Spectacular Myanmar lake festival resumes after three years

FLOATING FESTIVAL. Intha ethnic people row on a long boat in a procession carrying Buddha images to a monastery during the pagoda festival in Inle Lake, southern Shan state, Myanmar, on October 19, 2023. One of the most colorful festivals in the Southeast Asian nation of Myanmar, the pagoda festival involves scores of rowed boats and a spectacular gold-gilded barge. The celebration took place last month after a three-year hiatus due to the coronavirus pandemic and violent political instability. See story on page 3. (AP Photo/Thein Zaw)
