

Newlyweds

Miss Reeder Weds Gerald C. Bostwick

Miss Patricia Mae Reeder and Gerald Clark Bostwick were married at the Faith Temple Saturday, November 30, with the Reverend Leo Wine officiating.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Leo Wine sang, accompanied by Mrs. Ester Burger, who also played the wedding march.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Charles Reeder. She wore a white satin gown with a white lace veil and her bouquet was of white chrysanthemums.

Attendants were Mrs. Al Olafson, matron-of-honor, and the Misses Marcella Prettyman and Betty Curry. Al Olafson was best man and groomsmen were Wayne Peterson and Burnie Peterson.

A reception was held for the bridal couple immediately after the ceremony, in the Faith Temple.

The couple will be at home to their friends at 612 South Ivy street, in Medford.

Miss Abbott Wed John Perrien Tuesday

Miss Marcella Abbott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Abbott, was married to W F Perrien last Tuesday evening at 7:30 p.m., December 3, in the Klamath Temple, Klamath Falls.

Dean Pieper Will Have Medford Office

Dean Pieper, former secretary of the Ashland Chamber of Commerce will be branch manager of the Shasta Cascade Wonderland Association in Medford, Arthur H. Fickert, president, announced this week.

Pieper will have offices in the Jackson county Chamber of Commerce building. The opening of the office in Southern Oregon is part of the Associations 1947 expansion program. The move is aimed to provide a closer coordination of joint Southern Oregon-Northern California activities along tourist promotion and highway development lines.

Library Has New Way of Handling Books

Miss Cora Mason, local librarian, announced this week that the library has a new system of handling the new books that are available at the library. It is called the "Reservation service".

Selection can be made from the display of book jackets in the reading room or from the card catalogue, which lists all books by author and title, and many of them by subject.

To reserve a book, you purchase for one cent a printed postal card at the circulation desk, fill in the name of the book you want, and leave it with the librarian. When the book is available the card will be mailed to you immediately, with a notation as to the length of time it can be held for you.
