Evening Ceremony For Arlis Youngs

In a candle lighted ceremony, Monday evening, Nov. 10, at 7:30, Arlis Genelea Youngs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Youngs, became the bride of William Frederick Cate, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson F. Cate of Phoenix, Arizona. The service was held at the Nazarene Church.

Earl F. Downing, minister of the Church of Christ (Christian) pronounced the vows, with the Rev. M. E. Tisdell of the East Side Church of Christ offering the prayer.

The setting for the ceremony was palms, ferns and large bouquets of white chrysanthemums and calla lilies. Before the ceremony and during the candle lighting by Carmela Daly and Bernice Platko, Harleue Wilson played "Star of Heaven" and "Ave Maria" accompanied by Miss Verene Bailey. Mrs. Myron Miles, sister of the bride, sang "Always", accompanied by Phyllis Rae Downing, who also played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride wore a gown of white silk with a hoop skirt, with lace trimmed net finger tip veil, held in place by a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a white Bible topped by orchid and stephanotis, a gift from J. V. Wright.

Beverly Autry, maid of honor, wore a green formal, and bridesmaids, Marie Gresham and Jean Welburn in pink and blue net attended the bride. The best man was Maurice Piers and Eldred Peyton and Alfred Sheehan, ushers. Mr. Youngs gave his daughter in marriage.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Alida street home of Mr. and Mrs. Youngs. The three tiered cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom and wedding bell. Mr. and Mrs. Cate cut the first slice, the serving was continued by Marie Gresham. Mrs. Everett McGee president at the punch bowl and Mrs. Richard Neill poured coffee. Miss Doris Renzema had charge of the guest book.

For her going away suit, the bride wore a two-piece dress suit of Crater Lake blue.

Mr. Cate was an aviator, in World War II, flying a B 29 with the rank of first lieutenant A.U.S. Mrs. Cate is a graduate of the class of 1947, Ashland High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Cate left Monday evening for Phoenix, Arizona where they will make their home.
