Shakespeareans Seek Youthful Romeo and Juliet

In order to find a Romeo and a Juliet of the age indicated in Shakespeare's play, The Oregon Shakespearean Festival, through the courtesy and cooperation of the Portland Civic Theatre, is holding public auditions, open to all Oregon high school students, at the Oregon State Theatre Conference in Portland, April 7, 8 and 9. The winners will be awarded membership in the Oregon Shakespearean Festival Players and the opportunity of playing Shakespeare in repertoire during the Festival's summer season of 1949.

Letters of application must be submitted by the student, the parent or guardian and the teacher or principal, and the letters must be postmarked on or before March 15, 1949.

Raiders Dump Aggies In Two-Game Series

Monday and Tuesday nights February 7-8 in Memorial court the Southern Oregon Raiders added two more games to their victory column. The Raiders were in a four game in five night series and through out the last two games showed some of the effects of the rugged schedule.

In the first game it looked as if the Cal Aggies were going to have an easy win, but the Raiders begin to show some of their usual fire and led 28-25 at the half time.

The second half was hard fought but the Raiders led by Bill O'Neil and Chuck Jandreau with 13 points each rolled on to win 63-44.

The second games of the series with Cal Aggies was a tough game for the tired Raiders but stayed in front all the way and dumped the Aggies 66-52. Forward Keith Wade and Center Cal Bonney lead the scoring with 20 counters each.
