CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

United Way of the Columbia-Willamette (UWCW), located in the beautiful city of Portland, Oregon, seeks a Chief Financial Officer to lead the development and operation of financial systems for a growing and vibrant $25 million organization. Be a part of a diverse and dynamic team of individuals tenaciously focused on Breaking the Cycle of Childhood Poverty in our region!

This position is charged with the development, execution, and effectiveness of financial modeling, analysis, and strategy alignment, as well as developing and executing an effective technology/data strategy. The ideal candidate is a financial strategist and will have a deep understanding of financial systems and a proven breadth of personal development in business skills such as strategic planning, information technology, negotiation, corporate and contract law, privacy, organizational risk management, insurance, asset management, and property acquisition. The CFO will work closely with the President/CEO and a veteran and growing leadership team to build on UWCW's strong fiscal foundation while creating innovation, energy, and momentum to maximize United Way's investments. Minimum 10 years progressively responsible experience with complex, long-term financial modeling, analysis, and strategy creation and execution; 8 years supervisory and team management experience; nonprofit fiscal management experience preferred; Master's Degree in a related field, or in accounting, business administration, public administration, social work, or social science; academic training in math, finance, or actuarial science; or a comparable combination of experience and education.

UWCW is an Equal Opportunity Employer. Qualified applicants are considered for employment without regard to race, color, religion, creed, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin or ancestry, tribal affiliation, marital status, veteran status, political affiliation, disability status, medical condition, genetic, pregnancy, or any other considerations under federal, state, or local law. If you need assistance or an accommodation during the application process because of a disability, it is available upon request. We are pleased to provide such assistance, and no applicant will be penalized as a result of such a request. Further, applicants from communities of color are eagerly encouraged to join a UWCW team that is authentically and intentionally committed to diversity and cultural competency.

Hiring Range: $110,000 to $125,000, DOE.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER

OREGON DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE
CRIME VICTIMS' SERVICES DIVISION

CULTURALLY SPECIFIC VICTIM SERVICES
FUNDING OPPORTUNITY

Call for Letters of Intent

The Oregon Department of Justice (DOJ), Crime Victims' Services Division (CVSD) is requesting a Call for Letters of Intent to compete for culturally specific grant funding to provide direct advocacy services and support to survivors of domestic violence, sexual assault, dating violence and stalking. CVSD is seeking a non-profit community agency to carry out a continuum of culturally specific services for domestic violence and sexual assault survivors in Washington County within the Asian, South Asian, Southeast Asian and Pacific Islander communities. The suitable non-profit must be able to offer culturally specific services that:

1. Provides safety for and assists victims of domestic violence and sexual assault, promotes effective intervention and reduces the incidence of domestic violence and sexual assault;
2. Advocates for victims and for domestic and sexual assault services; and
3. Promotes and facilitates interagency and inter-departmental cooperation among county and city based government agencies, law enforcement, criminal justice system, non-profits and among different levels of government in this state in the delivery and funding of services

This grant opportunity will be funded by two sources: Victims of Crime Act (VOCA) and the Oregon Domestic and Sexual Violence Services (ODSVS).

Due date for Letters of Intent is 11:59pm on July 31, 2015. If you are interested in this possible funding opportunity the full details and instructions to complete the Letter of Intent can be found at:
