Barnes Plans Riddle Dry Cleaning Shop

George Barnes, who is planning on opening a dry cleaning establishment in Riddle, Oregon, spent last weekend in Riddle. Lack of equipment has held up the opening of the shop.

Barnes, who has been working for the Standard Cleaners, and Fred Lunie, have been investigating the Riddle proposition for several weeks. Barnes stated today that he and Mrs. Barnes are going to Riddle this next weekend and hope to be open by the 15 of September.

Lane Has Pictures Of Old Time Ashland

Clarence Lane who is collecting pictures and historical items of 1800 to 1900 Ashland has a new series which he had copied from some prints loaned him by Mrs. Henry Gale, who is also a historical collector.

One of the prints shows the tree which grows by the Lithia fountain in Ashland as it looked in 1870. Other prints show the second flagpole which was raised in the Plaza area by James Thornton after the first one was snapped off when a tight wire performer was doing his stunt during the 1860's. The wire was

News Director Weds Personnel Manager

Miss Helen Blevins, personnel manager of Bear Creek orchards, and Doyle Seely, News Director of the Rogue Valley Broadcasting company's radio station, KW IN, were married in Vancouver, Washington, August 16, at a late afternoon ceremony.

The bride wore a blue dress with white accessories and an orchid corsage. She was attended by Mrs. Ray Blevins, a sister in law. Her mother is Mrs. Grace V. Blevins, manager of the Western Union office in Ashland.

The benedict who was reared in Oregon City, Oregon has been in the newspaper and radio business since his discharge from the Armed forces. He served during the war in Hawaii as a warrant officer.

The justweds are living at 166 North Main, Apartment 2.

stretched from the flagpole to the Masonic hall and the pole began swaying as the performer made the traverse. The sway became so great that the pole snapped, just above the point where the wire was anchored. Had the break occurred below the fastening the performer would probably have been killed by the fall. The performer, with beads of sweat standing out on his brow, made his way to the safety of the Masonic hall. Later, to replace the shattered pole, Thornton made a replacement.
