Mrs. D. A. Washburne entertained at cards Monday after noon and night, Mrs. W. P. Martin of Vancouver, Miss. W. A. Dray of Burien, Mrs. A. A. Anderson, and Mrs. C. H. Carpenter of Seattle, at which Mrs. W. C. Beban won the honors, a beauti-ful gold watch presented to the winner by Mrs. Washburne as a dainty two-course silver platter. The guests of the afternoon were Mrs. Martin, Mrs. John B. Ogden of Portland, sister of the hostess; Mrs. J. L. Clark, Mrs. Howard Woods, Mrs. Clark Fletcher, Mrs. L. A. Bass, Mrs. L. R. Kuss, Mrs. C. H. Carpenter, Mrs. M. M. Verry, Mrs. John E. Swarts, Mrs. W. E. DePue, Mrs. R. J. Bryan, Mrs. J. Lee Swarts, Mrs. Milon Bailey.

A new club entered the social calendar of recent Tuesday evening when the "Progressive Five Hundred" club was organized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Drum. Mrs. Drum was elected president and Gilbert Davis secretary-treasurer. The first meeting February 24, will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Cathegin. The membership of the new club consists of the following: Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Drum, Mr. and Mrs. George Cathegin, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Pray, Mr. and Mrs. Trumbull Balfour, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Woodward, Mrs. L. E. Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Donaldson, Mrs. Zella Chastell and Mrs. Jesse Newman.

The Socially and business meeting of the Euphonia League will be held at the Methodist church tomorrow evening.

A number of Thanksgiving piles of presents were piling up at Elza's social gathering at the high school last evening. Dancing prevailed at the social gathering, and little girls were shown tables for whist at the ballroom. J. G. Toner won first honors, and Mrs. J. L. Clark second. Boys are members of the White Echo. Following the cards a delicious delicatessen luncheon was served in the club banquet room. At the hour of 11, Jack Rodman in the banquet room of the cast, a couple of the ladies left the room in the half, proposed the toast to the absent brothers.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Vincent of Eugene entertained at their home there on Tuesday evening in honor of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. I. D. Lutcher of Springfield. Springfield guests arrived in time for an elaborate and appointed dinner, and were entertained at the place of the evening. The guests were Mrs. I. D. Lutcher, Mrs. W. A. Dray, and Misses Mary, Mrs. J. L. Clark, Mrs. W. E. DePue, Mrs. R. J. Bryan and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Vincent.

The Modern Woodmen and Royal Neighbors are planning on having an unusual pleasant time next Saturday evening when they will entertain the members of the Eugene Woodmen and Royal Neighbor lodges with a big supper and musical program.
