

ONGOING EVENTS

“Music, Movement, and Sound”

Currently on display (Tue-Sat), 11am-4pm, Clark County Historical Museum (1511 Main St., Vancouver, Wash.). View “Music, Movement, and Sound: An Exploration of Clark County’s Musical Roots,” a family-friendly exhibit featuring interpretative panels, historical objects, interactive stations, and more to recall the history of music and dance in Clark County and southwest Washington. For info, call (360) 993-5679 or visit <www.cchmuseum.org>.

“Wham! Bam! Pow!”

Through Apr 14 (Tue-Sun), 10am-5pm, Wing Luke Museum of the Asian Pacific American Experience (719 S King St, Seattle). View “Wham! Bam! Pow! Cartoons, Turbans & Confronting Hate,” an exhibit of illustrations by Vishavjit Singh, whose cartoons emerged from a tragedy: the 9/11 attacks. A Sikh American with a turban and beard, Vishavjit was a target of fear, anxiety, and ignorance after the 9/11 terrorist attacks. Verbal insults and threats fluctuated depending on news coverage, and concerned for his personal safety, he turned to humor and comics — one of his childhood loves — to create Sikhtoons. His simple imagery often has an edge that pierces stereotypes, prompts self-reflection, and promotes action while adding a missing perspective to the comic-book genre. For info, call (206) 623-5124 or visit <www.wingluke.org>.

“BAM! Glasstastic”

Through Apr 14 (Wed-Sun), 11am-5pm, Bellevue Arts Museum (510 Bellevue Way NE, Bellevue, Wash.). View pieces featured as part of the “BAM Biennial,” a signature exhibit of the Bellevue Arts Museum (BAM). Artwork created by more than four dozen artists, including Fumi Amano, Keiko Hara, Etsuko Ichikawa, and others, are highlighted in “BAM! Glasstastic.” For info, call (425) 519-0770 or visit <www.bellevuearts.org>.

Jane Wong

Through Sep 1, 11am-5pm (Tue-Wed & Fri-Sun), 11am-7pm (Thu), Frye Art Museum (704 Terry Ave, Seattle). View “After Preparing the Altar, the Ghosts Feast Feverishly,” an exhibit by Jane Wong featuring her poems and essays that unearth silenced histories, immigrant narratives, and intergenerational trauma. The Seattle-based writer’s recent projects consider the social, historical, and political contexts that “haunt” the work of contemporary Asian-American poets. For info, call (206) 622-9250 or visit <www.frye.museum.org>.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Pacific University lu’au

Mar 5 (tickets available for purchase). Buy a ticket to the 59th annual lu’au of Na Haumana O Hawai’i (Hawaiian Club) of Pacific University. The event is held April 13 at Pacific University (2043 College Way, Forest Grove, Ore.) and features traditional Polynesian dance, music, entertainment, and dinner — kalua pig, chicken long rice, teriyaki chicken, poi, haupia, coconut cake, and punch. The lu’au dinner begins at 4:30pm and the show starts at 6:30pm. For info, call (503) 352-2073. To buy tickets (required in advance), visit <www.pacificu.edu/luau>.

“Small Worlds”

Cambodian Rock Band

Mar 6-Oct 27, Oregon Shakespeare Festival, Thomas Theatre (15 S Pioneer St, Ashland, Ore.). Watch Cambodian Rock Band, a musical journey 30 years in the making. The epic play/rock concert thrusts viewers into the life of a young woman trying to piece together her family history 30 years after her father fled Cambodia. Featuring actor/musicians who perform a mix of contemporary Dengue Fever hits and classic Cambodian oldies live, playwright Lauren Yee brings to life the Cambodian rock scene of the ’60s and ’70s, a movement cut short by the Khmer Rouge’s brutal attempt to erase the music (and musicians) once and for all. The story tells about survivors, the resilient bond of family, and the

“ICE &amp; STONE”

Through March 24

Monday: Noon to 4:00pm

Tuesday through Sunday: 10:00am to 4:00pm

Portland Japanese Garden, 611 S.W. Kingston Avenue, Portland

View “Ice & Stone: Suiseki Viewing Stones from the Huntington & Hokkaido Photographs by Michael Kenna.” Suiseki is the Japanese art of stone appreciation. From ancient times, people in Japan have found beauty in rocks and cherished them for their unique patterns which evoke the grandeur of nature. A key element in the art of viewing stones is the way the stones are displayed. Each stone is positioned to be seen from its most compelling angle, typically mounted on a hand-carved wooden base, known as a daiza, or set in a sand-filled tray, called a suiban. The stones are paired with black-and-white photography of ruggedly poetic Hokkaido landscapes by Seattle photographer Michael Kenna. The exhibit is on loan from the Huntington Library, Art Collections, and Botanical Gardens. Beginning March 11, the garden closes at 7:00pm. For more information, call (503) 223-1321 or visit <www.japanesegarden.com>.

enduring power of music. For info, showtimes, or to buy tickets, call (541) 482-2111 or visit <www.osfashland.org>.

White Bird

Mar 7-9, 8pm, Newmark Theatre (1111 SW Broadway, Portland). Focusing on the exploration of the body in immediate, intelligible, and ever-surprising ways, Montreal-based choreographer Compagnie Marie Chouinard returns to Portland for a two-part program as part of White Bird’s “Uncaged Series.” Piano virtuoso Qi Kong performs as an accompanist for Chouinard’s 24 Preludes by Chopin. For info, or to buy tickets, call (503) 245-1600 or visit <www.whitebird.org>.

“In the Office: Subarna Talukder Bose”

Mar 7-30, 11am-5:30pm (Tue-Fri), 11am-5pm (Sat); Mar 7, 5-8pm (reception); Mar 16, 11am (artist talk); Russo Lee Gallery (805 NW 21st Ave, Portland). View “In the Office,” an exhibit by artist Subarna Talukder Bose, whose paintings contemplate the microcosm in the macrocosm — human circumstances within the cosmic cycle. While the cosmos embraces diversity, we humans react to diversity with discrimination. The artist explores the constant interplay of these opposing stances. For info, call (503) 226-2754 or visit <www.russolee.gallery.com>.
