

Leave your thirst at our fountain,

The parting will be sweet.

We make your favorite drink; ask for it.

Judge the rest of our Fountain Delicacies by our famous

"Cherry Melba Sundae"

"We Serve to Satisfy."

Tales of the Town

—Have you tried Cupid Flour?

—Hall for cheaper soles and heels.

—Lap dusters, gloves and shoe findings at the Harness Shop.

Tom Ohlsen went to Newport Saturday to visit his family over Sunday.

The Sutton house, occupied by L. M. Beebe, is receiving a new coat of paint.

Miss Helen Barkman left today for Monmouth to attend the Normal school summer sessions.

Born—On Sunday, June 20, 1915, to Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Simmons, who live near Donna, a daughter.

Miss Grace Walker left this morning for Monmouth to attend the summer school at the State Normal school.

M. J. Powell, who has been confined to his bed for the past three weeks, is improving and expects to be out in a few days.

Prof. P. M. Stroud and Bruce Lansbury returned Saturday morning from a fishing trip on Little Fall creek. They secured 170 fish.

Walter Herndon of the Beaver-Herndon company has fashioned a very clever automobile out of kitchen ware for the window display.

—Until June 26 we are offering a limited number of regular $9, 2-in. post iron beds at $5.75 each. HAYDEN & METCALF, The Home Furnishers.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McCracken were down from Oakridge Saturday on business and to visit relatives. They returned home the same evening.

Mrs. Annie Potter, mother of Mrs. F. R. Russell, was taken to the Springfield hospital Friday for treatment. She showed signs of improvement yesterday.

Oliver Johnson hauled an unusually large amount of lumber from the Booth-Kelly mill to Eugene Saturday, totalling some 40,000 feet. One load contained 6400 feet.

Capt. William Young left Sunday for Newport to spend a two weeks vacation. He was accompanied by his brother Jimmie, who will chaperone the captain while at the resort.

The local baseball team went to Mabel yesterday where they played the mill town boys in the afternoon. For the second time this season our boys were counted out by the Mabel team, the score reading 7 to 5.

The S. P. Supply train, with the division officials aboard, will tie up in Springfield tonight, coming in over the Woodburn branch. Trips are to be made on the Wendling and the Oakridge branches tomorrow.

Mrs. Zella Cantrell, chief operator of the Pacific Telephone company, and children and Mrs. Jessie Newman of the News office returned Saturday from their outing at Newport and enjoyed their vacation immensely. Mrs. Newman also spent a few days in Portland visiting old friends from Iowa whom she had not seen for a number of years.

—Hall for cheaper soles and heels.

—Shoe and harness repairing at Wolf & Miller's.

W. M. Sutton went to Portland Saturday morning by automobile.

Miss Irma Barkman, who is employed in Corvallis, spent Sunday with her parents here.

H. E. Walker leaves tonight for Portland to attend the sittings of the federal court, in which he is a juror.

—Good reliable fire insurance. No assessments, no membership fee. Pay once and you are done. H. E. Walker at the City Hall.

A. G. Potter, who came from Oakland, California, last week to see his mother, who is ill for his home again last evening.

C. E. Sales of the Toggery, moved Thursday into the Cogill house at Fifth and C streets, formerly occupied by F. J. Berger.

Miss Frances Brown of Camp Creek, who has been visiting at Junction City, spent Friday night at the E. E. Brattain home while on her way.

Miss Theda Perkins has gone to Berkeley, California, to attend the summer school of the University of California and to visit the Panama-Pacific exposition.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Jones and family of Salem, who have been visiting at the home of Supt. R. L. Kirk for a few days, left for home by automobile Saturday morning.

The Oregon Power company installed a larger transformer in its block on Main between Fourth and Fifth last week. This is the second increase demanded within a couple months in this neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Watke and son left by automobile yesterday morning for California to spend several months visiting the exposition and touring the country. They have stored their household goods here.

