

DOING The TOWN

Formerly the Southern Oregon Miner $3.00 per year

The Southern Oregon

NEWS REVIEW

See SOC vs Pacific Lutheran in Pear Bowl Thanksgiving

1.00 PER YEAR

ASHLAND, JACKSON COUNTY, OREGON Thursday, November, 20, 1947

Vol. 14, No. 37

C. H. Wines of the News Review was chosen this week by the "Publishers' Auxiliary" as one of 25 editors of community weeklies to serve on a panel to select the 10 top news stories of 1947.

This makes the second time in the last year that the News Review has received honorable recognition. On the first occasion the News Review was chosen by the Louisiana Press Association as one of the top 1% of weekly papers for quality of display advertising and was invited to assist in research and survey of advertising techniques.

Bob Reinholdt was surprised when he went to the Chief of Police to complain about horses trampling on the greensward at KWIN. Surprise: Some of the horses belonged to the Chief himself.

Mrs. Roy Mays of Helman street spent Sunday visiting Mrs. Bart Ritter on Walker avenue. The latter is employed at the Community hospital.

C. A. Talley, formerly of Medford, has opened a saw shop in a location behind the Ashland groceria.

Gun Club to Hold Annual Meeting

Annual meeting of the Ashland Gun Club will be held Friday, December 5th in the city hall according to an announcement made today by gun club officials.

Club members will not be shooting next week because of the Thanksgiving holiday. The group will begin again the following week but will meet on Thursday's instead of Monday.

Roy Banta and O. Z. Howard tied for first in this weeks shooting with 287 each. Max Turzenbach shot 284; Larkin Grubb, 275; Art Haskins, 273; O. R. Edwards, 273, and Dr. Lynn Crandell, 229.

Speakers' Bureau Organized at SOC

For the first time in the history of Southern Oregon College, a student-faculty Speakers' Bureau has been organized for the entertainment of the people of Ashland and surrounding communities.

Dr. Russell Elliott is in charge of the project, the purpose of which is to provide a college speaking service to the community. The Bureau will have a number of speakers, both student and faculty, who will be available to speak on various occasions for church groups, clubs, and schools. Any organization interested in a speaker is urged to contact Dr. Elliott.

Masterpieces Classics on Records

This Week

BACH - Contata No. 4 (Christ lay in the bond of death) by RCA Victor Chorale and Orchestra. Robert Shaw, conductor.

GERSHWIN - Concerto In F. Oscar Levant and Andre Kostelanetz with the Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra of New York.

PROKOFIEFF - Scythian Suite, Op. 20. Chicago Symphony Orchestra, Desire Defauw, Conductor.

The MART

270 East Main Phone 8011

Boy Scout Group To Hold Planning Conference Here

Three Hundred People To Attend Annual Event December 7

The Annual Planning Conference of the Crater Lake Council of the Boy Scouts of America will be held Sunday, December 7 at the Junior High School gymnasium in Ashland.

It is estimated that 300 people will attend the annual event of whom 100 will be scouters. The business of the conference will include council plans for the coming year, the council budget, election of officers, district chairman and representatives on the council from the various districts.

Speaker of the event will be O. D. Sharpe, regional scout executive for district 11 which comprises the states of Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana and Alaska.

Following the council meeting, which will last from 1 p.m. to 4:30 p.m., there will be a banquet. Entertainment for the banquet will include music, speaking and a special Eagle Court of Honor at which time the Eagle award will be presented to several scouts. Other awards for the evening will be the presentation of the Silver Antelope medal to members with outstanding service records.

The meeting is open to the public and the public is cordially invited to attend either meeting or banquet.

Members of the Ashland Lions Club will serve. Mrs. Helm of the Junior High Cafeteria will prepare the food.

Girls & Boys Given YMCA Craft Periods

Craft periods for both boys and girls will be a regular part of the Y.M.C.A. Building program starting Thursday afternoon on November 20th according to Ray Fletcher, Y.M.C.A. secretary.

Craft periods for girls will be held every Thursday afternoon from 4:00 to 5:00 o'clock. Boys craft period will be held on Saturday mornings from 9:30 to 11:00 o'clock. The work will include Boondoggling, Wood Burning, Whittling, Metal Modeling, Belt Blox and Shellcraft.

These Craft periods are open to all boy and girl members of the Y.M.C.A. There is no fee required and the Craft materials are sold at cost.

