Proposed Oregon Law: Higher Pay

Section 19. The board shall, at its first meeting, by a majority vote of all the members present, appoint a county treasurer, who shall serve for two years, or until his successor is appointed and qualified, and who shall serve in the office of the county treasurer until his successor is appointed and qualified.

The county treasurer shall make a report of his accounts to the county commissioners at the first meeting of the board of directors held after the calendar year.

The county treasurer shall, at the meeting of the board of directors, appoint a county auditor, who shall serve for two years, or until his successor is appointed and qualified, and who shall serve in the office of the county auditor until his successor is appointed and qualified.

The county auditor shall make a report of his accounts to the county commissioners at the first meeting of the board of directors held after the calendar year.

Section 20. The board shall, at its first meeting, by a majority vote of all the members present, appoint a county treasurer, who shall serve for two years, or until his successor is appointed and qualified, and who shall serve in the office of the county treasurer until his successor is appointed and qualified.

The county treasurer shall make a report of his accounts to the county commissioners at the first meeting of the board of directors held after the calendar year.

The county treasurer shall, at the meeting of the board of directors, appoint a county auditor, who shall serve for two years, or until his successor is appointed and qualified, and who shall serve in the office of the county auditor until his successor is appointed and qualified.

The county auditor shall make a report of his accounts to the county commissioners at the first meeting of the board of directors held after the calendar year.