The Southern Oregon. NEWS REVIEW

"Ashland—Home of the Oregon Shakespearean Festival"

Vol. 16, No. 42

ASHLAND, JACKSON COUNTY, OREGON, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 29, 1949

$3 per year Single Copy 10c

Ashland Boy Scouts Receive Awards At Court Of Honor Held December 22

church here last Thursday eve- John Neeley, assistant.

ny during which time Tender- ermaster. foot Scouts received their pins. Eight boys of Troop 112 each Moores, and Dick Burns. gave one of the 12 Boy Scout laws, while two gave two each.

main table were Bob Mackay of Troop 111; Irving Nelson of 114 of Bellview, Keith Davis of Troop 115, Milo Grubb, assistant Linn Howard Scoutmaster of Troop 112: Jim Scoutmaster of Troop 112; Jim Harpole, field executive; Cliff Joins Commercial Hanson, district Scouting executive of the Crater Lake area council; Dick Trites, court of honor chairman; Hugh McKeever, district extension and organization man; Bob Snider Lions club president; Dr. Elmo Stevenson, committee member of Troop 112 from Southern Oregon college; and Gifford Chindlund.

Dr. Stevenson spoke on the reward of Scouting and described "The Boy." Hanson talked on the Boy Scout theme for the "Strengthen the Arm of Liberty," and told what Communists do to the Boy Scout program. He also spoke on the Boy Scout jamboree plans which will carry the boys to Valley Forge.

The only boy of the group to receive a perfect attendance pin was Marvin Woods of Scout Troop 112.

Star Scouts receiving awards were John Stucky, Jim Stucky, Gary Hansom and Marvin Woods Shirley Damon of Troop 112 and Garald Davis

Glen Ingle, Bob Myrick, John Stucky, Gary Hanson and Marvin Woods of Troop 112. Patrol leaders of the troop to receive insignias were Marvin Woods.

Lions Hear Prof. Messenger

Leon Messenger, Professor of

is faced with making the child mary Ring, Pat Imel, Marlene understand that most children to- Heard, Barbara Wray, Maxine day are supplied with an abun- Champion. dance of gifts but that there was a need to impress upon them | Honor Queen, acted as instalthe real feeling with which the ling officer. gift is given. He said the problem is greater today because Newbry, Janie Simpson, Mrs. the administration and an ap- ces not commensurate with good of the fact that most families Marilyn Werner, Mrs. Mary Lou praisal of our stewardship for live "farther apart" than they did a few years ago.

Guests of the club included Edna Daugherty. Messenger, Rev. Brough, of the Ashland Nazarene church, John Madison of Delliker, Calley with a beautiful bouquet of ifornia, and Linn Howard, of the ifornia, and the ifornia ifornia, and Linn Howard, of the Klamath Falls Lions club.

License Plate Sales Brisk

More than 500 new license plates have been applied for through the local office of the Chamber of Commerce since it was officially opened a short the lions club committee who time ago, it was stated today by recently presented the Coleman Bill McGee, secretary of the Bros. in a musical show here,

Chamber. ies have been received from orable that plans are now being applicants who had mailed their made to bring the group of renewals to the state office at Negro singers back to Ashland Salem as to why they had not sometime next fall, probably in yet received their plates. He said October. a check with the Salem office revealed that many of the plates with the manager of the singing had been placed in the mails group and that he had expressed but were being delayed due to a desire to return to Ashland the Christmas mail rush and it is assumed that most of them will be out this week.

lejo, California are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarathe home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarathe home of Mr. and Mrs. ence Gassoway.

Members of four Ashland patrol leader; Jimmy Stucky, as-Scout troops received awards sistant; George Gray, patrol leadduring a court of honor and in- er; Tommy Click, assistant; and vestiture service held at the LDS | Gary Hansom, patrol leader, and

Troop officers are John Stu-Gifford Chindlund, Scoutmas- cky, senior patrol leader; Glen ter of Troop 112, conducted the Ingle, scribe; John Compbell, licandle-light investiture ceremo- brarian, and Bob Pinson, quart-

Tenderfoot Scouts of 112 who Pending a good deed, the pins received their pins from Mackay were pinned on wrong side up were Larry Mackay, Tommy by the respective Scoutmasters. Bond, Donald Brown, Michael Colors were presented and retired by a color guard consisting Scoutmasters and executives of Gary Hanson, Jim Stucky, of Boy Scouting sitting at the John Stucky, and George Gray.

