Grizzlies Meet Medford Friday

Ashland's Grizzlies will tangle Friday night with their decades old rivals, the Medford Black Tornados. The game is slated for Walter Phillips field at 8:00 p.m.

The Pear City aggregation will be out to maintain its season's record of no losses and but one tie, while the Lithians have a lot of avenging to do. Getting a good start at the beginning of the season the Grizzlies have dropped to a low spot in the conference standings while Medford is tied for conference championship with Roseburg.

MODEL RAILROAD SOCIETY HAVE NEW CLUB SITE

Jackson County model railroad society members have already started remodeling the building on the county fairgrounds, which they just recently acquired the use of for their club.

They have started construction of two model railroad displays for operation during the 1947 county fair. An extensive O gauge layout will be moved soon from the home of C. M. Bailey, in Ashland, to the new building.

As soon as the model displays are set up the club will announce a visitors' night. Any model railroaders interested in joining the society are invited to any of the
