

Corner Grocery

Complete Stock

ON HAND.

EVERY THING IN THE GROCERY LINE.

produce Taken In Exchange.

Milliorn Bros.

Junction City, Oregon.

Correspondence

HARRISBURG.

—Attorney Skipworth, of Junction City, was in town Wednesday looking after business.

—Lemon Lassell, of the S. P. steam shovel force, is here for a short visit with his father's family.

—Mr. Ashford, representing the Oregon Casket Co., was looking over the field here Tuesday.

—Mr. L. Wright and Mrs. McEwen, of Junction City, recreating on bikes, nooned here on Tuesday.

—T. J. Rodgers will ship two cars potatoes the first of this week to fill an order from Oakland, Cal.

—The consensus of opinion at this time among the farmers is that the wheat will be a full crop.

—The Westfall Herbs of Health Company's street concert on last Saturday evening was a snap for the small boy.

—H. R. Sherrill has executed his P. M. bond, which secures him in a start for another four years' service in the office.

—On short notice a dancing party collected at the City Hall on last Friday evening. The affair was greatly enjoyed.

—J. G. Senders and family, cousins, and Barney May, nephew of Mrs. L. Senders, will attend her funeral today (Wednesday) at Albany.

—Mr. D. B. Zeb, manager for the Singer Manufacturing Co., at Eugene, was comparing notes with W. L. Wright, agent for the same company here, last Saturday.

—The fourteen Odd Fellows, who went from here on last Friday night to visit their Junction City brethren, report a grand time and speak in warm terms of their hospitable treatment while there.

—A turn in the affairs of Mr. Ralston, of Portland, demands his attention in Eastern Oregon. Hence it will be next week before he can talk electric lighting to the people of Junction and Harrisburg.

—Mr. W. L. Tyler is at the Good Samaritan Hospital, in Portland, where he has had a surgical operation performed. He is getting better and hopes to be home by the last of next week.

—Mrs. L. Senders, of Albany, a sister of Mr. Sam May, will be laid to rest today (Wednesday), in the Jewish Cemetery near that city. Deceased will be long remembered for her lovely and charitable disposition.

RIVER VIEW.

—Mr. Neis Fenne, a fireman on the S. P., made us a short visit Sunday.

—Mr. Eric Johnston, of Eugene, spent Saturday and Sunday at Mr. Fenne's.

—Mrs. Hettie Cox was the guest of the Misses Moffitt Saturday and Sunday.

—Miss Fanny Moffitt left Sunday to reopen her school, which is near Smithfield.

—The good roads were the means of bringing many bicyclists out to Sunday-school.

—Mr. C. C. Hayes is putting his hop yard in first-class condition, and expects a good yield.

—Miss Josie Fenne will lead prayer meeting Wednesday. Everybody invited to attend.

—A number of our young people attended the farewell sermon of Rev. Sibert Sunday eve.

—Albert Bristow is putting the ground of Henry Bushnell's prune orchard in first-class condition.

—Rachel Skaggs and Will Honston passed through on their wheels Tuesday en route for Eugene.

—Mrs. Foster and children returned to their place the first of the week, and will now commence making garden.

—Mr. Joe Edwards, Miss Lettie Edwards and Mrs. Benham were the guests of Mr. I. N. Edwards Saturday and Sunday.

—Mr. McKee received a consignment of strawberry plants, and in the near future will be ready to supply all the demands.

—Misses Ella and Fanny Moffitt returned from Eugene Friday, where they have been attending the teachers' examination.

—Miss Maude Hayes accompanied Mr. Joe Edwards and Miss Lettie to their home in Benton county, where she will visit for a short while.

—The Junction photographer, Mr. Taylor, took a picture of our school-house Monday; also one of Mr. Simons' dwelling house.

—Mr. W. B. Wetzel takes to farming like a duck to water. He is making lots of improvements upon his place, and will soon be able to furnish you anything in his line.

—A number of the young people spent a pleasant evening Saturday at the home of Mrs. Moffitt. All report a nice time and pronounced their host a capital entertainer.

