Letters to the Editor

A Letter To The Editor.
FOR SAFE, PLEASANT STS.
A citizen of Ashland who would rather remain in the background, asks this question:

How big, noisy, dirty, and dangerous do trucks have to become before the proper steps are taken to reroute heavy truck traffic away from the main street in ASHLAND?

There must be a limit, that has long since been reached. Or do we have to put up with this nuisance until there is a tragic accident? and then have our eyes opened too late.

Siskiyou Boulevard, a beautiful street of beautiful homes is almost untenable, and the crossings positively dangerous due to heavy truck traffic. The grade schools, both high schools, and the college are subject to this nuisance as well.

Church services have to be conducted in competition with the exhaust blasts from Diesel Engines.

Hospitals, business houses, Offices, schools, Churches, homes, all have to "grin and bear it". Hasn't Ashland outgrown the one road town" stage? Might have been all right in the old wagon days. Not now tho'.

Preston B. Waterbury.
