

HAVE A.... LOOK

Model Bath Room

TUBS FROM $10.00 UP

Toilets, Sinks and Lavatories

Plumbing and tin work solicited. We only charge $1.00 for lead connections to water mains.

PICKETT'S HARDWARE

Dr. Loew, oculo-optician, Eugene.

If you have any saws to file see J. E. George.

For the worth of your money see the Home Bakery.

Gents white vests made to order for $1.50 at the Ladies Bazaar.

Call and see our floor matting before you buy elsewhere.

J. A. Stansbie.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williams, of Pleasant Hill, Sunday night, July 6, 1907, a son.

The best on the creek is "Peery's Cooling Cream" for chapped skin or after shaving, 25 cents.

If you want window sash, window glass, doors, screen doors or putty, call at the Springfield sash and door factory. A complete stock now on hand.

We have the best selection of floor matting that has ever been seen in Springfield. You can save money by purchasing from us.

J. A. Stansbie.

A good tract of land within half mile of depot for sale in acre lots on very reasonable terms. A desirable place for a home. ft 24 S. N. B. Hunt.

Mr. Fred Walker spent the Fourth of July in Portland returning home Friday evening. While in the city he purchased a large supply of new undertaking goods for his establishment at this place.

During the absence of the city editor of the News while on his eastern trip next month, Mr. Fred Walker has been induced to take hold of the editorial quill and furnish the News readers with a sample of his brain profusion.

Take your shoes to E. Wells and get them fixed up proper. General repairing of all kinds. Also tacks, leather, rubber and leather cement for sale. I will try and please you all. Shop on East Main street. E. Wells.

W. L. Christer left Tuesday night for Shaniko, where he has a band of about 200 horses that he brought from the east a few weeks ago. He expects to drive them across the mountains where he will find sale for them at Springfield and Eugene.

The dance that will be given by the ball boys Saturday night will be a reception for the Roseburg base ball team. Dillard and Svarverud will furnish the music and it is hoped that a large crowd will be present to help entertain the visiting base ball team and also to help swell the receipts of the base ball funds.

Mr. B. B. McKinney came over from Eugene Wednesday, accompanied by architect John Hunsicker, and purchased from Mr. Gilkey, 26 feet more Main street property. This gives him a frontage of 63 feet and he says that he will start the erection at once of a two-story building that will cover the entire lot, 63 x 120.

PICKETT

Sells Tents and Camp Outfits

Yes, a moral wave has struck Springfield and now there will be something doing all the time.

C. H. Pickett just received a car load of sewer pipe. Prices reasonable and work first.

For Sale—Oats for sale. C. Rivett or phone Farmers 147, Eugene. A self-binder for sale or trade.

If you have a walk to repair or job work of any kind, telephone me and I will send you a man.—R. C. Morgan.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Bailey came up from Marcola last Saturday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stewart.

For a good shave, haircut, shampoo or bath call on McCollum & Prior, barbers. Bathroom is always ready for you.

I am prepared to furnish most any kind of town or farm property to suit purchaser at very low prices. S. N. B. Hunt. ft 24

For Sale. One three-year-old sorrel mare, weight 900 pounds. Partly broke. Inquire S. G. Klög, near Fifth and North E. Phone Main 323. ft 24

Harry M. Stewart decided not to be outdone by others and Monday went to Eugene and purchased a fine rubber tire buggy. He now has one of the swiftest turnouts in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Dalrymple and family, from Renfrow, Oklahoma, arrived in Springfield Wednesday evening for an extended visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Browning.

Walter Wilmott sold his team and interest in the teaming and also the grading and graveling business to O. W. Johnson. Walter has not yet decided what he will do but will hold forth in Springfield.

I am still in business at the old stand with the finest line of candies, tobacco and cigars in town. Everything is fresh and clean and when you buy of us you get the best and the worth of your money. We invite you to call.

Will Cheshire.

Chas. Talliaferro returned Wednesday from The Dalles, where he has been playing ball with Stubling's bunch this season. The team at that place has been disbanded and Charlie may be persuaded to camp here for the remainder of the season.

Marshal Shahan received a telegram from Brownsville Wednesday morning, informing him of a robbery that took place at that city Tuesday night, and requesting that he keep a lookout for the suspect as he was thought to have headed this way. Over $2,000 worth of jewelry is said to have been taken.

Mr. H. C. Kelly, formerly of Springfield but for the past year has made his home at Roseburg, was in Springfield Tuesday renewing old acquaintances. He informs us that he has sold his business at Roseburg but will continue his residence there. Mr. Kelly, when at Springfield, was conductor on the Woodburn-Springfield branch.

Dr. Jayne took his departure this morning for Seaside, to be in attendance at a meeting of the State Medical Society, which will be held at that place on Friday and Saturday of this week. They will hold their big clam bake on Friday night. Several noted physicians from the east will be in attendance. Dr. Jayne anticipates a fine time both from a professional and pleasure standpoint, as this will be his first trip to the coast.

Usually a man dreads the sight of his mother-in-law, but such does not seem the case with "Dad" Butler. Tuesday evening he came in the News office with a smile on his face like a little school boy and said, "Bye Dad my mother-in-law came to day, the first time I have seen her for over twenty years". She is Mrs. L. C. Flannery, of Uba City, Cal., and has not seen her daughter, Mrs. N. B. Butler for 18 years. Her visit is a surprise to the family as she was not expected. Mr. Butler says she will remain just as long as they can keep her.

