Tales of the Town...

N. P. Jensen was a Sunday visitor with friends at Prinbro's.

Mrs. Rose Harbit was called to Woldington Sunday. She expects to return to town Tuesday.

Mrs. Frank Embs was in Springfield Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. John T. W. Head was in Springfield to see friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Head were in Springfield to see friends.

Mrs. W. C. Head, who was operated on at the Springfield hospital two weeks ago, has returned to her home and is improving slowly.

Mrs. Beatrice Crow is moving her millinery store today from Fifth street between Main and A to the Keeler building on Main between Third and Fourth.

The time of prayer meeting at the M. E. church has been changed from Thursday evening to Wednesday from 7:30 to 8 p.m. Choir practice will be held immediately following.

Mrs. N. J. Harbit and two daughters will go to Portland Tuesday to attend the millinery convention. Mrs. Harbit says she expects to return home next Monday, but her accommodations will not be announced.

Beauties of the Week... The modern Salisbury Spray. A dry compound that dissolves dirt in cold water. 100 pounds go as far as 40 gallons of lime water. Costs less. Does better work. Springfield Pool Co.

---

Special For Monday, Tuesday And Wednesday

Chocolate Peanut Cluster
30c per pound

AT The Halide Hall

- Switches made from embly.
- Mrs. J. B. Bowles. Mr. & Mrs.
- Naomi Nelson is visiting her mother Mrs. E. H. Hockett, at Colby this week.
- Claude Washburn came over from Jacksonville City Saturday night and spent Sunday with his parents.
- Mrs. T. H. Jackson, who was operated on at the Springfield hospital two weeks ago, has returned to her home and is improving slowly.
- Mrs. Beatrice Crow is moving her millinery store today from Fifth street between Main and A to the Keeler building on Main between Third and Fourth.

---

SPECIAL

- Miss Ada Redman is assistance in the main store corner.
- O. L. Redman of Lebanon was in Springfield Saturday on business.
- Mr. Martin, the 9th in his home of her daughter, Mrs. M. M. Peery.
- Henderson is moving to Missoula for this morning for a visit of a day or two.
- George Thompson has recently removed and is now in the employment of a store.
- G. E. Brown of Hubbard is visiting friends in Springfield Sunday, and is expected to return home Monday.
- Harold N. Noller of Oregon, Colo., went to Springfield Saturday night and Sunday with friends in Springfield.
- Mrs. R. N. and daughter Laurel and Miss Grace Colvin left Friday for Pullman to visit friends and relatives.
- Alex. Mcnagare, master of the Thompson store, was served with a chill Friday forenoon, and had to be taken to his rooms. He was some better this morning.
- Mrs. A. R. Dubbin has a beautiful Christmas tree with a full bloom at her home on B street. It has about 150 blue bulbs.
- Miss Lurie Johnson of Portland, who is visiting Mrs. Lydia St. John and friends, went to the country Saturday to spend a day in her mother and sister's home.
- George Koziek left this morning for Sulliver, Puky county, to offer his services to the public.
- The old Mr. Koziek lags but is making progress in being 87 years young.
- Vis Williams was operated on at Eugene Hospital Friday for appendicitis. He is now well on the road to recovery, despite the fact that his case was a serious one.
- The Booth-Boo Co. has had the space occupied by the retail yard cleared of the fragments left by the saw that were maintained there while the retail business was a neglected and operated.
- Springfield flour Mill has increased its capacity by a greater amount than any other mill in the state. That market will not be sufficed.
- Lumber is being hauled by the mill and if the mill is built today is the new railroad to be placed in use. It was expected that the mill would be here this morning to begin placing the planks, but they did not show up.
- Fungal & Long have completed the metal frames at the State lights for the Eugene armory.
- They have the contract to supply all of the woodwork for this building, and have built the wood work and will build wood work for any other construction if the building proper is not an armory.
- The March 4th, Mrs. Edna Woodman of America announces a dinner party to be given her husband on Monday evening, February 22, Bogart will be the host of the order. The dinner party is given in charge of the ladies, Mrs. E. L. Davis, Mrs. W. L. Douglass, E. H. Alexander, Mrs. I. P. Fisher and Mrs. W. T. Wilson.
- The Niagara is no longer the Fair at the Lincoln Park.
- The local residents of the town of Springfield, Ore., are invited to the last of the week to the show a store near the Springfield hotel to be held at the Convention in the building proper.

---

TUESDAY, February 12, 1912, at the hotel.

FOLLOWING Thursday, February 15, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Wilson.

---

TUESDAY, February 12, 1912, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Wilson.

FOLLOWING Thursday, February 15, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Wilson.

---

****

---

****

---

****

---

****

---

****

---