DOING THE

By Ed McLain

This week, as was promised, your galloping pollster questionopinion of the man most fitted Firestone Store for mayor. Each of the respondents questioned was a registered Sold To Pernells voter.

As usual, Doc Walt Weller led per cent loss. This week, instead of thirty-two per cent or sixteen votes, he received fifteen votes Tom Williams. At the last mayor- Mayfield. The sale was completality poll, Tom had doubled his former percentage to a whopping sixteen per cent. This week he has gained another two per cent per cent. It all goes to prove that,

"It pays to advertise." Perhaps the present mayor. Thornton S. Wiley, should take of mouth and in a certain local Pass. His home is presently in sheet, gratis, earlier in thte year. To bear out my contentions, may I present the facts. For the first few polls, Mayor Wiley received twelve per cent of the vote. Then suddenly he boomed up to twenty per cent. The next poll or two he dropped back to twelve cent but this week he dropped fifty voters, Mayor Wiley only polled five votes or ten per cent. Col. Preston Waterbury has his highest point in his career as a potential mayor, according to our poll. Doubling his highest previous score, he polled, this week, four votes or eight per cent. All of which goes to show that it's any mans race yet.

Even Col. "steady as she goes' Jordan increased his following. Instead of the usual two per cent he now has four per cent.

the citizens of Ashland are apparently settling down to the task of picking their man. The No Choice column is now down to thirty per cent of the vote. Walter Weller 15 votes or 30%

Tom Williams 9 votes or 18% Thornton Wiley 5 votes or 10% Preston Waterbury 4 or 8% Harold Jordan 2 votes or 4% No Choice 15 votes or 30% Odd campaign slogans and reasonings are beginning to appear in the campaign. Down by the railroad tracks some of the backfolks in that area shouldn't vote for anyone who lives above the boulevard. The irony of it all is that Tom, himself, lives on Beach street, along with Colonel Waterbury, both above the Boulevard.

To my many readers who stop to think before they vote, the very location of a man's house will have nothing to do with his ability to run the city of Ashland. They'll vote as they see fit, not because a man lives above or below Siskiyou Boulevard.

LIKE MAGIC!

COLOR AND RE-COLOR

These amazing plasticcoated color books are the answer to the problem of any conventional color what-to-do. Use the crayons on the pictures, as in book. But when the pictures have all been colored, a few swipes with a soft cloth leaves the book like new, ready to be colored again. You'll find you enjoy little Johnny's artistic efforts much more when you start him out on the new books, than if he did his sketching on the wall paper.

And for the little girls, there is the HOLIDAY TWINS, cutouts of the same plastic-coated material, colorable, easily cleaned, longlasting.

270 East Main Phone 8011 will conclude the week end.

Ashland high school's Grizzlies will meet a rough and tough, and unbeaten Grants Pass eleven this Friday evening at Grants Pass. The Grizzlies, who lost last week to Albany 34 to 0, are entering the game as the underdogs.

Scores so far this year for the Ashland club find them in the win column only once, and in the loss column three times. The Grizzlies beat the Southern Oregon college Frosh, 26 to 12; but lost to Klamath Falls, 60 to 6; lost to Coquille, 26 to 0, and lost last week at Albany 34 to o.

The Grants Pass club on the other hand is so far undefeated. They are listed with wins over Washington high school of Portland, Myrtle Point, Cocquille, and Marshfield.

Last year Grants Pass knocked the props out from under a winning Ashland club by taking their field, 38-6.
