Pinkerton Speaks To Legionnaires

At a meeting of the American Legion on Tuesday night members had an opportunity to hear Harry Pinkerton, retired naval officer and veteran of three wars, relate his experiences at the National Convention of the American Legion in New York City.

Tom Ginn, commander of Post 15, Medford and Bud Fisher, local correspondent of Volture 165 of the 40 et 8 Medford, were present as guests.

Following the meeting members were served with coffee and doughnuts.

The executive committee will hold a meeting in the Legion hall at 8:00 September 17th, Colonel Harold Jordan, post commander stated.

Mrs. Kathryn Neil and daughter Joan, and Miss Austie Barron left Wednesday for Pendleton where they will attend the annual round-up.

Ed Barnett, KWIN commercial manager, leaves his desk this week for a jaunt to Fort Knox, Kentucky, where he will become major Barnett for a two-week span. Ed, a staunch supporter of the army reserve officers corps, will be doing his stint of summer duty with the army. While in Kentucky, he will have the opportunity of watching the Universal Military Training plan in action. He'll fly both ways, and is due back somewhere around the 25th.

Well, everything's just about been worked out for the fall sports program over KWIN. Briefly, it includes network broadcasts every Saturday afternoon of college football games, and local organizations at least once a week of Medford and Ashland high school games, and of Southern Oregon college games.

Doris Miller, who does a fancy job of tickling the ivories over KWIN, is now heard at a different time. When Doris started her Keyboard Concert she was heard in late afternoons. Now, however, she has been shifted to the 7:45 to 8 spot, Wednesday and Friday evenings. She puts on a good show, and well worth listening to.

Kwin, the KWIN mascot, currently isn't in too high favor with the front office. It seems the otherwise sociably pussy cat finds the Fir-Tex walls of the studios an excellent place to sharpen her claws—or whatever cats do when they stick their claws in Fix-Tex walls.

Latest addition to the KWIN staff is Miss Verene Bailey of Medford. She joined the House of Helman gang this week for a spot in the program department.

Best bit of descriptive writing to come out of World Continuity Service this week labelled the Western music disc jockies as "Platter Punchin' Cowboys."

Mr. Mason Weishuhn returned to Ashland Sunday from a business trip to Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Homes, Ashland, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. May, Montague, California, and Bill Welch, Ashland, returned Sunday from Diamond Lake where they reported catching eight fish.

Karen Oviatt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Oviatt, will enter school in Salem this next week.

McMullen-Smith Rites On Sunday

Miss Betty Smith and William T. McMullen were wed Sunday afternoon at a 2:00 ceremony held at the Catholic church. Father Pius Baur officiated.

The bride wore a white tulle dress and a fingertip veil. She carried an orchid. Her maid of honor was her niece, Miss Jean Clary who wore a pale yellow skirt and a white formal blouse. Miss Clary also carried a fan-shaped bouquet of carnations. The bridesmaid, Dorothy Morris, wore a blue skirt and a white formal blouse and carried a bouquet of blue carnations.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, H. C. Smith, Portland, Oregon. Jerry Hicks, Klamath Falls, was best man.

The bride, who is employed by the Ashland city schools, is a graduate of Ashland high school and attended Southern Oregon college. The groom, a veteran of World War II, is attending Southern Oregon college.

After the wedding a reception was held at the J. R. Clary home. The bride is a sister of Mrs. Clary. Forty guests watched the bride cut a wedding cake and were then served helpings of the cake and punch by Miss Morris and Miss Clary. Vyvyan Freeman was in charge of the guest book.

Among the guests at the J. R. Clary home during the day included Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Smith and their son, Gale; Mrs. Eileen Hicks, Klamath Falls, Mr. Mrs. Merle Scott, Medford, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jones and family, Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Wilsey and family, 44 Church street, traveled to San Francisco and the Bay area this week where they visited with friends and relatives. Their daughter, Marita journeyed at the same time to Albany where she visited with relatives.
