

Household Hints

To avoid letting tarnished silverware pile up until there's so much you have a big job to do, keep a piece of unbleached flannel in a jar with a little silver polish near the sink. When you're washing the dishes and an egg-stainer fork or tarnished piece of silver shows up, take a few seconds to polish it clean right there and then, and you may postpone a bigger job indefinitely.

When the man of the house breaks the handle off a teacup, don't throw the cup away. It's handy for scooping sugar and flour out of sacks and canisters.

To prevent the glaze on china-ware from cracking, don't pile freshly washed cups on top of each other. Spread them out and give them plenty of time to cool before they're put away.

For all-around cleaning and polishing of silverware, a discarded powder puff is one of the handiest things to keep around.

If a dish is cracked—but not broken—put it in a pan of milk and boil it for forty-five minutes to obliterate the crack and strengthen the dish.

To eliminate the odor from a kitchen knife that's been used to cut up onions, hold the blade over the flame of a match. Don't hold it too long, though, and don't hold it over a gas flame because prolonged intense heat will spoil the temper of the blade.

Egg beaters, like any other gadgets with movable parts, need lubricating. Salad oil will do the trick, but it may corrode the metal in time. Mineral oil is the best because it, like salad oil, will not ruin food if it drops into it; and, unlike salad oil, it's non-corrosive.

Bird Bands

Doubtless many people wonder what they should do with bird bands they recover. The following instructions from the Fish and Wildlife Service states exactly what procedure is required in reporting bird bands. We particularly wish to encourage sportsmen to report the bands they may find on waterfowl taken this fall. This information is important in helping biologists learn more about bird migration and movement and other useful facts.

1. Print the full number of the band, including the series designation and the serial number. The series designation may be a single letter or a two or three digit number. It may be stamped to the left of or over the serial number and may be at right angles to the serial number. A designation such as "48" is not a date and should not be so interpreted. Samples of full numbers and the manner in which they should be written are: A-678901; 48-345920; 141-543678; 20167; and 496-00517.

2. If the bird is alive, read the number without removing the band and release the bird again. If dead, remove the band, flatten it out, and fasten it to the letter with a scotch tape. If it is desired as a souvenir, the band will be returned to the finder after being examined.

3. State the exact date, location (town, county, state) and manner in which the bird was obtained (i.e., shot, trapped, found dead, etc.).

4. Print your name and permanent address clearly on your letter. Keep a record of the band number and refer to it on all subsequent correspondence.

5. Address letter to: Bird-Banding Office, Patuxent Research Refuge, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Laurel, Maryland.

6. Bands may bear the inscription and address "Notify F. and Wildlife Service" or "Notify Biological Surveys" Washington, D.C. These are frequently abbreviated to "F & W Serv." or "Biol. Surv. Wash D.C."

7. All letters will be acknowledged and this acknowledgment will state the name of the bird, date and place banded, and the name and address of the bander.

Lake Anglers' Pet

Throughout the chain of the vast TVA lakes, where the angler must go deep for his sport, this Pflueger "Pakron" reel is a great favorite. In these lakes, much of the angling is done with wire line, and the Pakron has been found to be the ideal reel for this type of fishing due to its large line capacity and large hub—and, particularly, because of its quick pickup.

Subversive Rodents
Subversive elements sabotaging the nation's food supplies and warehouse stocks of vital materials are the millions of rats harbored by careless or uninformed farmers and warehouse managers.

"The thoughtless scattering of grain, failure to place metal sheathing and guards on corncribs and store houses, and the piling up of trash under or near buildings are all 'engraved invitations,' as far as rats are concerned," Service officials warned. "Rats are now moving into buildings for the winter; it is a tragic waste to harbor and feed them."

Rats destroy millions of dollars worth of property each year—not only by eating and spoiling foodstuffs, but also by gnawing through protective wrappings on stored merchandise, and in setting fires by short-circuiting electric wiring. A small sum spent on rat-proofing and rat eradication is good insurance against possible heavy losses.

