

- PREDICT WEATHER OF CHRISTMAS DAY
- It is said that the coming year's weather may be forecasted by cocking an eye at the sky during Christmas week. Here are a few of the beliefs, conflicting in many details:
 - If the sun shines through the apple tree on Christmas Day, there will be a good crop the following year.
 - If ice will bear a man before Christmas, it will not bear a mouse afterwards.
 - Thunder and lightning Christmas week means much snow the balance of the winter.
 - Rain causes more damage than frost before than after Christmas.
 - At Christmas if meadows are green, at Easter they will be covered with frost.
 - If windy Christmas Day, trees will bear much fruit.
 - A wet Christmas means an empty granary and barrel.
 - A green Christmas makes a fat graveyard.
 - A warm Christmas means a cold Easter.
 - A green Christmas is followed by a white Easter.

Karkantari's Fear Of Burned Leather

Christmas fires burn brightly in Greek households throughout the holiday season and Macedonians save their old shoes for the purpose of burning them at Christmas time since the odor of burning leather is said to be offensive to the Karkantari.

The Karkantari are mysterious creatures which wander about the rural communities of Greece between Christmas and Epiphany. Dreaded because their gremlin-like tricks make life generally miserable for everybody, the Karkantari are particularly fond of attacking and beating persons who are a bit drowsy after an unusually hearty meal.

Of course, the orthodox Greek priest effectively banishes the Karkantari when he comes around with his copper vessel of holy water and crosses entwined with sprigs of basil. The priest dips the cross into the vessel and sprinkles each room with the holy water—after which the Karkantari are expected to disappear and not return until the following Christmas.

Mince Pies of Deep Christmas Tradition

No Christmas dinner would be complete without mince pies. While they have long been a part of our Christmas tradition, they originally had a deep symbolic significance.

Patterned after the manger in which Christ was born, they were oblong in shape. The crust, baked a golden brown, represented the gold brought by the Three Wise Men.
