"Beyond the Gate: A Tale of Portland's Historic Chinatowns"

Currently on display, 11am-4pm (Thu-Sun), Portland Chinatown Museum (127 NW Third Ave, Portland). View "Beyond the Gate: A Tale of Portland's Historic Chinatowns," a display of rare and seldom-seen objects such as Chinese opera costumes, theatrical sets, bilingual text, audio-visual media, and interactive visitor stations that tell a sprawling transnational story of contact and trade between China and the west, focusing on Portland's Old Chinatown (1850-1905) and New Chinatown (1905-1950). The exhibit is an expanded permanent version of the display featured at the Oregon Historical Society in 2016. See story by Kelly La Croix, "Beyond the Gate" showcases Portland Chinatown's past and present" (AR, May 6, 2019), at <www.asianreporter.com>. For info, call (503) 224-0008 or visit <www.portlandchinatown.org>.

"Collections Up Close"

Through Nov 30, 11am-3pm (Tue-Sat), noon-3pm (Sun), Oregon Nikkei Legacy Center (121 NW Second Ave, Portland). View "Collections Up Close" at the Oregon Nikkei Legacy Center (ONLC). ONLC's gallery has become an archival processing center to inventory, catalog, and photograph the Oregon Nikkei Endowment's permanent collection. This has created an opportunity for members of the community to observe collections staff and volunteers at work during the collections process and also to view never-before-seen artifacts from the collection on display in small rotating exhibitions. During November, the focus is sports, including Jim Onchi's kendo gear. For info, call (503) 224-1458 or visit <www.oregonnikkei.org>.

Oregon Health Insurance Marketplace

Through Dec 15. Oregonians who have not obtained health insurance through their job or the Oregon Health Plan may qualify for coverage online. For info, or to find free local help from an expert, call 1-855-268-3767 or visit <www.oregonhealthcare.gov/gethelp>. To sign up for coverage, visit <www.healthcare.gov>.

"Life Wide Angle/Close Up"

Through Apr 19 (Tue-Sun), 10am-5pm, Wing Luke Museum of the Asian Pacific American Experience (719 S King St, Seattle). View "Life Wide Angle/Close Up," a multimedia photography-based exhibit that sparks conversation about what goes into making healthy and sustainable communities, what they contribute to the larger society, and strategies and policies that can protect and support them. Borne of the necessities of survival and the restrictions of racism, ethnic enclaves arose to form vibrant communities where newcomers could bring a taste of home. Chinatowns, *Nihonmachi*s, Little Manilas, and others formed in the early 20th centuries, migrating to neighborhoods where early immigrants had established themselves and thriving in communities where neglect meant housing was affordable. Curated by photographer Carina A. del Rosario, the display features pieces by Dean Wong, Mel Ponder, Andrew Hida, and the Chinatown Art Brigade collective. For info, call (206) 623-5124 or visit <www.wingluke.org>.

"After Promontory: 150 Years of Transcontinental Railroading"

Through Apr 25, 10am-5pm (Wed-Sat); Nov 21, 5-7pm (reception); Architectural Heritage Center (701 SE Grand Ave, Portland). View "After Promontory: 150 Years of Transcontinental Railroading," a travelling photography exhibit organized by the Center for Railroad Photography & Art in Madison, Wisconsin that illustrates how railroads profoundly reshaped the human geography of the west. Refreshments are provided at the November 21 reception, which is free and open to the public. For info about admission, or to reserve space at the reception, call (503) 231-7264 or visit <www.visitahc.org>.

"East Portland: A Changing Landscape, a Forgotten City"

Through Apr 25, 10am-5pm (Wed-Sat); Nov 21, 5-7pm (reception); Architectural Heritage Center (701 SE Grand Ave, Portland). View "East Portland: A Changing Landscape, a Forgotten City," an original Architectural Heritage Center exhibit focusing on the historic city of East Portland between the 1840s and 1910s. The display explores the people who lived there, the impact of the arrival of railroad and industry, and the changing landscape that in the course of only a few decades turned a flood zone into a thriving city. Refreshments are provided at the November 21 reception, which is free and open to the public. For info about admission, or to reserve space at the reception, call (503) 231-7264 or visit <www.visitahc.org>.

Minidoka: An American Concentration Camp

Dec 8, 5:30pm, Hollywood Theatre (4122 NE Sandy Blvd, Portland). Attend Minidoka: An American Concentration Camp, a film that tells the story of Japanese Americans, most of them American citizens, who were forcibly removed from their Pacific Northwest homes during World War II. They were first held in squalid conditions in temporary detention centers, then put on trains to a concentration camp in the desert of southern Idaho. Innocent of any crime, many of them remained imprisoned at Minidoka for more than three years. In the compelling voices of survivors of the camp, the documentary explores the unconstitutional suspension of the civil rights of these Americans as well as the long-lasting impact of the incarceration on their community. For info, call (503) 281-4215 or visit <www.hollywoodtheatre.org>.