Concert Planned For School Band

Sometime during the latter part of this month the Ashland Senior high school band is preparing to give the first concert of the present school year, Irwin Lesser is band director.

Previous to the concert a tour is being planned which will take the band to Grants Pass for a morning concert, Roseburg for an afternoon concert, and a second concert in Roseburg that evening at the Veteran's hospital.

According to Lesser the band this year is divided into three groups, the lower division band, the pep band, and the advanced band. Members of the lower division band are sophomores who recently came over into the high school from the Junior high school. The pep band is composed of students from both the lower division and the advanced division bands plus a few from the Junior high school. This is the band which appears at football games and pep rallies.

The advanced band will be the group which will take the tour and present the concert. The second appearance of the band will be at Christmas time when they will be joined by the Junior high school band for the traditional evening of Christmas music.

Miss Lee King of Sacramento, California returned with her friend, Mrs. Eloise Mackie to be a house guest for the coming three weeks.

Plymouth Guild To Hold Sale & Bazaar

The Plymouth Guild of the Congregational Church met Wednesday, November 19 at 2:30 p.m. at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. E. P. Borden, 167 Harrison street. The meeting was held a week in advance of the regular meeting date, because of Thanksgiving.

Plans were made for an attic sale of Antique furniture to be held in connection with a Food Sale and Bazaar to be held in December in the church.

Mrs. Sadie Stratton was leader in the absence of Mrs. Glen Prescott. Mrs. Geo. Miller, and Mrs. J. Larkin Grubb were the hostesses.

MISS JEAN HARDEN IS HONORED BY PARTY

Miss Jean Harden was honored by a birthday party Monday, November 17 in the home of her sister and brother in law, Mr. Mrs. Ned Baraclough of Medford.

Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Harden of B street also were guests for the occasion.

Toastmasters Plan A Joint Meeting

Members of the Ashland Toastmaster's club will attend the meeting of the Medford Toastmasters Monday night at the Hotel Holland at 6:30 p.m. In addition to being a joint meeting it will also be ladies night with members bringing their wives friends.

Bob Reinholdt will give a 10 and friends. Dry will act as general critic.

Horse Association Is Being Organized

Official formation of the Oregon State Horsemen's Association will take place at the Neighbors of Woodcraft Hall, S. W. 14th and Morrison Streets, in Portland, Sunday, November 23, it is announced by Pers Crowell, Portland artist and temporary secretary of the committee arranging the organizational meeting.

All persons in the state interested in horses are urged to attend the November 23 meeting, Crowell declares. The invitation, he points out, is directed to owners, breeders, trainers, riding enthusiasts, and all who love good horsemanship. Ashland Riding enthusiasts are expected to affiliate with the Oregon group.

School Carnival Is Friday Night

Phoenix, Nov. 19—The annual Phoenix high school carnival will take place Friday evening in the school gymnasium according to Donovan Wolfe, chairman of this years carnival.

Several booths, games, and special events have been arranged for the affair, Wolfe said.

Crowning of the carnival queen who will be selected from the four candidates who represent the four classes will be a major event of the evening. Candidates for the honor, all blondes are: Shirley Hammond, freshman; LaVelle Hemphill, sophomore; Eric Wolfe, junior, and Jewell Hutton, senior.

School Expert Will Make Survey Here

Dr. C. L. Huffaker, school building and finance expert from the University of Oregon, will visit Ashland sometime in the next two weeks, according to an announcement made today by Leland Linn, superintendent of schools.

Dr. Huffaker will make a survey of the overcrowded school situation here and will make recommendations to the board.

William Healy, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce spent the first part of the week in Salem on business.

Robert Wagers, Ardis Warren, and Jack Samson, all of Ashland, were among the nine initiates who became members of Theta Delta Phi last week at Southern Oregon college. Theta Delta Phi is a mens scholastic honorary fraternity.

Plans Completed For Elks Smoker Saturday Evening

Roland Parks Hears Committees List For Annual Affair

All the plans for the annual Ashland Elks Lodge charity smoker to be held tomorrow evening have been completed according to Sid Reed, Elks secretary.

The smoker will start at 8 o'clock, and will feature games, entertainment and a banquet. Due to the fact that the dining room of the Elks temple is still under construction, the banquet this year will be served buffet style, and will be held in the small banquet room on the third floor. Serving will start at 8 o'clock, and will continue throughout the entire evening. Reed said that 300 pounds of crab meat had been ordered and would constitute the main course of the buffet dinner.

