Cosmopolitan City

Bombay's population of 1,600,000 is made up of Europeans, Persians, Afghans, Japanese and Chinese in addition to representatives of the various peoples of India. Among the followers of religions, Hindus predominate, but there are also many Mohammedans, Christians, and Parsis. Descendants of ancient Persian fire-worshipers, the Parsis are of interest because of their "Towers of Silence," where the dead are left to be devoured by vultures.

Intense Darkness

When the sun reaches a certain north-south line (called a meridian) over a certain spot, it is noon at that spot. At that moment that place is receiving the maximum of light from the sun. Twelve hours later, midnight, the sun has reached the lower end of that meridian on the other side of the world or directly "under your feet" so to speak. It is at that moment that the sun is the farthest possible below the horizon and light would be at the minimum.

Anemic Condition

Anemia is a condition in which the number of red blood cells or their hemoglobin content or both are below normal levels. Such a condition may develop through loss or destruction of these blood elements, or through failure of their formation.

Keep Ash Trays Clean

Ash trays are an ever-present item in the decor of any room. Do more than empty them-wash them in soap and water. This removes both stains and odors. Rub a piece of soap on those persistent smears. Rinse and wipe dry.

Save Soap Scraps

Dry suds are an excellent outlet for odds and ends of soap that are too small for regular use at the sink or tub. These should always be saved and used in soap jelly or other ways so that not a single soap bubble is wasted.

Milk Content

A cow that makes the modest yearly production of 8,000 pounds of 3.7 per cent milk will produce in that milk 272 pounds of protein, 296 pounds of fat, 392 pounds of sugar and 56 pounds of mineral matter.

Indian Noble

The first English title of nobility in America was conferred on an Indian. Wanchese, chief of a North Carolina tribe, was dubbed "Lord of Manteo" after his visit to England with Raleigh's colonists.

Pickett's Charge

Pickett's famous charge at Gettysburg was not led by Pickett, but by General Pettigrew of North Carolina. The charge was made by General Pickett's command, but Pickett was not there.

Plant Investment

More than 90 per cent of our investment in business plant and equipment during the decade 1931-1940 was for replacement purposes only.

Lynch Law

The term "lynch law" is believed to have originated when residents of Franklin county, N. C., hanged Major Lynch, a royal tax collector, in 1767 after a summary trial.

Witch-Chasers

In some parts of Central Europe, annual witch-chasing ceremonies are still held in April as part of the spring cleaning.
