough—
A streamlined home with gadgets new—
A limousine and beach car, too;
The latest television set—
A carefree attitude on debt—
A swimming pool in blue or pink—
And lots of room to sit and think.

A town house and a little place out in the country, just in case—
A motor boat for summer time—
And winter in a warmer climate—
A "walkout" every little while—
To work off that attack of bile—
A banner to tote here and there—
Proclaiming "This Shop Is Unfair."

Some people's wants are extra high—
They seek the pie up in the sky—
I merely seek to get my share—
With just a little bit to spare—
Some seek the apple and the core—
For tip-top blessings they would war; I'll be contented if I net
As much as the directors get.

The International Ladies' Garment Workers plan their own radio stations. The United Auto Workers and the CIO Clothing Workers have similar projects. This alarms us. It may mean an aerial picket line which radio addicts will have to cross in order to reach Jack Benny or Gabe Heatter.

If President Truman succeeds in plowing a straight furrow in Washington he will be the first man ever to do it on a merry-go-round.

In a milk strike we assume the strikers always threaten to stay out till the cows come home.

From Harrisburg, Ill., comes a report that the old fashioned wooden barrel is coming back. Fine. The way things are pointing in this country, it is good to know they will be available for street wear again.

Surplus Property Sales

Sweeping revision of surplus property regulations in favor of World War II veterans has been announced by W. Stuart Symington, administrator, after a personal investigation which indicated that some disposal agencies were giving veterans "the run-around."

The changes include elimination of the $2,500 limit on preferential purchases and within reasonable amounts, there will be no limit.

Permission for a veteran entering the retail business to purchase an initial stock of goods for resale. Hitherto, under interpretation of the G.I. bill, a veteran could buy materials to establish a store, but could not obtain preference on stock for sale.

Permission for veterans to deal directly with disposal agencies such as the department of commerce and Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

Special permission for veterans to buy automotive or other equipment required by his employment. It is said that few autos are available, however.

Provision that credit may be extended to veterans under terms and conditions established by the disposal agency which sells the goods. Thus, it will be possible for veterans to obtain loans from commerce department and RFC as well as the Smaller War Plants corporation. Information now is that the RFC will soon take over all disposal from the commerce department, which only recently assumed sale of consumer goods from treasury.

Questions and Answers

Q. When my twin brother entered the service he designated me beneficiary of his insurance. After a hasty marriage he made, he informed me and my parents he had not and had no intention of changing the beneficiary. After his death I was notified by the insurance department that I was his beneficiary. His wife has made some sort of claim for the insurance and has held up settlement for 16 months. Can anyone but the insured change the beneficiary or can the insurance department decide who is to get it?—J. F. K., Palo Alto, Calif.

A. No one can change the beneficiary but the insured. If you are named the beneficiary in the policy, then you are entitled to the insurance and the Veterans administration says the wife or no one else can hold it up 16 minutes. File your claim for the insurance with the Veterans administration.

Q. With reference to sale of government surplus property and the $2,500 amount sold to an individual, I am much interested in further details on this matter and any information relative to location of these surplus property boards will be much appreciated.—J. A. V., Hingham, Mont.

A. The $2,500 limit has recently been removed. Your nearest Smaller War Plants Board is at Boise, Idaho, 210 Capital Securities Bldg. Your nearest department of commerce board is at Denver, Region Nine, 1030 15th street. Suggest you write to these boards for further details.

Q. I want to know if a man 27 years old, who has been in the navy almost two years and has two kids, the oldest four years and the baby can't walk, can get a discharge on this condition soon.—Wife, Coweta, Okla.

A. No, the minimum number of navy points for enlisted personnel as of November 1 is 41 points. From your letter, your husband has only about 36 points, if he has had no overseas duty.

Q. My husband is a seaman in the navy. I have asked assistance of the Red Cross to pay my hospital bill for an operation. They said "No" and recommended the Navy Relief. I wrote them stating conditions; their answer was to loan me the money until I could work to pay it back. Wasn't I entitled to medical care?—Mrs. E. D., Taylorville, N.C.

A. The navy department says you were definitely entitled to medical care if you applied to the navy medical dispensary before your operation. Suggest you apply to the nearest medical dispensary and they will inform you as to your status.

Q. I was discharged from the navy under honorable conditions. The discharge reads, BuPers-BuMed Joint Ltr." Could you please tell me what this means?—R. J. A., Hawthorne, Calif.

A. It means Bureau of Personnel-Bureau of Medics Joint Letter, the authority under which your discharge was given.

Q. Is it true if a boy enlists in the navy reserve at 17, that he is automatically released one day preceding his 21st birthday?—Mrs. E. R. M., Tule Lake, Calif.

A. The navy department says yes.
