nature should help to achieve this. However, be wary of making major changes this year, as your normally sound instincts could lead you astray.

■ Metal Rabbit: Work on communication with your family and friends, Metal

Rabbit, and be sure to listen as well as talk. Perceived indifference on your part will drive a wedge in your relationships.

■ Water Rabbit: Your ability to get along with those around you and to work well on a team will be appreciated by others. This may open the door to better opportunities during this Sheep Year.

■ Wood Rabbit: Your financial picture should show improvement this year, Wood Rabbit, but don't hop on any investments until you have checked them out thoroughly. A second opinion from a trusted source may ensure that you stay in the black.

■ Fire Rabbit: Fortune should smile upon you this year, Fire Rabbit, providing you maintain good relationships by keeping your sometimes jack-rabbit temper in check. Honing your skill at diplomacy will be the key to a harmonious year.

■ Earth Rabbit: During a year of hard work, don't neglect to recharge your batteries. Finding a new hobby or pursuit can bring personal satisfaction as well as energize you.

The Dragon

The Year of the Sheep will have its ups and downs for the Dragon. Setting goals and keeping them in sight may help. Listen to the counsel of loved ones, as their vision may be clearer than yours this year.

■ Metal Dragon: Refrain from burning bridges during the Year of the Sheep. Though it may feel satisfying in the moment, you may find yourself in need of the good opinion of a friend.

■ Water Dragon: Your optimism will see you through the turbulent Sheep Year. However, be sure your ambitions are not too lofty. Striving for the unattainable will only lead to sorrow.

■ Wood Dragon: Find a new outlet for your creativity, Wood Dragon, whether it be art, music, or some new hobby you've been longing to try. The satisfaction and relaxation derived from this pursuit will see you through a tumultuous year.

■ Fire Dragon: You have a fiercely competitive nature, and it will keep you sharp and on your game during the coming year. Be sure to think things through before giving vent to your temper, though. Remember that honey catches more flies than vinegar.

■ Earth Dragon: The devil is in the details, Earth Dragon, and this year you should certainly make sure to gather information and ask tough questions before making big decisions. Neglecting to read the fine print may unknowingly lead you to make unfortunate decisions.

The Snake

It's a good year to tread with caution, Snake! Be sure to do your due diligence when making important decisions and listen to wise advice from trusted sources. This should keep you out of trouble and on the right path. Lessons learned this year will also increase fortunes in years to come.

■ Metal Snake: Achievements in the Year of the Sheep will only come with the help of others. Though you might normally be inclined to rely only upon yourself, don't be afraid to reach out and ask for assistance to bring your goals within reach.

■ Water Snake: You may be tempted to hold a grudge for a wrong that was done to you this year. However, this vitriol is only poisoning yourself. Let it go to achieve a more harmonious frame of mind and instead let your successes speak for you.

■ Wood Snake: Your professional life may feel static at times this year, Wood Snake, but future years will hold promise of great improvement if you can stick with it. Look for satisfaction in the short term with pursuits such as a hobby, sports, volunteering, or an activity you enjoy.

■ Fire Snake: Seek solace in the company of loved ones this year when times get tough and you will realize you are wealthy in terms of a supportive inner circle. They may have some excellent advice for you, also, so take extra care to listen.

■ Earth Snake: Listen to your inner good sense regarding money and take financial advice from others only after researching it thoroughly, otherwise you may find out that they are the ones with the forked tongues. Conversely, be wary of giving such advice to others, as it may turn around and bite you if it doesn't pan out.

The Horse

Though the Year of the Horse is galloping off into the sunset, don't despair, Horse! The Year of the Sheep offers many exciting opportunities and challenges, and if you remain true to yourself, you will reap the rewards. New friends will come into your life, but remember to nurture old relationships as well, lest they slip away.

■ Metal Horse: Your hard work pays off this year, Metal Horse, and should lead you to greener pastures which will bring the exciting new challenges you so crave. Seek expert opinions on investments; though it may be hard advice to take, it will be beneficial to your bottom line.

■ Water Horse: You will enjoy great popularity with others this year, leading to new friendships and the reinvigoration of existing relationships. In addition to being personally satisfying, this may also lead to new opportunities through networking. Be sure to keep your options open and jump when the right moment comes along.

■ Wood Horse: It is a rosy financial picture for the Wood Horse in 2015! Money spent on relaxation and travel will pay off for your mental health, but be sure to save some of your largesse for a rainy day. Avoid lending money to others unless you are prepared not to be repaid.

■ Fire Horse: In this Year of the Sheep with all its excitement, don't forget to pay attention to your health, Fire Horse. You need to balance your go-go-go attitude with some relaxation time, exercise, and healthy eating to stay at your peak performance. Look to family and friends to help out with this.

■ Earth Horse: Things in your professional life may be a little rocky for the Earth Horse this year. Reining in unfounded jealousy and resentment will help smooth the path and lead to improved outcomes. Spur yourself to overcome your cautious nature, trot outside your comfort zone, and you may find yourself on a more fulfilling path.

The Sheep

It's your year, Sheep, but don't just placidly stand around and expect good fortune to chase you; you need to get involved in projects and seize opportunities to make the most of this potentially amazing year! It is also a great time to broaden your horizons and try new things; your greatest limitation this year is your imagination.

■ Metal Sheep: This is a good year to evaluate relationships, Metal Sheep. Friendships that energize you and bring happiness should be cultivated and nurtured, while those that leave you exhausted and diminished should be jettisoned. Also try a new activity or visit a new place with friends and family to rekindle relationships.

■ Water Sheep: Overcome your unfounded insecurity and take on a new project during your year or embark on new training or education. This may lead you down a more enriching path. Maintaining the status quo is safe but unrewarding.

■ Wood Sheep: Make good use of your artistic talents
