Susie Takes Trip Sunday In Talent

Talent, Aug. 3—Susie, the bear, got out Sunday and spent the day rambling about Talent. Monday evening Mrs. Guy Stager went out on her back porch and started to shoo a large dog off the porch but when the dog got up she saw that she was mistaken in her animal. She called Guy and told him there was a bear on the porch but he refused to believe her till he went out and saw for himself. When he became convinced, he went across the road to get Dick Skeeters to shoot the wild animal; but Annabelle thought he was kidding and by the time she had been convinced that there really was a bear and went to call Dick; some one had bought an ice cream cone and led Susie back to her Wickiup at King's Cafe where it was decided that the electric fence had gone off and Susie had gone out.