Special sale of all summer hats at the Ladies Bazaar.

If you appreciate good bread see the Home Bakery.

Before building your house see R. C. Morgan for plans. He will save you money.

Mr. E. C. Martin and daughter Lulu went to Portland July 4th and remained until Monday evening.

Mr. Hull, the Eugene druggist, was in town for a few hours Tuesday looking after his Springfield store.

Warren McFarland and Miss Myrtle Smith, of Cottage Grove, spent Sunday with the family of John Winzenried.

We furnish the goods and make your skirt for $1.50. See the goods in our bargain window. Ladies Bazaar.

C. C. Bowman is home visiting with his family after three months absence at Ashland. He expects to return about July 15, and may take his family with him.

For Sale—One of the best 64-foot corner lots in Springfield. Good high ground. Faces south and east. A good bargain at $185. Part cash, balance on instalments. Inquire at News office.

Miss Cleo Johnson, from Corvallis, arrived in Springfield Monday, and will make an extended visit with her aunt, Mrs. A. S. Shaw. Miss Johnson is a daughter of Ex-Senator A. J. Johnson.

Henry Stewart and Alf Walker returned to the high hills again Monday, after spending a week with their families. They are purchasing the right-of-way up the McKinzie for the Willamette Valley Company.

140 acres land, 40 acres in hops and the balance in good hop land. This place will be sold at half price and is worth $160 per acre but can be bought for $80 per acre if taken soon. ft 24 S. N. B. Hunt.

Mrs. Hubert Anderson came up from Portland last Friday and will remain for ten days, visiting relatives and friends. While here she made final proof on her timber claim before W. W. Calkins, at Eugene.

Mr. J. W. Cox presented to the News force, a box of "Mammoth" black berries, Monday, that measured from an inch and a quarter to an inch and three quarters in length. They were the finest we had ever seen and the vines are out one year old.

Springfield Provision Company

Everything New, Clean and Neat
Only Cold Storage in the City

Our slogan is "Satisfied Customers." Our meats are home cured and all home slaughtered. Besides thoroughly cleaning our market and putting it in first-class condition, we have added a cold storage that enables us to furnish our customers with the very best of meats during the warm summer months. Our aim is to give good weight and the lowest living prices. Phone your orders to Main 183 and have your meat delivered.

HIGHEST PRICE PAID FOR HIDES, PELTS and POULTRY HARDT & WHITEMAN

A bargain for someone. One of the best dairying farms in Lane county, seven miles from Springfield, 240 acres at $34 per acre. ft 24 S. N. B. Hunt.

For sale. Good hotel fixtures and a lease on the building. A snap for the right party if taken within the next few days. Have private reasons for selling. Address, Box 175, Springfield. ft 24

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Kepper went to Portland Saturday to attend the wedding of Miss Bernice Chessman to Dr. A. K. Turner, Saturday evening at the home of the brides parents, Mr and Mrs. W. W. Chessman.

Lost—Between Springfield and Thurston, a pocket book containing $2.07, a small silver watch and a credit bill in favor of the undersigned from Pickett's Hardware store for $10. Reward to the finder if left at Pickett's store G. N. Lobdell.

Mr. and Mrs. Corsaw, who took a little boy by the name of Benjamin Harrison Pessley about sixteen years ago to raise, have this week filed papers for his regular adoption, and he will become their son in a legal sense and his name changed to Benjamin H. Corsaw.

Rev. J. O. Richmond, who is now holding forth at Scio, was in the city the early part of the week visiting his son Dr. J. E. and wife, and also looking after his residence property in North Springfield. Mr. Richmond reports his family all well at Scio and says they may return to Springfield in the not very distant future.

Another dance will be given at the opera house tomorrow, Saturday night, for the benefit of the base ball team. A large crowd will be in attendance and every body is invited to come and have a good time. Remember that it is for the benefit of the base ball team and come out and help swell the crowd.

White Elephant Livery Barn

WINZENRIED & BANGS

Good Service, Fair Treatment and Moderate Rates

Springfield-Eugene Buss and Transfer. First class turnouts. Special attention to Commercial travelers. We solicit your patronage.

CALL ON US

For anything in our many lines of stock We are here to show you the goods and to give you prices. If you do not know what lines we carry come in and find out. We solicit comparisons of prices. You may occasionally find an article cheaper elsewhere, but you also will find some higher than ours. Generally you will find our prices about even, if any difference, lower. When you are pleased with an article from our store tell your friends, when not tell us

Yours for straightforward dealings,

J. A. STANSBIE
THE FURNITURE AND HARDWARE MAN

Stewart's Dept. Store

Harry M. Stewart, Prop.

First Door East of Hotel

Gent's Summer Suits

Now is the time to come and have your measure taken for a new suit. I have samples from one of the largest clothing stores in Chicago. All styles and grades of goods

Summer Hats

Large shipment of straw hats just arrived, including Men's, Boys', Women's and Girl's, in the latest and leading styles.

There's No Use

To look elsewhere for we still have a beautiful line of Ladies' Shirt Waists, Skirts and Washable Dresses. If you want anything in these lines you can find them at our store. The season being backward we find that we are left with a large stock of Shirt Waists, and not wanting to carry them over have marked them way down. Now is your chance to purchase, so don't wait.

"Good" Groceries

THAT'S OUR MOTTO

We carry only the best brands of Groceries—nothing except high-grade articles—and look after every detail of the business. It's our ambition to please customers. Highest market price paid for all kinds of farm produce.

Good Goods and Low Prices