

Formerly The Southern Oregon
Miner
$3 per Year
2 Years for $5

The Southern Oregon NEWS REVIEW

Univ. of Oregon Library

Reenlistment
Grades In The Army
Are Permanent
Warrants

3.00 PER YEAR

ASHLAND, JACKSON COUNTY, OREGON

Thursday, December 12, 1946

Vol. 13 No. 41

Grizzlies Thump The Yreka Miners Wednesday 33-24

Will Play Again This
Saturday On Ashland
Basketball Court

by Bill Bissell
Wednesday night the Ashland Grizzlies dropped the Yreka Miners 33-24 on the Miners own court in Yreka in a wild and woolly affair that saw the Miners taking the lead early in the first quarter but dropping behind before the half, giving the Lithians the edge for the final portion.

Although trailing throughout the final half the Miners never gave up and kept the Ashland quiet constantly on their toes. Carlson and Ellsworth tied for high score with eight counters a piece.

The Ashland J. V.'s lost to the Yreka "B" squad in the preliminary 26-15.

Saturday night the Grizzlies will be host to the Yreka Miners on the Ashland Jr. High floor with the two respective "B" teams playing the preliminary starting at 7:00. The Miners will be out for revenge and the Grizzlies will be fighting to make a double win over Yreka this season.

Tri-Hi-Y To Hold District Meeting

The Tri-Hi-Y will hold a district meeting of officers, December 15, in the Ashland Junior High School. This district includes Grants Pass, Medford, Klamath Falls and Ashland.

For the past two years these meetings have been held in Medford. The purpose of each has been to instruct the organization officers in the ways of handling their duties.

Dr. Elmo Stevenson will be the speaker at the morning session which will be followed by a lunch in the junior high cafeteria. Afternoon sessions will be taken up with four separate meetings which will consist of: a. all presidents and vice presidents; b. recording and corresponding secretaries; c. treasurers, and d. chaplains. These will last until about 3:00 p.m. giving the visiting representatives time to reach home before dark.

The Ashland Tri-Hi-Y will begin reorganizing with the help of Ray Fletcher, who is the YMCA secretary in Ashland.

Registration will take place at 9:00 a.m. under direction of Marbeth McKeever and Marlon Roberts. The general session will begin at 9:30 with an invocation by George Fullerton, followed by Dr. Stevenson's address.

The officers' trainings session will begin at 10:15 with Walter Redford, Roland Parks, Joseph Fader, Ben Schmidt and Dwight Welch as leaders.

At noon Nita Balfour will be mistress of ceremonies at the conference luncheon. Entertainment will be furnished by the Ashland high school boys quartette.

During the afternoon the study groups will be led by R. N. Fletcher, Cecil Kollenborn, Mr. Schmidt and the Rev. E. P. Borden.

Jr. High Squad Get Football Letters

Coach Leslie Grant awarded 24 football letters to members of the 1946 Ashland junior high school football squad, at a special assembly, Friday, December 6, in the junior high gymnasium.

Those receiving letters were: Wallace Barnett, Don Daly, Stanley Hanscom, Blaine Harper, Don Conner, Joe Kidwell, Dale Landring, Rodney Long, Ted Lusk, Bob Nelson, Monte Robertson, James Sanders, Carlos Schmidt, Rodney Twedell, Bill Wines, Harry Baker, Howard Roberts, Gene Ross, Marvin Utter, Ted Weitzel, (mgr) Jerry Langer, Bob Madden and Richard Smith (mgr.) This is the largest list of lettermen in recent years and marks the first year that an appreciable number of eighth grade boys have received the blue and gold A. Next year the prospects for a winning team are much better than during the last season when not one letterman was on hand at the opening of the season.

CHIPMAN FAMILY NOW HAS FIVE GRANDCHILDREN

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Chipman are now the grandparents of five children, three of them being born during the past month to the two daughters and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chipman.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner, Pasadena are now the parents of a baby girl, Kim, born November 20. Mrs. Turner is the former Lucille Chipman.

