New Water supply

The city council last Friday, approved a resolution calling for a special election to vote on bonds for a new water system. The present system is wholly inadequate for the needs of the population which has made a marked increase in the past few years. The present plans point toward the use of the waters of Horn creek at a point which lies about five miles from the city. The cost of the project is listed at approximately $100,000.00.

MAYOR RESIGNS

Ralph Jennings, Talent's mayor for the past year, has resigned. Mr. Jennings has sold his property here in Talent and plans to make his home outside the city limits. According to law a city official must reside in the city. Talent's affairs have been administered wisely and well under the guidance of Mayor Jennings. The next meeting of the Grange will be held the first Thursday in April, will honor the Grange birthday. Talent Grange was first organized April 9, 1928, and this year, April 9th will be its 18th year as a Grange unit. Sandwiches, cookies and cakes were served by Mrs. Hallie Cannon, and Mrs. Coulon.

Due to the absence of a lecturer, no program was held.

GRANGE VETOS BUILDING PROJECT

Talent will have no new Grange hall. Not this year at any rate. After much debate, pro and con, members of the local farmers organization have decided almost unanimously to defer any building plans until some time in the future. While members agreed that a new hall was highly desirable at this time, nevertheless, the fact that many other building requirements should hold priority over those of the Talent community organization discouraged the Grangers from attempting the project at this time. It was thought that it would be better to put up with the adverse conditions encountered at the City Hall than to run the risk of causing a shortage on some more important project.

However, some progress has been made on the matter. A piece of property directly across the street from the Talent school has been acquired by the organization for a site, and plans have been drawn up for the proposed building. Actual construction will not start until material situation becomes less critical.

Mrs. Mary Higgins, of Talent, is in the hospital with a bad case of tonsillitis. Mrs. Higgins is the mother of Mrs. Margaret Hamilton, who plays in the orchestra every Saturday night at the dances held in the City Hall.

Harry Walters, butcher and co-owner of the Talent Market, suffered a severe cut on his leg when the knife with which he was carving a quarter of beef, slipped, penetrated the flesh on his leg, going clear to the bone. Mr. Walters was taken immediately to the hospital where the wound was sewed up. He is convalescing for a few days at his home.

DEPENDABILITY

Few other traits of character are as important in a man or a company as dependability. It is doubly important in a public transportation service.

Greyhound is fully alert to the fact that the communities of Oregon depend heavily on the continuous flow of modern, local Greyhound service. Keeping and improving this high standard of operation is Greyhound's number one job.

The priceless experience gained in bus pioneering and development has given Greyhound people the "know-how". Their sound understanding of Oregon's transportation problems has enabled them to build, right from the start, an expanding, ever-better local service. Today or tomorrow, you can go where you want to, when you want to, by Greyhound. That's dependability.
