HAMPTON'S

MT. VERNON ITEMS

W. S. Dodd has just returned from a very profitable sojourn at Corvallis where he attended the Farmers' Short Course.

Rev. E. C. Tuppet of the Eugene Bible school preached to a good attendance at the school house Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Withers of Eugene, spent several days visiting relatives in this vicinity last week.

Misses Mae Smith and Rose Kaldor of Marcola spent the week-end with Miss Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Smith.

Rev. E. C. Tupper and Miss Pina Benedict took dinner at E. S. Harding's Sunday.

Roy Palmer and sons returned last Monday from California where they had spent several months.

Mrs. J. A. Clearwater was indisposed for several days but is improved at the present writing.

E. D. Chase and Alvie McPherson are going to Eastern Oregon to look up homesteads, when spring opens.

J. R. Stevens and sons have taken a contract to cut several hundred cords of wood for G. W. and John Smith.

Our school, which is under the able supervision of Miss Pina Benedict, will be Standardized next Friday.

Joe Sylvester is putting in his leisure time trapping.

Miss Hazel Lathrop spent Tuesday and Wednesday at the home of her brother, J. B. Lathrop, of the McKenzie Stock Farm.

The Mt Vernon Glee Club, under the direction of E. S. Harding, made their initial appearance on Saturday evening at the Mt. Vernon school house in the role of negro minstrels. The program was well rendered and made quite a hit with the audience. Immediately following the program a basket social was held and the baskets were soon sold. The neat sum of $36 was cleared which will be applied to building a horse shed on the school grounds. This will fill a long felt want and will be very much appreciated by patrons of the district.

The Eighth Annual Anniversary meeting of the Mt. Vernon Thimble society was held at the home of Mrs. Harry Withers on February 4 and a splendid time was enjoyed. The day was spent in sewing and social chat. Dinner, the main feature, was served at one o'clock. Those present were: Mesdames Mary McPherson, Edna Carpenter, Margaret Carpenter, Margaret Gorie, Sarah Stevens, Rae Stevens, Hester Armitage, Ethel Armitage, Mary Westfall, Leona Withers, Jeanette Withers, Teena Withers; Messrs J. R. McPherson, Carl Carpenter, J. P. Withers, Frank Withers, Harry Withers, Master Randall Withers and Wayne Armitage. Little Miss Dorothy Withers and Mildred Carpenter. This club has met continuously for eight years and several of the charter members are still its most ardent supporters. The gentlemen are not regular attendants, their presence at this meeting being due to the condition of the weather making it impossible for them to work at home.

REVIVAL MEETINGS DRAW TO A CLOSE

women of the town have appreciated the efforts of Bruce Evans. Perhaps no man ever has won such a place in the hearts of the people in so short a time as has this evangelist.

The first service that Mr. Evans spoke he announced his policy in these words, "Most evangelists when they go into a community call into every person and everything they see and skin them from hell to breakfast, hammer the town officials, belittle the ministry, denounce the members of the churches, unearth scandal and make chaos out of everything in general. I will not do that while I am in town. I preach a positive gospel. I won't talk much on brimstone or sulphur and I won't sic a half dozen old sisters on a fellow and drag him out. Every man or woman who comes down that aisle will come with his eyes open and because he wants to come."

It must be said that Evans has stuck to that policy absolutely. He has been unscathing when talking about sin. He has been fearless as a lion when standing for what he thought to be right. He has appealed in a large way to men. A great proportion of
