THE BULLETIN SPECIAL EDITION

WHAT OUR CONTEMPORARIES HAVE TO SAY ABOUT IT OR "AS OTHERS SEE US."

[Oregonian]
The Junction City Bulletin has issued a very creditable number descriptive of Junction City and the surrounding country. It is well gotten up and is a valuable addition to the descriptive literature of the state.

[Eugene Guard]
A Splendid Edition.—The Junction City Bulletin this week sent out a splendid souvenir edition. It contains a good write-up of Junction City and the country in general and gives illustrations of various buildings and prominent people of the town. It is a very good advertisement and should be widely circulated throughout the East.

[Eugene Register]
The complimentary notice of The Bulletin Special Edition that appeared in this paper was mislaid in the composing room here. It will be given later.

Showing how well the Special Edition and its illustrations are appreciated abroad, we note that the Register management, with characteristic enterprise, promptly telegraphed for some of the plates of the illustrations to use them in that paper and that were as promptly forwarded for that purpose. This also shows, together with the notices in other publications, some of which are given this week, what wide notoriety that Special Edition has given Junction City and its manifold attractions, for when these complimentary notices appear over a wide area in the best papers of the state, and elsewhere, they talk to millions.

[Roseburg Review]
The Junction City Bulletin issued a very creditable illustrated edition, with a good write-up of the city and Lane county.

[Letter, Portland, June 4]
THE COLUMBIA RIVER AND OREGON TIMBERMAN.

Kindly place the Timberman on your exchange list; and we would also be pleased to receive a copy of your Special Edition, a notice of which we have read an account of in the Oregonian.

G. M. CORNWALL, Publisher.
[Excerpt from this week's Harrisburg Correspondence of The Bulletin.]
The illustrated number of The Bulletin is highly prized by the people here. They appreciate its true descriptive presentation of the country it represent, its moral tenor and its clean typographical appearance. It is conceded to be the best effort of the kind coming from Lane county.

[Personal expression]
J. J. Handsaker, in a note to the Bulletin: "You are to be congratulated on your special edition."

THE HOME GOLD CURE.

IS INGENIOUS TREATMENT BY WHICH DRUNKARDS ARE BRING CURED DAILY IN SIGHT OF THEMSELVES.

NO NOXIOUS DOSES—NO WEAKENING OF THE NERVES—A PLEASANT AND POSITIVE CURE FOR THE LIQUOR HABIT.

It is now generally known and understood that drunkenness is a disease and not weakness. A body filled with poison, and nerves completely shattered by periodical or constant use of intoxicating liquors, requires an antidote capable of neutralizing and eradicating this poison, and destroying the craving for intoxicants. Sufferers may now cure themselves at home without publicity or loss of time from business by the wonderful "Home Gold Cure" which has been perfected after many years of close study and treatment of inebriates. The faithful use according to directions of this wonderful discovery is positively guaranteed to cure the most obstinate case, no matter how hard a drinker. Our records show the marvelous transformation of thousands of drunkards into sober, industrious and upright men.

Wives cure your husbands! Children cure your fathers! This remedy is in no sense a nostrum, but is a specific for this disease only, and is so skillfully devised and prepared that it is thoroughly soluble and pleasant to the taste, so that it can be given in a cup of tea or coffee without the knowledge of the person taking it. Thousands of drunkards have cured themselves with this priceless remedy, and as many more have been cured and made temperate men by having the "Cure" administered by loving friends and relatives without their knowledge in coffee or tea, and believe today that they discontinued drinking of their own free will. Do not wait.

Do not be deluded by apparent and misleading "improvement." Drive out the disease at once and for all time. The "Home Gold Cure" is sold at the extremely low price of one dollar, thus placing within reach of everybody a treatment more effectual than others costing $25 to $50. Full directions accompany each package. Special advice by skilled physicians when requested without extra charge. Sent prepared to any part of the world on receipt of one dollar. Address Dept. E322, Edwin S. Giles & Company, 2330 and 2332 Market St., Philadelphia.
