

Back-to-Farm Movement Over

It looks as though the back-to-farm crowd are all back on the farm or else people have lost interest in climbing out of bed at 5 a. m. to till the soil for a living. The department of agriculture has estimated that 27,440,000 people were living on farms in January this year. This compares with 27,550,000 a year earlier. The decrease in farm population occurred despite the fact that births to farm residents exceeded deaths by nearly 50,000. Nearly a million persons moved to farms from the city last year. But more than 1.5 million moved away from farms.

A cheerful Christmas note is the news that your Christmas budget can be made to perform wonders with little time and effort. Just write down the names of friends who smoke; then visit a neighborhood dealer. He'll be well stocked with gay cartons of mild, flavorful Camel cigarettes and pound tins of mild, mellow Prince Albert Smoking Tobacco—the National Joy Smoke. Both gifts come ready-dressed in colorful Christmas containers. You can even dispense with the usual fussing with cards, due to the novel space provided for personalized season's greetings on the wrappings of both items. Your budget will like these modest gifts. And your friends are certain to welcome holiday-sent Camels and Prince Albert! (Adv.)
