

THE JACKSONVILLE MINER

"Care of Hair" Is Extension Topic

The Jacksonville extension unit met at the Royal Neighbors hall Friday with Mrs. Clara Mae Pool and Mrs. June Brisbane as leaders, the topic was "Care of the Hair"

The ladies demonstrated the proper method of shampooing, drying and arranging the hair to suit different types of faces.

It was suggested that no matter what the prevailing style was, it was best not to use it unless it was the proper frame for one's face.

Mrs. Pool told of the different ways in which beauty operators used paper frames for the face with the hair styling painted on the frames and that some used towels in obtaining the same effects.

An interesting meeting was held and after lunch, due to the absence of the chairman, Helen Reed, vice chairman Clara Mae Pool presided, a short business meeting was held with Mrs. Ruth Backes reading roll call. Seven members answered, members present were: Clara Mae Pool, Margie McKim, Winifred Kimball, June Brisbane, Ruth Backes, Bertha Reed, and Gladys Hamilton, visitors numbered four, Helen McIntyre, Pearl Kitchen, Mrs. Roberts and Mrs. Mencken.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

How to Stop Worrying

I guess folks in our town do about as much worrying as in yours—over housing and prices, and crops, and jobs—and the little domestic problems that are always coming up.

Dad Hoskins, who's lived to the happy age of eighty, has a simple formula for stopping worry. About every problem, he asks himself: Is there anything I can do about it? If there is, he never postpones making a decision, or taking necessary action.

If there isn't anything he can do about it, he sets aside a "worrying hour" after dinner, and gets his worrying over in one concentrated period. When that's over, he relaxes over a friendly glass of beer with Ma Hoskins—and they talk about pleasant things together, until bedtime.

From where I sit, that's as workable a formula as you could find... right down to the mellow glass of beer that seems to wink away your worries.
