BELL THEATRE

SAMUEL H. LONDON'S WORLD-RENOWNED PHOTO-PLAY IN FIVE BIG THRILLING REELS.

The Inside of the White Slave Traffic

THE MOST GRAPHIC EXPOSURE OF THE WHITE SLAVE TRAFFIC EVER ATTEMPTED. PRODUCED AT A COST OF $20,000. "THOU SHALT NOT."

This is the Photo-Play that was seized and stopped by the Seattle police at the Melbourne theatre last week. It was afterward released without prejudice, and at the urgent solicitation of reform workers in that city it has been engaged for a return date in the same city.

If you sympathize with crooked police work and the ruin of innocent young girls, DON'T COME. You will be offended. If you would know the trail of the serpent from homes like your own to the Gateways of Hell in a city's "restricted district," go to the Bell theatre Friday night and see a powerful sermon without words. You will come away a cleaner-minded man or woman.

Helen Knight, physician in charge of the Magdalene Home, New York City, says of this Film: "The presentation of your picture, 'The Inside of the White Slave Traffic,' in every town and hamlet in the United States would mean the elimination of White Slavery."

YOU CAN'T MAKE A PICTURE OF A BAT LOOK LIKE A HUMMING BIRD, BUT THERE IS NOTHING IN THESE PICTURES TO OFFEND THE PURE-MINDED

The mayor of Anacortes, Washington, says if there were more such pictures shown, the country would be better for it. Thousands have said the same thing.