Finance Office

Linn Howard, formerly of Klamath Falls, arrived in Ashland Tuesday morning and will assume the management of the local office of the Commercial Finance company on Jan. 1.

Howard has been assistant manager of the company's Klamath Falls office for the past nine months, going to Klamath Falls from San Francisco, where the Church of Scotland, will countries of Europe, also Cana- which created almost as much of lic Loan corporation.

Mrs. Howard and their 16month old daughter are expected to arrive in Ashland this weekend to make their home. John Hamstreedt, who recently resigned his position as manager of the local office, has not announced his future plans.

Troop 115, Merit badges were awarded to Honored Queen Of Shirley Damon was crowned held by Job's Daughters in the Masonic Temple last Friday night. Chloe Stevens and Kay Dudley, of Phoenix, were crowned Senior and Junior Princesses respectively.

Other officers installed were Psychology at Southern Oregon Barbara Buzbee, Midred Zittercollege, told members of the cob, Barbara Hild, Kathleen Ashland Lions Den Tuesday Hartley, Sandra Clary, Obera night that one of the important Leonard, Mary Hillberry, Barproblems today is in making bara VanVleet, Donna Travis, children feel that they play a Wanda Oden, Colette Perrine, definite part in the home and Shirley Dudley, Nancy Dunkesof wholly and completely be- on, Carol Culp, Rosemary Stevlonging to the group he or she enson, Carol VanVleet, Kay Beck, Lois Melchoir, Juddy Messenger said that a parent Briggs, Cynthia Pickell, Rose-

Others assisting were Shirley roses. They also presented to the accomplished, because of human Bethel a myrtlewood gavel.

refreshments were served in the as well as we have. dining room.

Plans Being Made For Return Of Coleman Bros. Here Next Fall

John Hamstreet, chairman of said Tuesday night that reports McGee said that many inquir- on the program had been so fav-

Hamstreet said he had talked for another program.

RETURN TO TILLAMOOK

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bell, Jr. and family returned to their Mr. and Mrs. L. Lyons of Val- home at Tillamook on Tuesday R. E. Bell, Senior.

European Church Dignitary To Speak Here January 2nd

Church at 7:30 p.m. on Monday, Was Pastor In Scotland January 2nd. Dr. Cockburn, Scottish Chaplain to King Geor- burn was pastor of the Cathed- a full-page portrait of Dr. Cock- throughout the evening. the sponsorship of a number of of the few Presbyterian Cathed- and knee-length "gators." the local churches, including the erals in the world. He holds the Also At Medford

Presbyterian Churches. ly is well informed on all prob- name is pronounced

Pressure" at the Presbyterian da, Australia, and New Zealand. a sensation on American streets

ge VI, appears in Ashland with ral at Dunblane, Scotland, one burn in his picturesque blouse Methodist, Congregational, and degree of Doctor of Theology Displaced Persons part of the several occasions. On his last ing engagement on January 2nd. evening.

The Rev. James Hutchinson church's work. On behalf of the trip several years ago, he wore as did his able speaking in the

Leo Zupan New Junior Chamber Prexy; Membership Drive To Be First Project

Leo Zupan was installed as Harmon had done in collecting president of the Ashland Junior contributions for the Iron Lung Chamber of Commerce at a din- Fund. ner meeting of the organization President Ken Jones was installing officer.

membership.

an "Exhausted Rooter Pin." Jones praised the work that

Caton Named Head Ashland Arch Masons

Ashland lodge of Royal Arch Masons named Clyde Caton as high priest at their annual election of officers last Thursday night. Caton will succeed Rev. A. H. MacDonnel.

Other officers elected to serve for 1950 and installed at Thursday's ceremonies include Morton Newton, king, John von Kuhlman scribe, George W. Dunn treasurer, J. H. Hardy secretary, Harold Newton chair of host, Forrest Jennings P. S., Herb Huston R.A.C., Robert Armstrong third vail, Claud Moore second vail, Marvin Miller first vail, Robert E. Dodge chaplain, and M. J. Lowe sentinel.

Past High Priest Frank Barnthouse acted as installing officer, assisted by Past High Priest M. P. Dunn as marshal.

