 Born—To the wife of G. S. Keck, Monday, April 29, 1901, a 10 pound son. Mother and son are doing well, but we are afraid Sherman will not recover.

We have Westfall's Herbs of Health and Wonder Oil.

MUELLER & HILL.
 Wood wanted at the Junction City Flour Mill. Inquire of GEORGE HANDSAKER, Manager.

If you have any blacksmithing to be done, or horses to be shod, go to W. M. Tripp. His work is always satisfactory.

M. E. Hearn, the new Southern Pacific agent, has rented the Harp residence. The family moved into it last week.

A number of Mrs. W. W. Oglesby's lady friends gave her a pleasant surprise at her home on Greenwood street, Friday afternoon, April 26, 1901, it being the anniversary of her birth. A dainty luncheon was spread and the afternoon was pleasantly spent in social pastime.

Tickets to Salem and Portland will be sold at one fare for the round trip on May 22, by the Southern Pacific company, that being the day President McKinley will visit those cities. This will be, perhaps, the opportunity of a lifetime to see a real live President, so don't miss it. Seeding time will be over by that time, thus giving the farmers an opportunity to attend.

The Oregonian of May 1, under Eugene date, says: Crops in this section are looking much better since the rains of a few days ago. Farmers say it is impossible to estimate the good done by the showers. Large grain crops are more than assured. There is some difference of opinion as to whether the Hessian fly is doing any work on the wheat. If the pest is present the rainy weather is beneficial, both in keeping it subdued and in making strong growth for the wheat. Crop prospects were never brighter in Lane County.

Fir Grove Lodge, Degree of Honor, was organized at Elmira, Saturday evening, April 27, 1901, by Deputy Grand Chief of Honor, Mrs. S. L. Moorhead, of this city. Twenty six applicants were accepted and duly initiated into the mysteries of the order. On completion of the work, refreshments were served at midnight, which were heartily indulged in by all present. Those who attended from Junction were Mesdames Saylor, Pitney, Cummins, Moorhead, Mahon, Skipworth, Powell, Kirk, Miller, Misses Grace Hill, Ida Miller, Georgia Nichols, Minnie Sibbets, Carrie Sternberg, Mary Curtis, Lena Senders; Messrs. J. H. Miller, G. Mahon and Mr. Umphrey.

C. F. Hurlburt has the agency for Oliver Chilled Pines and all extras. A full supply always on hand.

The skillful physician demands a skillful pharmacist; the patient requires both.

Reliability, Skill, Promptness.

Since we entered the drug business we have faithfully endeavored to meet these three requirements.

RELIABILITY.
 Our drugs are absolutely pure. No adulteration tolerated.

SKILL.
 Every precaution exercised in filling of prescriptions. Closest attention to the most minute details. Correctness in preference to haste.

PROMPTNESS.
 No unwarranted delay, no tardiness, no procrastination in filling prescriptions.

Our large and increasing patronage indicates that these methods are appreciated by the public.

The annual convention of Junction Sunday-school Association held a two days' session on last Friday and Saturday in the Christian Church. The most of the schools in the district were well represented and a general good time was had. The convention was honored by the presence of Mrs. W. R. Winans, of Salem, who is superintendent of The Home Department for Oregon. She is an enthusiast in the work and her presence was very inspiring. Mr. O. Bennett, who has been district president for several terms, was unanimously chosen to succeed himself, and Mrs. Nora Jennings was re-elected secretary. The reports from all the schools was very encouraging and the Sunday-school cause is in a very prosperous condition.