—Every farmer is busy and all the available horses are in use. Loren Edwards is running three gang plows, and from all sides you can hear the merry hum of the tillers.

—Prof. Hunter made a business trip to Elmira Saturday. He reports the roads in very good condition, with the exception of three or four places, which, from all indications, had no bottom.

—James Hayes, when interviewed Tuesday morning about his initiation in the A. O. U. W., spoke in a very confident manner and declared that Monday night he was successful in riding the goat. While talking about funny things, he remarked: "Say, old boy, you have heard about a goat going over a hill?" "Yes," says I. "Well," says he, laughing, "had you been with me Monday evening you would have seen a Hill go over a goat."

LANCASTER.

—Farmers are all busy ploughing and sowing.

—The sunshine has come at last and we all enjoy it.

—John Templeton visited at River View Saturday.

—Miss Norris visited at Eugene Saturday and Sunday.

—The Sunday-school will elect new officers next Sunday.

—Rev. John Handsaker preached here Sunday to full house.

—James Templeton, of Crown Point, was here visiting last week.

—John Templeton was appointed to lead the endeavor next Sunday.

—John Henderson is talking of building a new house on his ranch below town.

—A picnic is talked of in the neighborhood soon for the young people of our Sunday-school.

—Jerry Hays, of Harrisburg, is trying to circulate a petition to change the road, with little success.

—Wm. Pitney was here Sunday and gave a talk to the Sunday-school on the life of Christ. Many thanks, come again.

The BULLETIN is a welcome visitor in our neighborhood. Some say that they would rather read the correspondence than any other news.

FERN RIDGE.

—A. C. Bates is teaching the Fern Ridge school.

—Bill Jeans, of Elmira, attended church on the Ridge Sunday.

—O. Thurman and David Fisher went to the Long Tom fishing Wednesday.

—G. W. Weatherly was on the Ridge last week in the interest of the creamery.

—Geo. Gross sold his farm of 180 acres to Messrs. McGolden and Brigham, of Kansas.

—Elmer Jordan preached an interesting sermon in the Christian Church Sunday.

—Miss Daisy Summers, of Eugene, is teaching the Washington or Upper Fern Ridge school.

—Clyde Cook, of Junction, was in our neighborhood Wednesday buying hogs for G. C. Millet.

—Tuesday H. C. Mahon was in the neighborhood canvassing for the daily rural free mail delivery.

—Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. John Harris and Rebt. Copple, of Eugene, visited at Mrs. Mulkey's.

—Last Friday while Misses Ora Cheshire and Nora Thurman were going to Eugene, their horse became frightened at the train and overturned the buggy, but no damage was done except a broken harness.

FLAT CREEK ITEMS.

—J. S. Wooley has returned from Sislaw.

—Frank Taylor is visiting at Mr. Chris Tracer's.

—Born, to the wife of Wiley Ingram, April 11, 1901, a girl.

—John Wiltee and T. Fawver were in Corvallis on business Tuesday.

—Next Sabbath is Rev. Sibert's appointment at the school house at 11 a. m.

—Miss Clara Huggins is staying for a few weeks with Mrs. Shipley, near Harmony.

—Mrs. Mary Rickard is staying with her daughter, Mrs. James Trafzer, who is sick near Halsey.

—Dave Lasky is cutting wood for John Wiltee, who has a contract to furnish wood for parties in Junction.

—John Handsaker filled his appointment promptly at 11 o'clock a. m. last Sabbath. The house was well filled and

Personal

H. L. Rann went to Eugene Friday. Miss Lulu Norris went to Eugene Saturday.

Miss Edna Hadley, of Eugene, is visiting in this city.

Miss Emma Baber is visiting friends in Eugene this week.

Dr. Oglesby made a trip to Albany Wednesday, returning Thursday.

Mrs. Archart and daughter, Mrs. A. J. Kaiser, went to Albany on a visit yesterday.

Miss Opal Williams, of Junction, is the guest of Prof. and Mrs. E. E. Orton. —Register.