Entertainment has been procured from Portland and will start at midnight. The smoker is open to all members of the Elks lodge, as well as their invited guests.

Roland Parks is the smoker committee chairman. Assisting are S. R. Schuerman, dinner; George Edwin Dunn, Turkey raffle; Jim Harker, games; Larkin Grubb, Bingo; Doyle Seely, publicity; and Hap Gillette, door prizes.

Duties of County Juvenile Officer Presented Monday

Kiwanians Hear John Richards; Also Return Officers to Chairs

Speaking before members of the Ashland Kiwanis club at the regular Monday luncheon in the Lithia Hotel, John Richards, County Juvenile Officer, outlined the functions of the juvenile court and discussed the duties of the county juvenile officer.

Also held during Monday meeting was the election of officers for the coming year. All officers were retained with Ewald Bossard continuing as president; Jack Prewitt, vice-president; and John Schulz, secretary appointed. Directors retained were Walt Hamby, Ockie Sabin, Ralph Quintett, Cecil Knight, Bert Miller, Ed Barnett and R. E. Stevens.

Plans were discussed for the entertainment of Southern Oregon football players at a luncheon in the near future.

John Schulz, secretary, reported on the recent board of directors meeting at which time plans were made for a Christmas tree for Ashland children. George Andrews was selected to handle the project.

Leon Mulling, instructor at Southern Oregon College, attended the luncheon at special guest.

Services For Pioneer Monday

Funeral services will be held Monday, Nov. 24, 10 a.m. for Mrs. Marie Vaupel, 83, 422 Siskiyou Boulevard, who died Tuesday at the Community Hospital in Ashland following a lingering illness.

Born in Elcador, Iowa in 1864, Mrs. Vaupel has been a resident of Ashland for 63 years. In Ashland she was a member of the Congregational Church, the Eastern Star and the Daughters of the Nile.

The Reverend E. P. Borden will conduct the final services. Interment will be in the mausoleum at Mountain View Cemetery.

Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Tait, Vancouver, Washington, returned to their home last week after spending the past five weeks in the home of their daughter and her family, the Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Edwards, 811 Iowa Street.

Raiders Out After Sixteenth Straight

Out for their 15th consecutive win, the Southern Oregon College Red Raiders will head for Davis, California on Thursday afternoon via Southwest Airlines to tackle the California Aggies in a game Friday afternoon.

The Cal Aggies show a conference record of two wins and one loss and the Raiders go to California a Sporting 15 consecutive wins in two years.

Members of the team will return immediately following the game by their chartered plane.

4-H CLUB WILL MEET

Members of the Bellview 4-H club will meet Thursday evening, November 20, for election of officers and a regular meeting. A social hour will follow the business session. Bernard Engle is president of the group. The club is meeting a week early because of the Thanksgiving holiday.

American Legion Will Hold Dance

Ashland Post No. 14 of the American Legion will hold a Thanksgiving Dance on November 26, 9 p.m. in the Civic Club House for ex-servicemen and ex-service women and their families.

Each year Post No. 14 holds this get-together social event at which time all ex-servicemen and women are invited to attend and enjoy themselves. This year the College Orchestra has been engaged by the dance committee to furnish music.

Members of dance committee include Carl Jennings, chairman; Bert Freeman, publicity; John von Kuhlmann, and Jake Lahr.

Baptist Women Hold A Harvest Program

The Baptist Women's Missionary society met Thursday for their annual Harvest Festival program which was presented under the leadership of Mrs. C. A. Pitts, president of the group.

Among the members who appeared on the program were: Mrs. E. C. Dodson, Jean Tryon, Mrs. Ida Tuttle, Mrs. Lester Merriam, Mrs. Ralph Webster, Joan Wilkinson, Mrs. Larry Basey, and Mrs. Arthur Peters.

Each members told how she earned a $1.00 contribution which is used for the support of an orphan girl at the Baptist mission in Kodiak, Alaska.

Schools to Present Christmas Concert

"The Evening of Christmas Music" by the vocal department of the Ashland Junior and Senior High Schools is scheduled for the Junior High School auditorium Tuesday evening, December 16. The program will be under the direction of O. C. Bjorlie, vocal director for the two schools. The affair is one of the highlights of the year and always draws a large crowd.

At the senior high 141 students tried out for the school chorus this fall. The membership is 97 and the parts are distributed as follows: 18 first soprano, 20 second soprano, 15 first alto, 15 second alto, 14 tenor and 16 bass.