—"Your Girl and Mine" is a big play with a big mission, built on a big scale. It is a whole evening's entertainment and a very interesting one at that. It takes six reels to tell the story, at the Bell Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Williams, who have been visiting for the past ten days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McCulloch, left this morning for Seattle. Mrs. Williams will go on to Boston to visit her people for several months, and Mr. Williams will spend a time in the Puget Sound country. He is planning to return to Springfield in the fall for a hunting trip.

Mrs. W. L. McFarland, mother of Mrs. Roy Jenkins, was taken to Eugene this morning to have her shoulder examined under the X-ray. Mrs. McFarland, while on a step ladder last Thursday putting away fruit, fell, striking on her shoulder and breaking a bone in her shoulder and cutting a deep gash over eye with the bows of her glasses. She has been suffering a great deal of pain with her injuries.

SOCIAL NOTES

The Pine Needle club met on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Kizer at her home south of Springfield, and celebrated the birthday anniversaries of Mrs. Dorrity, Mrs. Page, Mrs. Magill, Mrs. Kizer and Mrs. Nelson. A fine birthday dinner was served the guests, and a most enjoyable afternoon was passed. The members of the club present were Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Dorrity, Mrs. Richmond, Mrs. Roberts, Mrs. Horton, Mrs. Kizer, Sadles Nelson, Mrs. Tomseth, Ellen Thompson, Virgie Townsend, Mrs. Al. Montgomery, Lillie Masterson, Edyth Larimer, Avis Thompson. Guests of the club were Mrs. Page, Mrs. DeMick, Miss Tomseth, Mrs. Ralston, Mrs. King, Miss Kizer.

The combined Sunday School classes of Mae McPherson and Stella Mitchell of the Baptist church met at the High school Thursday morning and went for a picnic at the Jack Chase grove west of Springfield. The rest of the forenoon and all of the afternoon were spent in games enjoyed by youngsters. At noon a fine basket dinner was served. On the way home the party paid a call on Mrs. Etta Mitchell Chase and on Mrs. M. Cook. Those who enjoyed the day were Lilla Miller, Lulu Kelly, Lila Kelly, Grace Piper, Vera Miller Aliene Cook, Helen Bower, Helen Bryan, May Stevens, Gladys Chase, Evelyn Miller, Dorothy Chase, Blanche Watson, Anna Yeager, Lenore Shaban, Gladys Nystrom, Alice Cox, Ruby Harshburger of Washington, Iva Hill, Miss McPherson, Miss Mitchell.

Mrs. W. F. Walker was the charming hostess of the Needlecraft at its meeting last Thursday afternoon. The hostess served a dainty two-course luncheon. Guests of the craft were Miss Harper, Mrs. Kate Kester, and Mrs. R. R. Jones (Salem).

Mrs. Norman Howard of east Main street was the charming hostess of the Priscilla club when it met in its regular session Friday afternoon. After a delightful season of social conversation as the needles flew, the hostess served a delicious two-course luncheon. The members present were Mrs. E. McKenize, Mrs. M. J. McKlin, Mrs. I. D. Larimer, Mrs. William Donaldson, Mrs. William Rouse, Mrs. E. O. Browning (Eugene), Mrs. Dan Gore, Mrs. D. S. Beals, and Mrs. Howard.

Mrs. Rose Harbit spent Sunday in Eugene with her brother, S. W. B. Haynes.

Some apple trees in the yard at the Roy Jenkins home are so heavily loaded with fruit that a trellis has had to be built to support the branches.

Members of the Free Methodist church in West Springfield are making preparations to hold all day services on Sunday, July 4. The program will be announced later.

The box department of the Springfield Planting mill shipped 500 tomato crates to the Chase farm, and the day before delivered 700 cases for canned goods to the Eugene Fruit Growers association.

—Don't come to the Bell Friday and Saturday evenings unless all your buttons are well sewed on. They will have to stand the strain of fifty hearty laughs in Charles Chaplin's two reel comedy "His New Job."

Ebner Dover of Tacoma, president of the Oregon Power Co., a Norman of Eugene, vice-president and general manager; and W. H. Hodge of Chicago, connected with the Byllesby company, visited the local plant of the Oregon Power company this morning and also visited the Booth-Kelly mill. All of these gentlemen had just attended the convention of the National Electric Light association at San Francisco.

