 Great numbers of home-seekers are being brought into the State at the present time by the Northern Pacific Railway. It is safe to say that all who travel over this popular commercial highway are well satisfied that they have made no mistake in selecting this route.
 The Degree of Honor Lodge entertained the A. O. U. W. members and families last night. Unique games and a brief program were enjoyed 'til a late hour. Light refreshment were served and the address delivered by Mrs. M. L. Briggs, P. G. C. of H., was pronounced excellent.
 Dr. C. R. Holt, dentist, can be found at the Junction City Hotel Tuesday and Friday of each week. Satisfactory work guaranteed.
 Yesterday a smart Alex was passing Keck's barber shop, and seeing J. E. Euger, of the depot force, in the chair, opened the door and inquired if they shaved monkeys in there. Barber Keck and Farmer Moore's understudy must have been expecting something of the kind, for they both replied simultaneously, "Yes, come in." And the wise man moved on.
 Mrs. Maggie L. Peters, Grand Organizer of the Woodmen Circle, who has been organizing a Circle of Ladies of Woodcraft, has about completed her labors. A sufficient number of members have agreed to join, and a permanent organization will be effected Friday night.
A Poultry Paper Free.
 The BULLETIN has made arrangements whereby we can send "The Western Poultry News" one year free to any person paying one year's subscription in advance. Old subscribers who pay up and pay one year in advance can take advantage of this offer also. The Western Poultry News is a big 16-page monthly chicken paper, published at Lincoln, Neb., and is an acknowledged authority on poultry methods. It not only interests fancy breeders, but the housewife in town or country, who wants to make some profit from a few hens. It also has a Belgian hare department. If you want a poultry paper, here is your chance.

The BULLETIN is sure that it expresses the sentiments of the people when it wishes them happy days in their new home.
HOW IT IS DONE.
 The first object in life with the American people is to "get rich;" the second, how to retain good health. The first can be obtained by energy, honesty and saving; the second (good health), by using Green's August Flower. Should you be a despondent sufferer from any of the effects of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Appendicitis, Indigestion, etc., such as Sick Headache, Palpitation of the Heart, Sour Stomach, Habitual Constipation, Dizziness of the Head, Nervous Prostration, Low Spirits, etc., you need not suffer another day. Two doses of the well-known August Flower will relieve you at once. Go to Mueller & Hill and get a sample bottle free. Regular size, 75 cts. Get Green's Prize Almanac.
Notice.
 A Reward of $10 is offered by the trustees of Oasis Lodge, No. 41, I. O. O. F., for the arrest and conviction of any one found molesting the I. O. O. F. cemetery or destroying the cemetery property.
 L. B. MOORE,
 Sec. I. O. O. F. Lodge, No. 41.

Correspondence

HARRISBURG.
 —M. W. Cantor was in Eugene last week for business purposes.
 —Dick Morris, the prince of cattle buyers, is doing business here this week.
 —Miss Lillie Durkam was a passenger on Tuesday's local for her home in Portland.
 —A ten-acre tract of land, situate one mile from here, was sold this week to an Eastern buyer for $100 per acre.
 —Mr. Ben McGinnis will take charge of the management of the farms of the Humphrey estate in the near future.
 —Mr. Alex Pryor and family are disposing of their surplus holdings with the view of going to Eastern Oregon for permanent location.
 —Miss Amelia May, by special invitation, went to Portland on last Sunday to be present at the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Harris.
 —A rumor current in town yesterday was to the effect that Carrie Nation had commenced her smashing tactics in Lancaster. May Providence save us!
 —Dan McClain was bested in a one-round go with a vicious horse at his stables this week. The horse landed with telling effect. However, Dan is on his pins again and able to tell how it happened.
 —The sudden and unexpected rise in the river on Saturday night wrought considerable damage at this point. A number of hogs were drowned, fences swept away and hop poles that had been distributed for the purpose of setting were either washed away or piled in the drift.
 —The entertainment given on the 14th inst. by the band boys was a great success financially, and as an occasion for enjoyment it was the best of the season. The program was conducted through without a hitch and in a manner that would do credit to recognized actors. The large assemblage present were unanimous in their praise and in expressing their delight in the success of our home talent.
LIBERTY AND UNION.
 —Geo. Bosquet is confined to his room with la grippe.
 —The three saw mills are running in full blast in this community.
 —Miss Bessie Mays was missed from Sunday-school on account of la grippe last Sunday.
 —Rev. Household of Dusty preached an interesting sermon Sunday to a large congregation.
 —William Darnelle, after completing a large goat shed, is now contemplating building a silo.
 —Dr. F. W. Williams is erecting a silo and large poultry yard on the Sulphur Springs stock farm.
 —Since politics has died down, and there is no more game left in the mountains, J. J. Winn, the famous steeple-chaser, has tied up his hounds and gone to farming.
 —A social hop was given at the hop house on J. S. Ferguson's farm Feb. 14. A large crowd was present and all expressed themselves as having enjoyed a pleasant evening.
 —Mr. Editor: No doubt you will be surprised to receive these few scraps of news, but as the Liberty and Union correspondent has just returned from a trip to Cape Nome, perhaps he will be heard from in the future.
 —We are sorry to report Father Allen's health not improved. As he is unable to attend church, there will be services held at his home next Sunday, Feb. 24, at 11 a. m., by Rev. Rounds of Monroe. All cordially invited.
 —In order to reach the dance with his lady friend, J. J. Mays was compelled to borrow the famous pacer, better known as "Old Doll." J. J. has now discontinued his visits and the owner of this animal is seen headed in this direction.
 —There is much improvement going on in this neighborhood, especially on the farm of Judge Turnbow, as he has let contracts for slashing 100 acres. It is reported that he called at the residence of R. B. Davison to look over some timber land. He also expects to take a homestead in that vicinity.
