Alva L. Aikins Dies August 29

On August 29 death claimed Alva L. Aikins, 89, after less than four month's illness. Mr. Aikins has been a resident of Ashland for the past few years and had come here originally in 1902. At that time he was active in the city's development and built the first brick building in the newer business district, the building being now occupied by LaMarre's Pharmacy. Also at that time he operated a paint and sash business.

Mr. Aikins, with his wife and son, Harold, came west in 1888 from Mercer County, Illinois. He was variously engaged in early irrigation projects, building materials, farming and real estate.

for the ensuing years, and was widely known and respected for his business judgment. For a number of years he served as a road viewer for Douglas County and wielded considerable influence in the establishment of the county's system of roads.

He was a sportsman at heart. His insatiable love of hunting and fishing took him to many remote parts of the Northwest and he maintained this activity until only three or four years ago. He also was an excellent billiard player and an active and well known member of the local Elks.

Surviving him are four of the five children, Harold, the oldest having passed away a few years ago while serving in his capacity as local manager of the telephone company. The other children are Miss Ruth Aikins of Sacramento, Calif.; Frank Aikins of Kimberly, Alberta, Canada; G. R. Aikins of Eugene and Tulalake, and E. L. Aikins, widow of Harold still maintains her residence at 54 Taylor St., this city. Also surviving are eleven grandchildren and five great grandchildren.