Monday, December 8 a baby girl, Sharon Aleene was born in Ashland at the community hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Chipman, and two and a half hours later, at Weed California, a boy, Kenneth Lynn was born to Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Tuter. Mrs. Tuter is the former Leona Chipman.

The Harry Chipman family and the Tuter family each have one other child.

C of C Board Will Hold Meeting Friday

Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce will meet in a special meeting at the office of Van Dyke and Lombard, Friday, 7:30 p.m. William E. Healy, secretary of the chamber announced today.

A successor to fill out the unexpired term of Frank Culp will be selected. The board will also prepare a proposed new set of by-laws and operating procedure which will be submitted to the membership.

Newbry Withdraws From Prexy Race

State Senator Earl T. Newbry withdrew Wednesday from the race for President of the Oregon Senate. Newbry formally announced that he had released the pledges of all the Senators who were slated to vote for him as president when the legislature convenes January 13.

The withdrawal from the race practically assures Marshal Cornett, Klamath Falls of election to the post. Previous to Newbry's announcement he and Senator William E. Walsh of Coos Bay had formed a coalition to defeat Cornett and 10 pledges had been given Newbry. Senator Thomas R. Mahoney of Portland, however threw a wrench in the coalition machinery when he switched to Cornett's bandwagon. Newbry explained that had he continued in the race it more than likely would have been a deadlock.

Soroptimists Hold Last 1946 Meeting

The Soroptimists club met Wednesday noon at the Ashland Hotel dining room for the last meeting of the year. Their next meeting will be Wednesday noon, January 8.

The dining room and tables were decorated in keeping with the season, lending a holiday atmosphere to the meeting.

Following routine business, each member told something of her life, where she was born, and in what parts of the country she had lived.

Miss Margaret Ramsay, vice-president presided in the absence of the president, Velna Weitzel.

Reinholdt To Manage KWIN Station

Robert Reinholdt will assume his position as manager of KWLN radio station, the last of this week.

Reinholdt has been program director for the past six years for KWLN at Albany, Oregon. He was supposed to begin his new duties Monday, December 9, but was called to Salem because of the illness of his mother. Reinholdt is married, but his wife will not accompany him to Ashland until housing has been secured.

MISS NOLA SUE ROBBINS HAS A BIRTHDAY PARTY

Little Miss Nola Sue Robbins celebrated her second birthday Tuesday, December 10, with a birthday party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenton Robbins.

Skippy Lugar, Jerry Geim, Sherrill Young, Regina Young, Mrs. Clara Eldridge, Mrs. Bob Lugar, and Mrs. W. H. Schrenogst were guests at the party.

'January Thaw' To Take Place Dec. 13 at School Gym

High School Anniversary
Play is Directed By Miss Virginia Hammond

Ashland Hi's budding Barrymores and Bernhards will vaunt their talents in the annual anniversary play, Friday, December 13 at 8:00 p.m. in the senior high gym. The play—"January Thaw."

The cast under the able direction of Miss Virginia Hammond is presenting the play in the senior high gym.

The cast includes the following: Rockwoods, a middle aged New England family. Johnathan Rockwood, portrayed by Charles Ellason, is the typical New England farmer, sparing of speech, definitely against "new fangled" ideas and Democrats. Marlys Wilcox as Mrs. Rockwood, typifies the homespun farm woman of forty-five or fifty years ago. For contrast there are the Gages, characteristically New Yorkers. Ruth Agar as Marge the featherheaded type, well meaning but wholly unable to cope with the practical problems of home life, and Herbert (Curtis Vall) retired to the country for the purpose of writing a book, the average egotistical male, stubborn to the point where he would rather face a winter of cold and hunger than submit to making friends with the Rockwoods. Then there are the three girls, Barbara, Sarah and Paula, played by Barbara Messenger, Barbara Williams and Marjorie Messenger respectively, and Erwin Wilkinson as Barbara's fiancée, the typical American college boy. Matt, the Rockwood's beloved only son, is played by Bill Walters and Uncle Walter, the community gossip, is portrayed by Bob Phillips.

