Dr. Poling To Give OSC Address In June
OREGON STATE COLLEGE - Dr. Daniel A. Poling of New York City, world-famous religious leader, author and radio personality, will make a special trip to the west coast in June to deliver baccalaureate addresses at Oregon State college and Willamette university.

The widely-known editor and pastor will speak at the Oregon State college baccalaureate service Sunday morning, June 4, and at Willamette university that same afternoon.

Both the baccalaureate service and the 81st annual graduating exercises at O.S.C. will be held in the new coliseum, making it possible for all parents and friends of O.S.C.'s record-breaking graduating class of nearly 2000 to attend.

Anniversary, Family Reunion At Open House

Sunday afternoon March 26th marked the 50th anniversary of the wedding of Elva Culp of Applegate and J. F. Reynolds of Marysville, Missouri. In celebration of the occasion their daughter, Mrs. C. L. Morehouse, entertained a large number of friends and relatives at her home on Crown Road at an afternoon reception.

The "bride" wore a gown of powder blue crepe with a shoulder corsage of three gold orchids. The Morehouse home was decorated with gold flowers and the three tiered wedding cake also carried out the color scheme. After Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds cut the first slice the serving was continued by Adeline Reynolds, Zela Mellett, Phyllis Yancey and Ida Jones.

Sunday also was the first time in fifteen years that the four brothers and one sister of Mr. Reynolds had all been together. Following the Open House in the afternoon a potluck dinner for the family was held at the Reynolds home on Van Ness.

The honored guests were the recipients of many gifts and messages of congratulation from distant friends. The guest book which was in charge of Doris Cooper recorded more than 80 names of those who had come from California, Washington and various places in Oregon to wish Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds well as they begin their second half century of life together.

Girl Scout News

A Girl Scout booth at the recent Talent hobby show displayed scouting badge scrap books, and the hobbies of troop 69 members Janet Joans and Cora May Gleim. During their weekly meeting the girls of troop 69 honored the birthday anniversary of member Susan Barnes.

The Talent Juliette Lowe Tea was held at the home of Mrs. Charles Barnes with Mrs. H. B. Cook, area director as special guest.

Having nearly completed sewing boxes, the girls of Talent troop 66 are looking forward to outdoor work, cooking and camping, according to leader Mrs. C. W. Gleim.

Dramatics will be the next project of troop 63 with the back yard camper badge work to be started at the same time, influenced by spring days.

Completion of the better grooming badge was seen this week by the girls of troop 61 as they presented plays which they had written and directed. Each of the two patrols gave a play under the leadership of program chairman Donna Dunkeson and Marlene Elliott. Ten members of the troop presented colors at the area dinner held last Wednesday.

Susan Barnes, Linda Madison and Kathleen Reagan met last week in Ashland with Mrs. Rose Cook. The girls were the local scouting quiz winners.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

"Curfew Shall Not Ring Tonight"

Our ten o'clock curfew lasted for 50 years, but the town council voted it out. I dropped in at the meeting in Town Hall last week just in time to hear Smiley Roberts.

"The curfew is old-fashioned," says Smiley. "We ought to be grown-up enough by now to behave like grownups. Seeing to it that our kids get to bed is the responsibility of each family." Then Judge Cunningham adds, "Most of us are in bed when the curfew horn blows anyway. It wakes me up just when I'm getting to sleep!"

What the Judge said was good for a laugh, but Smiley just about summed up how folks think in this town. We believe that the democratic tradition of "live and let live" is the only way to live. From where I sit, it's not the American way to regulate your life by a horn—anyone than it's right to criticize my caring for a temperate glass of beer now and then. Think what you wish, say what you wish, but don't ask your neighbor to do exactly as you do!
