SOCIAL EVENTS AND COVID-19

When planning a get-together, consider:

RISK

- The coronavirus is spreading faster.
- Getting together again is fun, but it brings risk.
- Risk increases with the number of people, location and length of time.
- You can lower risk, but not to zero.

SETTING

- Outdoors is best.
- Choose a place where guests can easily stay 6 feet apart.
- Set tables/chairs 6 feet apart (households can sit together).
- Make it BYO: food, drinks, plates and utensils.
- Set up a hand washing/sanitizing station. Have guests use it on arrival.

GUESTS

- Keep gatherings as small as possible.
- Ask guests to wear cloth face coverings when not eating.
- If hosting at home, only let guests inside to use restrooms.
- Ask people to stay home if they are ill or recently cared for someone who was.
- Make sure you can contact everyone later if a guest gets sick.