Study Club Will Have Xmas Program

Mrs. R. L. Crosby, program chairman of the Fortnightly study club, announced that the home of Mrs. C. H. Putney, 125 Nob hill, will be the scene of a Christmas party for the Fortnightly study club, on the afternoon of December 23.

Mrs. C. W. Litwiller will give the short topic and Mrs. George P. King will present the book review. After the business meeting is over the members will have a social hour with the exchange of gifts from a Christmas tree.

Mrs. Elmo Stevenson was hostess to the study club Monday afternoon, December 9, and served a 1:30 p.m. dessert.

Mrs. G. W. Bruce gave a thirty-minute talk on stained glass, with Mrs. H. H. Elhart reviewing "The Pacific Coast Ranges".

Sarah Barger Dies In Medford Hospital

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon, December 11, 1946, for Mrs. Sarah Barger, at the Litwiller Funeral chapel. Mrs. Barger died at the Sacred Heart hospital in Medford, Monday, December 9. She had been ill for the past two years but had only been in the hospital for a few days.

Mrs. Barger was born September 17, 1869 at Fort Worth, Texas. She was married to Spencer Barger, December 25, 1869.

She is survived by her husband Spencer Barger of Medford; one son, Perry Barger of Eugene, and eight grandchildren, John Barger, Lawrence Barger, Marvin Barger, Kenneth Barger, Ray William and Le Roy Barger, and Gladys Barger, all of Ashland and Mrs. T. E. Deckard of Keno, Oregon. Also five great grandchildren and one brother and one sister.

Town Talk
by News Review
Reporters

WALTER J. KERRIGAN on the search for disappearing wagon wheels. . . . NORMA ERWIN planning for her daughters wedding. . . . VERA JOHNSON justly proud of the spectacular Santa Claus perched on the Top Hat. . . . BOB DODGE going South.

Lions Club Will Be Hosts to Their Wives

Members of the Lions club will be hosts to their wives next Tuesday, December 17, at their annual Christmas party. The party will include dinner at 6:30 p.m. and dancing afterwards in the Ashland hotel ballroom.

The Lions entertained their sons and daughters last Tuesday evening, December 10, with a Christmas party. The evenings entertainment included the "Hungry Five" a German band composed of Edith Turnbull, Curtis Vall, Bob Frink, Harry Kannasto and Bill Bissell entertained the Lions and their guests Tuesday evening, the high school boys quartette with Bill Bissell, Jerry Mitchell, Arnold Wilkinson and Harry Kannasto taking part, and Santa Claus also made his appearance during the evening.

FAMILY & YOUTH SERVICE AT ASSEMBLY OF GOD

A family and youth service will originate at the Assembly of God Saturday night at 7:30 P. M. This service will continue each Saturday for an indefinite period of time. The meeting will have several features, one of which will be the bringing in of an outside speaker. The speaker next Saturday will be L. D. Hall of Grants Pass. Other speakers in the future will include Winston I. Nunes, Paul Hartford, Flying Evangelist, Jim Gressett of Arizona, and Paul Pipkin, Vice-President of the California Christ Ambassadors.

The service will include a variety of special numbers, an orchestra, special Bible quiz contests with prizes and a to-the-point message, with the service closing at 9 P. M.

Gastineau Selects Varsity Squad

Ashland high school' basketball varsity consists of 13 players selected by Coach Jerry Gastineau after two weeks of intensive practice. Twenty-six hopefuls turned out November 14 at the beginning of the season.

Those boys staying on the 13 Gastineau kept for the varsity consist of: Ed Beare, George Fullerton, Bill Montgomery, Harry Kannasto, Wesly McKenzie, Glen Wade, Vernon Carlson, Jerry Mitchell, Don Ellsworth, Ronald Quackenbush, Chuck Black, Gene Litwiller, Don Beagle, and Chuck Adams.