The female sea-horse deposits its eggs in a small pouch on the body of the male.

Waterfowl Traps

Probably the most spectacular and promising trap for capturing waterfowl is the "cannon-projected net trap." It was developed by the national fish and wildlife service in 1948 and proved very effective for catching both geese and ducks. This trap consists of a net measuring about 75 by 25 feet which is hurled a short distance by attached projectiles fired from three steel tubes. Waterfowl are baited in front of the folded net.

Bake Cookies A-Plenty for Gifts!

(See Recipes Below)

Homemade Goodies

GAPS IN THE holiday gift list can easily be filled with delectable cookies and candies made right in your own kitchen. All kinds of inexpensive toys like the drum and the wheelbarrow make perfect cookie holders, and it's fun to find and use them in this way.

To finish packing the goodies, tie cellophane around the drum or wheelbarrow, bringing the edges of the paper together at the top, then tie with a ribbon.

IF YOU'RE SENDING cookies or candy to far away places, you'll find that Chocolate bars in a mailing box are designed to travel well because they pack snugly. Candy, like the Magic Truffles, travel nicely too, if they are packed close together.

Chocolate Bars (Makes 60 Bars)

2 packages semi-sweet chocolate
1 cup shortening
1 cup sugar
4 eggs
2 teaspoons vanilla
1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup whole pecans
1/4 cup chopped nuts
In top of double boiler put semi-sweet chocolate and shortening. Heat over hot water until melted and mix until smooth. Remove from heat. Add sugar; mix thoroughly. Add eggs, one at a time, beating well after each addition. Stir in vanilla. Sift together flour, baking powder and salt; add to chocolate mixture and mix until blended. Turn into a greased 10x15x3/4 inch pan. Place pecan halves in rows on top of one-half batter. Sprinkle chopped nuts over remaining half. When cool, cut into bars approximately 2 1/2x1 inch.

Chocolate Crunch Cookies (Makes 50 cookies)

1/2 cup butter
6 tablespoons sugar
6 tablespoons brown sugar
1 egg
1 1/2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
Few drops hot water
1 cup chopped nuts
1 package semi-sweet chocolate
1/4 cup chopped nuts
Cream butter, add sugar gradually, blending together until light and fluffy. Add egg, beat thoroughly. Sift together flour, baking soda and salt; add to mixture; mix well. Add a few drops of hot water and mix together until well blended. Stir in nuts, chocolate and vanilla. Drop by teaspoonfuls on a greased cookie sheet. Bake in a moderate oven (375°) about 10 to 12 minutes.

Diamond-Bar-Diamond Cookies

Bottom Layer:
1/2 cup butter
2 tablespoons sugar
1 cup sifted flour
2 tablespoons grated orange peel
Cream butter, add grated orange peel and sugar; mix flour. Pat in bottom of an eight-inch square pan and bake in moderate oven (375°) for 15 minutes.

Top Layer:
1 1/2 cups brown sugar
2 egg yolks, beaten
1/2 cup chopped nuts
1 cup shredded coconut
2 tablespoons grated orange peel
2 egg whites, beaten stiff
Add brown sugar to beaten egg yolks. Stir in nuts, coconut, and grated orange peel. Add beaten egg whites and spread over the baked bottom layer. Return mixture to oven and bake about 20 minutes. Dust with powdered sugar and cut desired shapes.

*Magic Truffles (Makes 1/2 pound)
1 package semi-sweet chocolate pieces
1/2 cup plus 1 tablespoon sweetened condensed milk
Pinch of salt
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
Melt chocolate, without stirring, in top of double boiler over rapidly boiling water. Remove from heat. Add sweetened condensed milk, salt and flavoring, stir only until blended. Turn into container lined with waxed paper and press into block one inch high. Chill in refrigerator until firm (about two hours). Turn out of container, remove waxed paper and cut into serving pieces. Store in airtight container.

