Fifth "Naked Pig Run" held in Beijing to elevate sustainable living

STREAKING FOR SUSTAINABILITY. An elderly participant balances a water bottle decorated with plastic flowers and feathers on his head during the fifth "Naked Pig Run" in Beijing. Since 2012, the five-kilometer run, at which participants strip down to their underwear in wintry conditions, aims to raise awareness of sustainable living and harmony with nature. Originally, the run was "underwear only," but has since also featured creative decorations and interesting fashion choices. (AP Photo/ Ng Han Guan)
