Local Club Hears
Mrs. Cornett Talk

The tea which was held last Saturday by the Ashland Republican Women's club at the Civic clubhouse on Winburn Way was a most colorful event. The guest of honor and speaker was Mrs. Olive Cornett of Klamath Falls, the Oregon national committee woman at the Republican party. She was accompanied by two representatives of the Klamath Falls group, Mrs. Truax and Mrs. Barnes, who brought a brief report on a recent party clinic held in eastern Oregon. More than a dozen members of the Medford Republican Women attended the tea. Mrs. Allison Moulton, president, urged signatures for the proposed "balanced representation" amendment and invited all Ashland women to attend the "Gay Nineties" Fashion luncheon which will be held at the Rogue Valley Country club on Friday, June 23.

Jean Alden Joy accompanied by Mrs. J. W. McCoy presented a group of three vocal numbers before Mrs. Cornett's talk and during the tea hour she sang again, one song being a recent composition of her own. Baskets and banked flowers in predominating shades of red, white and blue were used throughout the club rooms. Mrs. Alice Peil and Mrs. Rosa Galey poured at the lace covered tea table which was centered with a beautiful arrangement from the garden of Mrs. Nelle Dunn.

In her talk, Mrs. Cornett outlined the duties and the program of the national committee and reported on the recent meeting which she attended in Chicago.

Old Timers . . .
 The wealth of historical material which has been made available to the News Review is little short of astounding. In fact the Old Timers who have become interested in this corner are giving us so much that it will have to be coordinated and practically catalogued, and we begin to have visions of an authentic history of Ashland taking form eventually with documented photographs.
 We are especially indebted to Clarence Lane whose long lifetime spent in Ashland has made him an authority on practically all that has transpired in the surrounding area for the last 70 years. His description of the laying of the Masonic Temple cornerstone in August 1879 is especially amusing and vivid, as he recalled his boyhood interest in the crowd of men wearing white aprons and in the speeches given by his school teacher and other prominent Ashland citizens on that hot summer day seventy one years ago.

 Next week we are going to give you a word picture of the contents of the copper box sealed away by the Ashland Masonic Lodge and only recently opened when the remodeling of the building made its removal necessary. The coins and currency alone would make a collector's palms itch.