C. D. Minton, of Salem, representing the Oregon Poultry Journal, was in the city Friday.

Luke Knowlton returned Friday from Portland, where he had been spending his vacation.

Geo. Keene, of Portland, was the guest of his brother, Wm. Keene and family this week.

E. O. Samuels received a brand new go-cart from Albany Sunday morning for his brand new baby.

Dr. Albert Lamberson, of Lebanon, was in this city Sunday to visit A. A. Foster in consultation with Dr. Oglesby.

Harvey Winn returned from Cosmopolis, Wash., Saturday, where he has been working in a box factory and planing mill since last fall.

Wm. Wolf, proprietor of the shingle mills at Blachley, was in town Wednesday and secured a load of the Eastern Oregon barley from Joe Nichols. Mr. Wolf says is scarce at Lake Creek, but shingles are in abundance.

The Junction City Creamery Company made 262 pounds of butter at one churning Tuesday. It was all made from cream brought in Monday. This company has now three wagons employed in gathering up the butter fat. They are making trips out as far as Elmira, and Monday went five miles west of Monroe. Emery Heron, who attends to the outside affairs of this concern, says the business is increasing right along. Monday he bought 17 veal for shipment to Portland.

the discourse on "True Manliness" was well appreciated.

FRANKLIN.

—Farmers busy seeding.

—Mrs. J. N. Dennis is confined to her room with asthma.

—School is progressing finely under the management of Mrs. Mattie Inman.

—Rev. Green, of Eugene, occupied the pulpit at the Christian Church Sunday.

—N. J. Bryant is out with his wagon gathering cream for the Weatherly Creamery.

—Geo. Weatherly, of the Weatherly Creamery Company, was in our vicinity one day last week in the interest of the creamery business.

—Grandma Dennis returned home Sunday from Junction City, where she was called to the bedside of her granddaughter, Miss Ruby Stricklin.

—Clyde Mahon, of Junction, was in this vicinity last week circulating a petition for a rural mail route through this neighborhood. Pack

MRS. J. A. SIBFETS'

MILLINERY PARLORS.

Latest Style Spring Hats

Call and see them. Prices reasonable. A full line of . . .

MILLINERY and FANCY GOODS.

FOR ONE WEEK

WE WILL SELL 3 BOXES OF ORANGE WOOD TOOTH PICKS for 10c.

It will also pay you to examine our line of Tooth Brushes, Tooth Powders, Soaps, Perfumes and Toilet preparations. If you have any favorite recipes of your own, bring them in and get our prices. We will guarantee that you can do from 5 to 500 per cent better on prices with us than you can elsewhere. We believe in quick sales and small profits. Come and see.

Cascade Drug Company

Corner Hotel, Junction City, Oregon

Bulletin Board

Beautiful weather.

Dr. Lowe, oculo-optician, Eugene.

Dr. Oglesby, physician and surgeon.

Read B. S. Hyland & Co.'s ad. in this issue.

Weekly Oregonian and BULLETIN only $2 a year.

Orders taken for ladies' and gents' suits at Houston's.

Silk wands in all the new shades at S. H. Friendly's, Eugene.

Arbor day was observed with appropriate exercises last Friday.

Just received, —1000 lbs. of nice country hams and shoulders at Milliorn Bros.

N. J. Bryant, of Franklin, is in town this week working for the Weatherly Creamery Company.

Wood wanted at the Junction City Flour Mill. Inquire of GEORGE HANDSAKER, Manager.

You can pass a pleasant hour when in Eugene at Littlefield's billiard parlor; cigar store in connection.

For sale—A large, well made and well arranged lady's trunk. A bargain. Inquire at the BULLETIN office.

Take your laundry to G. S. Keck's barber shop. He has the agency for the Troy Laundry, of Portland.

C. F. Hurlburt has the agency for Oliver Chilled Plows and all extras. A full supply always on hand.

If you have any blacksmithing to be done, or horses to be shod, go to W. M. Tripp. His work is always satisfactory.

