If you plan to buy anything on time we want you to read this...

"Regulation W", the war time government regulation which determined the amount of down-payment and number of monthly payments you made on purchases of many articles, was officially discontinued as of November 1.

The First National Bank of Portland strongly feels its responsibility to urge that if you plan to purchase an automobile, home appliances or any major items, you give serious thought to the terms of payment offered.

Because of our desire to help the people of Oregon to buy and have modern conveniences for their homes, new automobiles when they become available, and all the other things that make for good living, The First National Bank is the leader in Oregon in financing time purchases — and we intend to continue to be the leader. However, we feel, as you do, that you will not want to buy and pay for any article on an impractical payment plan.

Therefore, we have determined the following terms as being the most sensible and practical for the average individual. These terms are lenient and generous, yet present a plan for payment that is "good business" for you in your personal financing.