Junior varsity which is coached by Frank O'Neil includes Lewis Langer, Bill Starnes, Roger Hall, Fred Wilkins, Glen Nelson, Bill Bissell, Ned Starnes, Ken Mickle, and Skip Rush.

The game last night with Yreka gave Gastineau a chance to see his club in action and to plan any switches which might increase the shooting power of the Grizzlies.

Five New Members Initiated In Grange

Five new members were initiated in the Talent Grange last Thursday evening in the City hall.

Ralph Jennings and Harriet Cagnacci reported on the agricultural committee.

A luncheon was served in the dining room by Mrs. Nellie Borg and Mrs. Mabel Penland assisted by Ed Borg.

Raiders Play Shasta Legion Club Friday

Friday, December 13, the Red Raiders of Southern Oregon college will meet the Mt. Shasta American legion team at the SOC gymnasium at 8:00 p.m.

This will be the third home appearance in as many starts for the local club and they are expected to run into a good bunch of ball hawks in the Shasta team. The California club is composed of former high school, college, and service stars.

APPLAGATE RESIDENTS FILE PETITION IN COURT

Residents of the Upper Applegate district filed a petition with the county court this week, asking that the Little Applegate road between its junction with the Applegate road and Yale creek be immediately repaired.

The petition states that in one place in the road a new spring has gushed forth, where the roadbed is below the ground level and is a morass.

DODGES AND VAN DYKES HEAR R. KAZMAYER SPEAK

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dodge and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Van Dyke heard Robert Kazmayer address the Rogue Valley Knife and Fork club Wednesday night at a 6:45 dinner meeting, at the country club.

Kazmayer's topic was "What Russia Means to Us." and since Kazmayer had worked in a Russian automobile factory during the first "five year plan" and visited the country last summer, he was able to present a very comprehensive account of conditions in the Stalin controlled country.

Honor Roll For Jr. High Announced

Roland Parks, principal of Junior high school, announced the honor roll for the second six weeks period at the junior high school.

Persons who did not make a grade below a 2 are as follows:

Seventh grade: Gail Barnum, Donna Brownlee, Margaret Clary, James Dodson, Mary Pat Healy, Ruth Taylor. Grade eight: Norman Gould, Clyde Lundy, Arthur Ostrander, Rosemary Stevenson Grade nine: Haroldine Arney, Kathryn Beck, Ellen Brower, Craig Canfield, Marianne Clary, Donald Conner, Joanne Downing, Donna Fader, Francis Howard, Doris Litwiller, Betty Miller, George Miller, Robert Simpson, Zelma Stone, Marilyn Walker, Richard Wilcox.

Collins Elected Golf President

John Collins, former chairman of the recreation committee of the Ashland Chamber of Commerce, was named president of the Ashland Golf club at a luncheon meeting held Tuesday noon at the Ashland coffee shop.

Dr. Walter W. Weller, president of the Chamber of Commerce appointed a board of directors consisting of Lyndel Newbry, E. H. Singmaster, Jean Eberhart, Ben Lombard, Dr. George Hull, Robert Lugar, Harold Bishop, and William E. Healy. Most of these men were members of the Chamber's recreational committee. They will each serve a two year term. Three other directors will be added to the group when the members of the golf association meet.

Plans for the opening of the club, the work which must be done to get the course in shape, and the building of the clubhouse were discussed. Preliminary work on the greens and fairways will be done by the organization were agreed upon by the board of directors.

Directors of the golf club are responsible for the policy, rules and regulations, however, expenditures on the course which are greater than $300 must be approved by the Chamber of Commerce's board of directors.

One hundred charter memberships are presently available at a cost of $50.00 for two years. Other memberships will be available at $36.00 a year plus an initiation fee of $10.00.

