

COMMUNITY CALENDAR

Vietnam in the Rearview Mirror

Currently on display (Tue-Sun), 10am-5pm, Wing Luke Museum of the Asian Pacific American Experience (719 S King St, Seattle). View Vietnam in the Rearview Mirror, an exhibit exploring the complex and interwoven identity of Vietnamese Americans. The display looks at Vietnamese refugees and immigrants who built a life and established roots in America and how the younger generation strives to shape their own story not solely defined by the war that brought their parents to the U.S. For info, call (206) 623-5124 or visit <www.wingluke.org>.

I Am Filipino

Currently on display (Tue-Sun), 10am-5pm, Wing Luke Museum of the Asian Pacific American Experience (719 S King St, Seattle). View I Am Filipino, an exhibit using personal stories and photographs to explore how Filipino identity is impacted by many factors, as well as how the culture lives on in the community. Attendees can contribute to the exhibit's ongoing slideshow. For info, call (206) 623-5124 or visit <www.wingluke.org>.

Oregon Voices: Change and Challenge in Modern Oregon History

Currently on display, 10am-5pm (Mon-Sat), noon-5pm (Sun), Oregon Historical Society Museum (1200 SW Park Ave, Portland). Five years in the making, Oregon Voices: Change and Challenge in Modern Oregon History is on view at the Oregon Historical Society Museum. The interactive exhibit, which tells Oregon's story from 1950 forward, includes films, photographs, recordings, digital documents, and interpretive graphs. Admission to the museum is free for Multnomah County residents and all Oregon school groups. For info, call (503) 222-1741 or visit <www.ohs.org>.

The Fujita Collection

Through Feb 28, noon-8pm (Mon-Tue), 10am-6pm (Wed-Sat), noon-5pm (Sun), Kenton Library (8226 N Denver Ave, Portland). View The Fujita Collection, a photo exhibit about Japanese fighter pilot Nobuo Fujita. Fujita was the pilot who dropped the first bomb on United States soil, just west of Brookings, Oregon, during World War II. In his later years, Fujita became a pacifist and reached out to the town. In the 1990s, he donated $1,000 to the Brookings Public Library with a request that the funds be used to create a collection of children's books about other cultures. The exhibit about Fujita and his bequest was created by photographer Nolan Calisch. For info, call (503) 988-5370 or visit <events.multcolib.org>.