Brazil Nut Scotchies (Makes 3 1/2 dozen cookies)
1 cup sugar
1/2 cup shortening
1 tablespoon molasses
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 egg
1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
1/2 teaspoon soda
1/2 teaspoon baking powder
1 cup rolled oats
1 cup chopped Brazil nuts
Combine first seven ingredients and beat thoroughly. Sift together flour, soda, and baking powder. Add to first mixture; mix well. Stir in rolled oats and chopped Brazil nuts. Drop from level tablespoon onto greased baking sheet and bake in moderate oven (350°) 10 to 12 minutes.

Meringues with whipped cream can be a fancy dessert if two are put together for each serving with sweetened, flavored whipped cream.

Good salad dressing for greens uses sour cream blended with mayonnaise, mustard, celery seed and just a touch of minced cardamom seed.

With lamb chops you can find nothing better in the way of a sauce than currant jelly blended with chutney, a dash of lemon juice, salt and pepper.

Baked bean salad is bound to appeal to the men folk when it's properly seasoned, say with chopped celery, chives, minced olives and salad dressing.

Watches in Elizabeth's Time
Down through the ages women have been a tremendous influence in watchmaking; one of our oldest and most vital industries. Queen Elizabeth and her court members selected watches as modern women do their hats—to match their various costumes. In those days watches were usually worn on a chain or ribbon around the neck for display and glamour purposes. Mary, Queen of Scots, asked watchmakers for a small watch in the shape of a human skull—a cheerful fashion of the time. Many others were shaped in the form of insects, flowers, animals, etc.

Soil Cover Important
Although water is essential to crop growth, the pounding of raindrops upon the bare soil surface is injurious to the structure and tilth of most soils. One objective of good tillage and cropping system is to provide a soil cover of crops or crop residues over as great a part of the year as possible, but particularly over the season of heaviest rainfall.

For Courteous Children
There would be few discourteous children if parents cared more about the child's appreciation of the rights of others than about his outward manners. Well-intended gestures of appreciation, even though awkward, should be encouraged—and eventually the child will conform to social demands.

Director Hates Bananas

Except With His Gorilla
CLEVELAND, O.—Fletcher Reynolds, director of the Cleveland zoo, wishes he had never heard of bananas, or roast beef, or plums and pears. And all because of a little girl gorilla.

The baby ape, Yokodouma, was brought from Africa earlier this year weighing a healthy 50 pounds. But after a while she stopped eating.

In desperation, Mr. Reynolds climbed into her cage with two bananas. One he ate; the other he offered Yokodouma. Watching him she ate also. But she would only take a bite when he did.

For two weeks Mr. Reynolds set an example for her by eating more bananas, roast beef, plums and pears.

He gained 10 pounds. Yokodouma gained too, but she was still underweight and the eating contest continued.

ARTHROSIS

Hundreds Claim Its Grip Broken!

Dear Friend:

Do you have Arthritis? Have you a relative or friend that is suffering from this painful, distressing ailment?

I came upon a simple remedy, that ended my long search and battle to rid myself of Arthritis. I had teeth pulled, tonsils out, serum shots. The Arthritis treatments, special built shoes, hot baths, pills and salves. Known clinics could detect nothing. Finally, I discovered Sulgy-Minol. Today, after seven months I am more free of pain and soreness than at that time. Legs, hips, back, neck and arms are practically free of pain and soreness. This has cost me less than six dollars.

This is all I did, and all you will have to do to try Sulgy-Minol. Just rub it on the soles of both feet before going to bed, and you'll feel better. It's up to you to tell whether it will help. If it feels sore from too much activity, I rub some on for a night or two. In soles of the feet. The results obtained have been acclaimed by many as a Godsend.

Often I have asked the question, "Why can't something be done to help me?" I sincerely believe that here is something that will help people who are suffering from Arthritis and want to tell as many as I can about it. I am sure you do too.
