The funny man of the Oregonian says the piano trust will be put upon a sound basis. We agree with him—it will strike chord in the mind of every one who wants to hit the bottom for a piano on trust.

CREAMERY CREAM.

Tom Bailey and Frank Williams have bought separators. The former substituted one style for another.—Creamery pays 15 cents a pound for butter fat, hand skimmed; 17c for separator cream. E. M. Baber, expert, 21 years resident of Junction, has taken charge of the books.—Supt. H. Wegner has been an around the world traveler. He says to the farmers: "You will find it more profitable to ship your cream to the creamery than make the butter at home yourselves."—Mr. Baber says: "This creamery has put in circulation, in the country, among farmers, at least $1000 more than was received from that source in former years."

SOMETHING NEW!

Just published by the Southern Pacific Co. is a pamphlet upon the resources of Western Oregon, which includes an excellent map of the state, and contains information on climate, lands, education, etc., existing industries and their capabilities.

Attention is also directed to such new fields for energy or capital as promise air return.

This publication fills a need long experienced by Oregonians, in replying to inquiries of Eastern friends.
