Victory lap: Chloe Kim takes her family on a gold-medal ride

HALFPIPE HISTORY. Chloe Kim of the United States performs a trick during the women's halfpipe finals at Phoenix Snow Park at the 2018 Winter Olympics in PyeongChang, South Korea. Kim stamped her name on a new era of snowboarding with a run down the halfpipe that, officially, did not mean anything. To her, it meant everything. The Olympic gold medal was already hers, but she knew she could do better. So she cinched on her gloves, cranked up "Motorsport" on her iPod, said "This one's for you, Grams" — a shoutout to her South Korean grandmother, who was watching her in person for the first time — and dropped into the halfpipe to make history. See story on page 7. (AP Photo/Gregory Bull)