MILLERS ARE PARENTS OF BABY GIRL

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth A. Miller are the parents of a baby girl born Dec. 7, at the Ashland Community hospital. She weighed 7 pounds and 15 ounces and has been named Judith Kay. This is their second child, the first is a boy named Jerry.

Five Selected For All Conference Team

Five members of Ashland high schools 1946 football team were selected for places on the all conference second team, Coach Frank O'Neil announced this week. Players were selected from Medford, Klamath, and Grants Pass.

George Fullerton was selected as center; Bob LeBlanc, as right guard; Jerry Mitchell, right end; Ed Beare and Louis Langer as backfield men.

Medford High school placed eight men on the first team, Klamath placed three, and Grants Pass, one. Ashland placed five men on the second team; Klamath placed four; Medford, three; and Grants Pass, two.

Raiders And Elks Tangle Again In Basketball Game

Second Game of Season
Finds Elks Out To Win
After 51 - 41 Defeat

Southern Oregon College's Red Raiders will be in for a tussle tonight when they meet the Ashland Elks in a return game at the college gymnasium at 8:00. The first game, played last week ended 51-41 in favor of the Simpson coached squad.

The Elks will have Parker Hess and Hank Anderson back in the lineup tonight and will be out to win. Anderson, basketball coach at Medford high school is a former University of Oregon letterman. Hess is a three times state tournament player from Ashland high school. These two will be aided by the nucleus of last weeks basketball team, Bob Hardy, Glen Bostwick, Charlie Warren and Darrel Leavens.

The SOC squad was cut from 35 to 18 members last week and probable starters for the game tonight are Chuck DeAutremont and Hoefs, guards, Wes Peters center; Charlie Jandreau, and Tex Gatlin, forwards.

In the game last week the Elks had the edge in the first quarter but tired rapidly in the second when the college fast breaking five started operating. Autremont and Peters were the college clubs sparkplugs in the first half and Jandreau and Peters sparked the club during the second half.

Peters and Hardy tied for high scoring honors with 13 counters apiece.

Vesper Services Dec. 15 at College

According to Wallace Sapp, director of Southern Oregon College choir, the annual Christmas vesper service of the college will be held in the auditorium Sunday, December 15, at 2:30 p.m. Angus Bowmer will serve as narrator for the service.

Singers participating in Xmas Vesper Service are Peggy Brandon, Charmaine Brault, Barbara Ellis, Janet Freitag, La Rene Hemmerling, Violet Parkhurst, soprano; Virginia Alley, Norma Elder, Jessie McMillan, Eugenia Moore, Rachel Parkhurst, Arlene Smets, Jean Hickman, altos. Manley Leggett, Glenn Matthews, tenors; Robert Brock, Carol Willis, John Harbison, bass.

Scout Council Will Hold Conference

Crater Lake Area council of Boy Scouts will hold their annual meeting and planning conference at the junior high school in Medford Sunday, December 15.

The business meeting will start at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and continue until 5:30, at which time, a turkey dinner will be served in the cafeteria. Among the local persons that plan to attend are Mr. and Mrs. Dick Trites, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McKeever, Dr. and Mrs. E. G. Everett, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Les Grant, Mr. and Mrs. Carryl Wines, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wiley, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Laird, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Endersence, Mr. and Mrs. William Healy.

LYTLE ATTENDS STATE COURTY COURT THIS WEEK

R. F. Lytle, county commissioner, is in Portland this week attending the annual convention of state county courts and engineers. Other county officials also attended the Portland meeting.

Katharine Grossman Heads Annual Staff

Plans have been made and preparations started for the 1946-47 yearbook, "The Rogue" annual staff has not been completely chosen as work will not start until after Christmas vacation. The editorial staff consists of Katharine Grossman, editor; Edith Turnbull, assistant editor; and Bill Walters, business manager.

The price for each copy this year will be $3.50, a dollar more than last year's. This increase is necessary due to the increase in production costs in proportion to other price increases.