H. E. Pitts, president of the Springfield Planting Mill company, returned home Saturday noon after an absence of several weeks. Some time was spent at Savannah, Mo., where he received treatment for cancer and was considerably benefitted. Mr. Pitts also spent some time at his old home in Nora Springs, Iowa, and also visited daughter at Fargo, N. D. He reports conditions in the middle west as flourishing and says that the outlook for enormous crops is fine. After leaving Minnesota and crossing the Rocky mountains depression in business began to be noticeable.

bers present were Mrs. E. McKenize, Mrs. M. J. McKlin, Mrs. I. D. Larimer, Mrs. William Donaldson, Mrs. William Rouse, Mrs. E. O. Browning (Eugene), Mrs. Dan Gore, Mrs. D. S. Beals, and Mrs. Howard.

The Gleaners will meet with Mrs. Hugh Kester at the corner of Fifth and C streets Thursday afternoon, June 24. A special invitation is made that members attend.

The Loyal Alpha class of the Christian church of Springfield went to Hayden bridge for a picnic Friday. The party of 11 girls met at the High school and were driven to the bridge by C. W. Hays. The morning was spent in exploring the woods. At noon a picnic dinner was served, delayed somewhat by the disappearance of most of the luncheon, which was found after half an hour's search, hidden in the woods, where it had been put by two of the party. A business meeting was held and the following officers were elected: Mrs. Ferguson, teacher; Mrs. Knott, assistant teacher; Mabel January, president; Hazel Parrish, vice-president; Bessie Webb, secretary; Mary Hays, assistant secretary; Hazel Young, treasurer. A social committee was appointed, to consist of Irva Barbe, chairman; Viola Hays and Mary Hays. Those present were: Mrs. Elsie Ferguson, Mabel January, Edna Fisher, Hazel Parrish, Mary Hays, Hazel Young, Sadie Allen, Anna Hedberg, Bessie Webb, Irva Barbe and Viola Hays.

The Knights and Ladies of Security will give an invitation dance at their hall Thursday evening of this week.

SOC ucl-k calfoa nJem?n Mrs. D. W. Roof entertained Saturday afternoon at her pleasant home on A and Eighth street in honor of the birthday anniversary of her mother, Mrs. Julia Kennedy. It was a pleasant surprise to the good lady. Dainty refreshments were served the following guests: Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Gile, Mrs. Ashworth, Mrs. Bissell, Mrs. Sidwell, Mrs. Day. The ladies departed acknowledging the ladies royal entertainers and wishing many returns of the happy occasion.

Miss Stella Harbit returned Saturday from a week's stay at the Chase farm.

Miss Z. Speed of the Elite studio, is suffering from a very severe attack of quinsy.

W. J. Grove returned Friday night from San Francisco where he had spent a few days at the fair. His grandson, Lewis Grandy, who attended the local High school last year, went on to his home in Wyoming.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Browning, who have had rooms at Mrs. Richardson's since their return from California a couple months ago, have moved into their own house on B street between Fourth and Fifth, recently vacated by F. B. Watke.

—An extraordinary announcement is that the world-famous Charles Chaplin will be seen at the Bell in the two reel comedy "His New Job" Friday and Saturday evenings. The funniest films ever shown in Springfield.

Mrs. R. M. Baker returned from Portland last week after a short visit in the metropolis to bid her mother farewell on her trip to Honolulu.

Mrs. J. L. Crow of Wendling, who underwent a minor operation at the Springfield hospital, returned to her home the last of last week. Her son, Beryl, who underwent an operation for the removal of his tonsils, also returned home.

C. O. Johnson, cashier of the Farmers' National Bank of Ponca City, Oklahoma, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Loug of Springfield. The Longs formerly lived in Ponca City. Mr. Johnson accompanied by his son are on their way to the fair at San Francisco.

