A legend's retirement kicks off a season packed with Asian talent

LEGEND RETIRES. Ichiro Suzuki of the Seattle Mariners runs to first base after hitting a two-run single during a spring training baseball game on February 22, 2019, in Peoria, Arizona. On the night of March 21, Ichiro — a player who defined baseball at its very best on two continents for a generation — took his final swing at the Tokyo Dome in front of a sellout crowd of 45,000 people.
