U.S.-born Bei Bei settles into new home at Chinese panda base in Sichuan province

BELOVED BEI BEI. Giant panda Bei Bei explores his surroundings on his first day at the Ya'an Bifengxia Base of the Giant Panda Conservation and Research Center in Ya'an in southwestern China's Sichuan province on November 21, 2019. After a transcontinental flight on the "Panda Express," a furry American darling arrived in his new Chinese home. The Washington, D.C.-born giant panda was a beloved figure at the National Zoo, where he spent the first four years of his life. See story on page 3. (Chinatopix via AP)