BELLVIEW GRANGE PARTY SATURDAY

Members of the Bellview Grange will meet at the grange hall on Saturday, December 31 for a New Year's Eve party. Cockburn, former Moderator of World Council he has visited 18 his customary Scotch attire Festivities will begin at eight o'-

Members are asked to bring sandwiches to be served later in the evening. Tables of cards For many years, Dr. Cock- churches. Life magazine carried and dancing will be enjoyed Spend Christmas With Daughter Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Thompson Rev. Dr. Cockburn will speak left Saturday evening for Eugfrom the University of Prague, in the Medford Presbyterian ene, where they spent the Until recently, Dr. Cockburn has an honorary Doctorate of Church at 11 a.m. New Year's Christmas holiday with their has been Director of Inter- Divinity from Yale University, Day and at a union service in daughter and son-in-law, Mr. Church Aid of the World Coun- and is Honorary Professor at the the Christian Church of Medford and Mrs. Wm. Wolfe. Christmas cil of Churches, and consequent- University of Budapest. His at 3 p.m., under the auspices of Day they went to Corvallis and 'Co-burn." the Medford Ministerial Associ- had dinner with Mr. Wolfe's lems of relief and reconstruction of churches, as well as the bas visited the United States on Ashland will be his only speak

The 70 year old Dr. Cockburn ation. The evening meeting in parents, Col. and Mrs. P. T. Wolhas visited the United States on Ashland will be his only speak
The 70 year old Dr. Cockburn ation. The evening meeting in parents, Col. and Mrs. P. T. Wolhas visited the United States on Ashland will be his only speak-

the event the completed Magno-

It is now my opinion that it

It is further my opinion that

Our paving program has

(Continued on Page Five)

U. of O. Library,

The present Jaycee officers last Thursday night. Out-going installed their successors and presented them with pins. Bill Yates Jr. presented the First Zupan spoke briefly to the Vice-President's pin to Bert Termembers and said that the first ry, Sherman J. Hadley presentproject the club would under- ed his Second Vice-President's take would be to increase the pin to Bob O'Hara, and Don Berg presented the Secretary's Jones presented Dale Harmon pin to Don Nimrod. Craig C. with a gift from the club and Mayfield was re-elected treasurer for the ensuing year. As master of Ceremonies, Jones presented past Officers pins to the outgoing officers. Past Directors pins were presented to Dale Harmon, Ed Barnett, Bert Terry, Leo Zupan and Don E. Lewis. Director pins were presented to Ed Barnett, Bill Yates Jr., Ralph Hooper, Phil George, Don E. Lewis, Sherman Hadley, Marc Balfour, and George Sennatt. Jones also presented pins and membership cards to Phil George and Marc Balfour and welcomed them into the club as new nembers.

Former Jaycee President, Jim Glenn of Sacramento, California, spoke briefly and told the group that he was presently employed as a partner in a construction firm building houses in Sacramento. Glenn was the first President of the local Jaycees and left Ashland in September for Sacramento. Following the installation ceremonies, the club was entertained by Don Lewis who presented a comedy radio skit. The group of 40 members, their wives and guests sang songs and spent the remainder of the evening playing Bingo and dancing.

Guests present at the dinner were Miss Joan Neil, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Glenn, Elmer Heiler, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ranney, Mr. and Mrs. Phil L. Ritter, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Spence, Miss Ruth Beers, and Miss Clarice Homes. Members and their wives who attended were: Mr. and Mrs. Ken Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Yates Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Sherman J. Hadley, Mr. and Mrs. Craig C. Mayfield, Mr. and Mrs. Leo A. Zupan, Mr. and Mrs. George Sennatt, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Terry, Mr. and Mrs. Marc Balfour, Mr. and Mrs. Bob O'Harra, and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Harmon. Other members present were: Don Nimrod, Phil George, Don Lewis Ed Barnett, Erick Powell, and Don Berg.

the next Jaycee meeting will

Busch Used Car Lot To Open At 145 East Main

Opening of a new used car lot at 145 North Main on Tuesday, Jan. 3, has been announced this week by Jim Busch, owner This administration does not lia installation is considered of the Busch Motor company

> The new lot will replace the one formerly operated by the and Main. Busch said the move was being made to provide customers with a better lot, better parking facilities for prospective buyers, and to allow more

Busch said that plans are unthe near future.

Hears Steiler

Mr. Harold Steiler, exchange student from Germany attending Southern Oregon College was the speaker at the regular weekly meeting of the Ashland Senior Hi Y Club held in the Y.M.C.A. Wednesday evening, December 21.

In his talk Mr. Steiler told the boys about the conditions in his country preceding and during the war and the effect these had upon the lives of the young people at that time.

During the business session of the meeting plans were made for the Club together with the girls from the Alpha and Beta Tri Hi Y clubs to attend church in a body on Sunday, January 8.