At the Junior high 139 tried out for the 88 places and parts were selected as follows: 30 soprano, 28 alto, 14 tenor, and 15 bass.

Director Bjorlie has recently organized two boys quartets, two girls sextets, and a girls triple trio. Last year was Bjorlie's first year in Ashland and the performance of his groups received favorable comment. He was trained at St. Olaf College where he took work under F. M. Christiansen.

Florence Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Woods, 520 Mountain avenue, Ashland, is assisting the Eugene city recorder in conducting an inventory of Eugene business firms. Miss Wood is a senior student in psychology at the University of Oregon.

Pacific Lutheran To Play Raiders In '47 Pear Bowl

Game Will Be Held On Medford Field Thanksgiving Day

Pacific Lutheran College of Tacoma has accepted the invitation of the Pear Bowl Committee to play SOC's Red Raiders in the Pear Bowl game Thanksgiving Day, according to William Healy, secretary of the Pear Bowl Committee.

The game will be played in Medford on the high school field Thanksgiving day according to the members of the Pear Bowl committee who met at noon today. Reason for the removal of the game to Medford was given as the poor condition of the turf on the Ashland high school field. The field was torn up last week end when SOC beat Chico, 40 to 12, in a wet, muddy game.

Pacific Lutheran is the winner this year of the Western Intercollegiate Conference, which was dominated last year by Central Washington, the team which played Southern Oregon in the Pear Bowl last Thanksgiving.

Pacific Lutheran's record for the season stands: Pacific Lutheran 14, St. Olaf, Northfield, Minn. 0; Pac. Lutheran 19, College Puyget Sound 0; Pac. Lutheran 35, St. Martins 0; Pac. Lutheran 7, Eastern Washington 7; Pac. Lutheran 6, Western Washington 0; Pac. Lutheran 0, Lewis & Clark 0; Pac. Lutheran 26, Central Washington 2; Pac. Lutheran 27, Whitworth 12;

The Lutes record last year reveals 4 wins, 2 losses and 1 tie.

Healy stated that the Pear Bowl committee had contacted three schools, George Peppardine, Los Angeles; Willamette; and Portland University; before finding an opponent in Pacific Lutheran.

Miss Jean Harden, an employee of Newbury's Ice and Cold Storage plant flew to Eugene, Friday returning the same way Monday. While there she visited former Ashland people, including Mr. and Mrs. Skip Peterson and Peggy Young and sister, Verla.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Henry, Lincoln, Oregon, stopped here Wednesday evening enroute to Florida where they plan to spend the winter. Mr. Henry is a former Ashland resident.

Sheridan Announces 1947-48 B B Schedule

With the first basketball game of the season but three short weeks away Coach Bob Sheridan has thirty potential first string players working away each practice session at pivoting, passing, and shooting in the Jr. High gymnasium.

The Schedule for the 1947-48 season stands: Dec. 12, Ashland vs. Roseburg, at Roseburg; Dec. 18, Ashland vs. Roseburg, at Ashland; Dec. 19, Ashland vs. Central Point, Ashland; Dec. 20, Ashland vs. Central Point, at Central Point; Dec. 26, Ashland vs. SOC Frosh, at Ashland, college gym.; Dec. 29, Ashland vs. Coquille at Coquille; Dec. 30, Ashland vs. Marshfield, at Marshfield; Jan. 2, Ashland vs. SOC Frosh, at J. H. Gym.; Jan. 3, Ashland vs. Central Point, at Ashland; Jan. 9, Ashland vs. Medford, at Ashland; Jan. 16, Ashland vs. Grants Pass, at Ashland; Jan. 17, Ashland vs. Grants Pass at Grants Pass; Jan. 20, Ashland vs. Klamath Falls, at Ashland; Jan. 31, Ashland vs. Klamath Falls, at Ashland; Feb. 6, Ashland vs. Medford at Medford; Feb. 7, Ashland vs. Medford at Ashland; Feb. 14, Ashland vs. U. of O. Frosh at Eugene; Feb. 17, Ashland vs. Central Point at Central Point; Feb. 20, Ashland vs. Grants Pass at Grants Pass; Feb. 21, Ashland vs. Grants Pass at Ashland; Feb. 27, Ashland vs. Klamath Falls at Klamath Falls; Feb. 28, Ashland vs. Klamath Falls at Klamath Falls.

Admission charges for games this year will be: grade school students 20c, Junior High students 30c, Adults 55c, and visiting students and S.O.C. students 40c