For sale—A brand new 1901 Rambler "Special." Never been out of the store. A bargain. Inquire at the BULLETIN office.

It will pay you when in Eugene to call at S. H. Friendly's and see the latest styles in Tailor Made Suits—just received.

On Tuesday evening, the 23, J. B. Lister, State evangelist, will lecture in the Christian Church on "Home Missions." All invited.

Died—The little two month's old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Baker, died this morning after a brief illness. Funeral will occur tomorrow at 2 p. m.

Mrs. Hettie Bond, wife of William Bond, died Sunday, April 14, 1901, from paralysis of the brain, at her home near Irving. She was a well known pioneer lady and was aged 66 years.

A petition is being circulated for signatures for free rural delivery of mail from this post office to Franklin, past Maurice Allen's place, through Fern Ridge and back to Junction.

You are cordially invited to attend the services at the Cristian Church next Sunday. 10 a. m., Sunday-school; 11 a. m., sermon by Elder L. D. Green; 7 p. m., Y. P. S. C. E.; 8 p. m., sermon.

W. M. Keene and brother, George Keene, of Salem, who has been visiting his brother for a few days, accompanied by Lee Southworth, went fishing last Saturday. They report catching 40 trout.

W. J. Snodgrass shipped 200 sheep and 20 hogs to Portland Sunday morning. He is one of Junction City's most enterprising stockmen, and now that he has fully recovered from a protracted illness, the buying and shipping of live stock in this section will receive additional impetus at his hands.

This is the season when housecleaning begins to receive consideration. A new carpet for the parlor, sitting room or bedroom, and new matting for the kitchen and halls, add a thousand per cent to the appearance of a home. You will find just what you want in this line at W. L. Wright's furniture store, and at prices that are right.

Postmaster A. R. Martin was called to the bedside of a dying sister, Mrs. L. L. Huntley, in North Yamhill, last Friday. She died Saturday, and the funeral took place Sunday. Mrs. Huntley was 24 years of age. Mr. Martin's mother was also sick, but at the time he left for home she was improving.

One hundred and forty-nine freight cars were on the side tracks in the S. P. yards here Tuesday, besides some on the main track. Three fourths of these cars were loaded with lumber. The yard facilities were taxed to their uttermost to hold the cars. And Oregon's lumber industry is only in its infancy.

J. H. Miller invites the people of Junction and vicinity to call and see the new 1901 Rambler bicycles. If you are thinking about buying a wheel it will pay you to look at the Rambler before you make a purchase. Just notice the number of these wheels in use. That is the best advertisement it can have.

Judge J. W. Hamilton has been appointed by Gov. Geer as a member of the Board of Regents of the State University, at Eugene, to succeed his father, Dr. S. Hamilton, whose second term of six years each has just expired. E. P. Neil, of Ashland, J. S. Orr, of Klamath Falls, and A. J. Sherwood, of Coquille City, have been appointed as members of the Board of Regents for the Ashland State Normal School.—Roseburg Review.

Miss Evelyn Barton is on the sick list.

The Weekly Oregonian and BULLETIN $2 for a year.

What you ask for . . .

is what you always get here. You are never urged to buy something "just as good."

We have everything a good drug store should have, hence are pretty sure to have just what you want. Our advice—if you want it—costs you nothing; and it isn't forced on you if you don't want it. We are here to serve you—not to dictate.

We aim to give perfect service

at fair prices.

We do not care to be known as "cheap druggists," but we do want to be known as "money's worth" druggists.

Muller & Hill

Ask your dealer for . . .

Lu Lu Savon

Cream of all Laundry Soaps

Manufactured by

The Eugene Soap Company Eugene, Oregon

HOUSEWIVES: YOU WILL FIND A FULL LINE OF

STEEL AND CAST RANGES, COOK STOVES, TINWARE and CUTLERY

ALSO THE . . .

Celebrated Petaluma Incubator & Brooder

Griffin Hardware Co., Eugene, Oregon.