Police Spend Quiet Weekend

One of the quietest weekends in recent months was spent in the Ashland Police station it has been reported by Vern Smith, Chief of the Ashland Police department.

Chief Smith said yesterday that no one had been afforded the facilities of the city jail since Dec. 22, making the period somewhat of a record for the local station.

Honored Queen for the coming year at installation ceremonies held by Job's Daughters in the Council Activities During Past Year believe the report worth carrying in these columns so that the been made and more are in the people of Ashland might have offing, whenever money bean opportunity to study this comprehensive report.)

Members of the Common Venita Roberson, retiring Council and the People of Ash

A review of the activities of Gettling, Miss Margaret Wagner, the past twelve months turns Miss Shirley Weitzel and Miss up some things that are good and some that are not good. Following the installation Mr. When it is remembered that is and Mrs. Damon presented Shir- has been with extreme difficulaccomplished, because of human factors beyond my control, it is Angling Rules A short program followed and remarkable that we have done

The needed reorganization of Charles A. Lockwood, who was recently named to serve another year as State Game

(Editor's Note: At the Dec. 20, City departments has been Not A Perfect Score meeting of the Ashland City slowed by lack of funds. The Council Mayor T. C. Williams lessons learned from the state read his review of activities of audit of our fiscal affairs have the council to members and pe- not all been implemented at this ople of Ashland. Inasmuch as time but we are making definite there are many who were not in progress in doing so. Certain attendance at this meeting we consolidations and changes as incomes available to buy the business machines needed. The audit was costly but I now believe that the price of it will be saved in the long run, as the audit very definitely pointed out a number of wasteful and careless practi-

Public Hearing

Mr. Charles A. Lockwood, Oregon State Game Director, calls attention to the fact that realistic move to control this the annual public hearing concerning angling regulations for partially installed a type of con-1950 will be held in the Port- trol patterned on the cyclonic land office of the Oregon State Game Commission at 10:00 a.m. January 13. The public is invit- installation. U & S mill, so far ed to attend this hearing, and as I know, has as yet made no anyone having suggestions to make concerning the new angling regulations will be heard at that time. Representatives of organizations and individuals will Chamber Cancels all be heard. Those organizations not able to send a representative and individuals not able to attend should send in their recommendations by mail before that tative regulations for the comng year. These will be announced, and after a two week inter- for the Jan. 10 meeting would val, the Commission will recon- be announced later. vene, make any changes deemed ling regulations for the year is nearing completion with proslay claim to a perfect score. We satisfactory by the city engineer, here. have made mistakes. However, I recommend the Taylor Bros.

mistakes cannot be made unless mill (back of S.P. Car shops) and something is tried in a new dir- the U & S mill be required to company at the corner of church ection. Perhaps it is unusual for make a similiar installation eitha public official to frankly admit er voluntarily or by law. that mistakes could be made. Against New Paving Yet I see no reason why we At This Time should not admit mistakes whenever we make them. We certain- has been a mistake to proceed room for the growing business. ly intend to take credit for our with the paving of new streets accomplishments and we also in- when there are so many older derway for the opening of a sertend to profit by our mistakes. streets so much in need of re- vice station on the new lot in

The Council and Myself have pairs, the older pavement should been at a loss for some time to have been put in first class confind a suitable solution for the problem of how to control the more costly maintainance chargflying refuse from certain saw es, that are bound to come as and lumber mill burners. Vari- the streets in need of repair are ous methods of control have neglected. been suggested, one or two of them tried without appreciable new pavement to be laid in the future, be of a quality and thick-

Certain individual members ness so as to eliminate maintenof the council together with one ance for some time to come and or two mill owners have sin- not laid with eye on the price cerely attempted to work out a alone. You can't lay durable solution satisfactory to all con- pavement for 90 cents a foot. cerned. To date the Magnolia Lumber Co. has made the only nuisance. Magnolia has at least principal. Taylor Bros. have given a promise of a similar move to voluntarily cooperate with the city and the people. In

Jan. 3 Meeting

luncheon of the Chamber of After the public hearing the Commerce until Tuesday, Jan. Game Commission will set ten- 10, it has been announced by Bill McGee, secretary. McGee said that the program

The secretary also stated that necessary, and set the final ang- the Chamber membership drive

There will be no regular noon

P. W. Snidez, recently named by the Oregon State Game commission as Assistant State pects of a successful campaign. Game Director.