Forney Named To Head Ashland Bowling Group

Ardelle "Buster" Forney was named president of the Ashland Bowling association when the organization held its annual election of officers following a pot luck dinner at the Civic club house Monday night, May 8.

Elected to serve with Forney were four vice presidents, namely, in their order, Harvey Bergstrom, John Kufner, Maurice Hooper and Ockie Sabin.

Jim Harker was named secretary of the Ashland leagues and Dick Westerfield was elected treasurer of the organization.

Jack Eaton, owner of the Ashland Recreation Center was elected director from Ashland to the Oregon State Bowling association.

Directors for next year's play named at the meeting were Norman Bergstrom, Eldon Scripser, Mark Hansen and Eddie Godden.

Eaton said a special meeting of city bowlers will be held on June 5 to decide on next fall's league play and to iron out certain technicalities brought out at Monday night's session. He said also that plans for a scratch league will be talked at the June meeting.

Ladies Elect Officers

Members of the two Ashland ladies leagues also held their annual election of officers following the dinner.

Named for president of the ladies association was Eva Findlay with Lydia Crowson being named vice president. Nita Balfour was elected secretary and Esther Fowler was named as treasurer. Lola Card was elected sergeant at arms.

Members also voted to send a delegate to the National tournament in Seattle next year.

Trophies Awarded

During the evening trophies were awarded members of the three teams finishing the season at the top of their leagues, with individual trophies going to members of the O'Brien Motors, who won the American league; Royal Crown, National league; and Oak Street Tankers of the Major league. Royal Crown was also awarded the City Championship trophy which will remain in the trophy case at the Recreation Center.

In ladies competition league trophies were awarded Newberry's Orchards of the Keglerette league and to Carter's Produce of the Majorette league. Silver Crest Dairy was awarded the ladies City Championship trophy.

More than sixty bowlers and their guests attended the dinner.

YOUTH LEGISLATURE DESCRIBED FOR CLUB

Two Ashland high school students, Ted Weitzel and Cash Perrine, reported to the Kiwanis club Monday noon on the operation of the YMCA Youth Legislature held in Salem April 28 and 29.

The legislature, which is sponsored by the area office of the YMCA, was designed to help young people learn how the state legislature works, according to Ray Fletcher, Y secretary, who accompanied the boys.

Actual sessions were held in the legislative chambers during the two days and bills were introduced by the student legislators the boys said.

Weitzel reported that of the seven bills passed this year, four were introduced from southern Oregon and two of these were sponsored by the Ashland delegation. Weitzel was a member of the senate and Perrine was reading clerk of the senate.

The five students who took part in the legislature in addition to Weitzel and Perrine were
