STILL FRIENDLY AND OPEN. South Korean Christian women perform during a gathering to pray for the speedy recovery of U.S. Ambassador to South Korea Mark Lippert near the U.S. embassy in Seoul, South Korea. Ambassador Lippert vowed not to change his "open and friendly" approach to diplomacy as he left a South Korean hospital five days after being attacked by a knife-wielding man screaming about Korean unification. Media images of the bleeding ambassador shocked many in South Korea, a strong U.S. ally, and caused an outpouring of public sympathy. See story on page 5. (AP Photo/Ahn Young-joon)
