A RARE TREAT

Is in Store for the People of This City Wednesday Night, March 27.

Junction City Camp, No. 446, Woodmen of the World, have engaged the services of Mr. John P. Meakin, of Salt Lake City, Utah, a rare and talented fraternal lecturer, who is touring the Northwest in the interests of the W. O. W. The newspapers, without exception, wherever he has been, contain glowing accounts of this gifted speaker.

He will lecture here in the Opera House, Wednesday night, March 27, and the Woodmen of this city extend a cordial invitation to all to be present. This everybody. No admission fee will be charged.

The last time the Woodmen entertained the people of this city was when Neighbor C. E. Campbell, of Denver, Col., gave a phonograph and stereopticon entertainment last November. The house was crowded and everybody went home well pleased. From all accounts those who do not attend this lecture will miss a rare treat. Everybody come. See small bills.

"Life is uncertainty,
Death is a doubt;
For men may be dead
While they're walking about."

"Live for something, have a purpose;
And that purpose keep in view;
Drifting like a helmsless vessel
Thou can't steer to self be true.
Half the wrecks that strew life's ocean,
If some star had been their guide,
Might have now been riding safely,
But they drifted with the tide."

John P. Meakin

Fraternal Evangelist

HEAD CAMP LECTURER W. O. W.

The Order Woodmen of the World is aiming to build characters, to lift up from the sordid and gross to the higher realms of thought and purpose. Protect your loved ones. Be a Woodman of the World.

We have pianos with full metal plate, full extension duet desk for from $235 up. All our goods are warranted by Kohler and Chase, the oldest and largest music house on the coast. Instruments sold on installments. Come in and see them. MORRIS & CHAW, 9th Str, Eugene.

Can You Answer This?

What is the best, quickest, cheapest and most comfortable way to reach Omaha, Kansas City, Chicago, or, in fact, any other point East? When do you leave home? What is the rate? Do you change cars? What about meals?

If you are going East you should and can know all this by merely making a written request on

SOMETHING NEW.

Just published by the Southern Pacific Co. is a pamphlet upon the resources of Western Oregon, which includes an excellent map of the state, and contains information on climate, lands, education, etc., existing industries; and their capabilities.

Attention is also directed to such new fields for energy or capital as promise fair return.

This publication fills a need long experienced by Oregonians, in replying to inquiries of Eastern friends.

Copies may be had of local agent S. P. Co., or from C. H. MARKHAM, G. P. A., Portland, Or.