—In "Your Girl and Mine" at the Bell Tuesday evening you can see Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, the famous suffrage leader, also the great actress Olive Wyndham Katherine Kalred, leading lady of "Joseph and His Brethren; Sydney Booth of "The Yellow Ticket."

INDUSTRIAL NOTES

Portland, June 21.—Contracts have been signed up for hard surfacing 66 miles highway, 10 miles concrete and brick, 56 miles Warrenite bitulthie.

Freewater contracts let for two new school houses, $8,206 and $8,033.

Bids opened July 12 for $200,000 expenditure on Siuslaw jetty.

Rainier—Union street improvement to cost $2,454.

Weston—Marshal hotel to be remodeled.

Albany has built hard surface pavement to Masonic cemetery. Bandon to pull down hills and bulkhead water front.

Newberg handle factory idle for years is in full operation.

Milwaukie—Portland Gas & Coke Co. granted franchise at $1.25 per 1000 feet.

Vale—Potassium nitrate is found in caves near here and $1,500,000 capital to work them.

North Bend tries to get water supply in competition with Coos Bay Water Co.

S. P. Co., has put on the fast Exposition special, leaving Portland daily at 12:30, noon.

Yamhill and Tillamook counties will expend $20,000 on Sour Grass road.

Classified Ads

For Sale, Rent, Wanted, Etc.

FOUND—Bicycle padlock. At The News office. 27

LOST—On Fifth street, purse and sum of money. Finder please leave at News office.

R. O. A. hall for rent. Well ventilated and lighted, clean and warm. Kitchen and dining room attached. Rates reasonable. Apply to Fred Watke, Gilbert Davis or W. A. Hall.

FOR SALE—Timber claim, for $6,000. No incumbrance, clear title, 8,806,500 feet if taken inside of 6 weeks. Address A. P. Nilsen, Springfield, Oregon. T-6t

FOUND—One bay mare. Owner may have same by calling, describing, paying for this ad and paying for keeping. A. L. Churchill, Springfield, Ore. R. F. D. 2. 37-8-9

PASTURE FOR RENT—Cattle 75c; horses $1. A. Lindley, Goshen, Ore., Phone 33 F 14 40-41*

FOUND—Two overcoats on the McKenzie road. Call at G. T. Pinkston's, near Hendricks' bridge. 41*

The News Only $1.50

KEEP YOUR EYE

On the Lane County News' Classified Column. It is the "mutual benefit salesman of Springfield, for it profits both buyer and seller.

Advertise if you want to sell; advertise for what you need. The Classified Column reaches the people you want to reach.

RATES LOW.

Lane County News

W. F. WALKER
UNDERTAKER
FUNERAL DIRECTOR
Office Phone 62; Residence 67-J
West Main St.

J. H. BOWER
Lawyer.
Phone 1221
831 Willamette St. Eugene, Oregon

CAREFUL, CONSCIENTIOUS
Dentistry
DR. J. E. RICHMOND
PHONES:—Office, 3; Residence, 111-J
Over Commercial Bank,
Springfield, Oregon.

See
Edwards & Brattain
For Farm and City Property
Exchanges a Specialty.
Springfield - Oregon
Phone 30

Office in City Hall, Springfield, Ore.
HERBERT E. WALKER
NOTARY
PUBLIC

..... The
Springfield Garage
H. SANDGATHE
Proprietor

Repairing a Specialty
Main, bet. Fourth and Fifth. Phone 11
SPRINGFIELD - OREGON

Office Ninth and Pearl Sts. telephone 889
DR. M. Y. SHAFFER, D. V. S.
VETERINARY SURGEON
AND DENTIST
Suite 2. Phone 888. EUGENE, ORE
Residence over Dodge's Store

DR. P. H. EAGAN
Veterinary, Surgeon
and Dentist
Office: Warnock's Feed Barn
Phones: Office 904
Residence 1122-J 1
EUGENE - OREGON

O. R. Gullion, M. D.
Practice Limited to
Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat.
Graduate Nurse Attending
306, White Temple, Eugene.

Commercial Printing at the News Office.